Volume 72, Number 11

Monday, November 30, 1998

Editors: Brent Manley and Henry Francis

They won the North American Swiss Teams: Steve Beatty, John Onstott, Bobby Goldman and Mark Lair.

The new Reisinger champions: Geir Helgemo, Andy Robson, Rita Shugart and Tony Forrester.

Runners-up in the North American Swiss: seated, Chris Compton and Boris Baran; standing, Mike Shuman, Jack Coleman and Mark Molson.

They were second in the Reisinger: George Jacobs, Ralph Katz, Lorenzo Lauria, Alfredo Versace, Peter Weichsel and Alan Sontag.

Beatty squad rallies for NA Swiss victory

The team captained by Steve Beatty won a near-blitz on the final round of the North American Swiss Teams to overtake the first-place squad and win the event by less than one Victory Point.

Beatty, of Destrehan LA, played with John Onstott of New Orleans; Bobby Goldman of Lewisville TX, and Mark Lair of Canyon TX.

In second were Jack Coleman, Mike Shuman, Mark Molson, Boris Baran and Chris Compton.

Going into the final round, Coleman was in the lead with 108.04 VPs. Beatty was in second with 103.01.

Beatty and company won their final round, 21-0, to score 18 out of the possible 20 VPs, while Coleman could manage only 12 VPs. Beatty ended with 121.01 to 120.04 for Coleman.

Soloway is 1998 Player of the Year

Paul Soloway's fifth-place finish in the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams was good enough to make him 1998 Player of the Year, which goes to the ACBL member who earns the most masterpoints in nationally rated events during a calendar year. He won 676.34.

Norway's Geir Helgemo, winner of the Reisinger, was a close second at 663.38, followed by Lew Stansby with 654.91. Stansby's Reisinger team finished fourth. He needed a first-, second- or third-place finish to overtake Soloway.

Repeat performance by Rosenkranzes

Both Edith and George Rosenkranz were winners yesterday -- but they weren't on the same team. Edith's team won the Flight A Swiss Teams while George's squad took first place in Bracket 1 of the Bracketed Knockout Teams.

Shugart holds on for Reisinger win

There were a few tense moments in the final, but Rita Shugart and her four-member squad led the Reisinger Board-a-Match from wire to wire in winning one of the toughest bridge events on the calendar.

Shugart played with Andy Robson and Tony Forrester of England and Geir Helgemo of Norway.

In second place, only .76 of a board behind, were George Jacobs, Ralph Katz, Alfredo Versace, Lorenzo Lauria, Peter Weichsel and Alan Sontag.

The Shugart team led after each of the first two days of the event, and after the first final session. The squad dropped out of first after the third round of the evening session, but they never fell further than second. After round seven, with six boards to play, the team moved back into the lead and held on for the close victory.

It was the first North American championships for Shugart, who was cheered enthusiastically outside one of the ballrooms at the Peabody as the Reisinger Trophy was presented.

Attendance: 12,035

Attendance at Orlando 1998 was a bit disappointing -- the crowds fell off during the last half of the tournament. Total attendance was 12,035 tables. Orlando 1992 still holds the record for the Fall North American NABCs: 14,980 tables.
