Zia and Howard Weinstein won the Blue Ribbon Pairs.

Zia, Weinstein win Blue Ribbon Pairs

Zia Mahmood and Howard Weinstein, playing together for the first time in years, put together two solid final sessions to win the Blue Ribbon Pairs by more than two boards.

The runners-up were Eric Rodwell and Marty Seligman, followed by the 1996 Blue Ribbon champs, Bob Blanchard and Jim Krekorian.

"My secret," Zia joked after the game, "is to play with Jewish guys who have German-sounding names." Zia's regular partner, with whom he has had considerable success, is Michael Rosenberg. The globe-trotting Pakistani is a two-time ACBL Player of the Year.

Weinstein, who became a Grand Life Master at this tournament, said he and Zia played a few times "five or 10 years ago" but not since. They hooked up when Weinstein's regular partner, Steve Garner, wasn't available.

Weinstein and Garner have been hot lately, winning the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams last fall in St. Louis, placing fourth in the Cavendish this spring and winning a calcutta in a strong field in London this summer.

At the world championships in Lille, France, Weinstein, Garner, Sidney Lazard and Bart Bramley lost by 3 IMPs in the Vivendi Rosenblum Teams to the Italian team which went on to win the event.

Weinstein is an options trader on the Chicago Board of Options Exchange. The Blue Ribbon was his sixth North American championship.

Paul Soloway held onto his lead in the 1998 Player of the Year race despite being nearly shut out in the Blue Ribbon Pairs, and he remains the betting favorite among the six contenders left in the contest as play begins today in the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams.

Soloway is a new member of the Nick Nickell team, which has won four of the last five Spingold Knockout Teams in addition to posting three straight wins in the Reisinger from 1993 to 1995.

Meanwhile, the field of contenders has been narrowed to Soloway, David Berkowitz, Lew Stansby, Richard Schwartz, Geir Helgemo and Geoff Hampson.

The winner is the ACBL member who wins the most masterpoints in nationally rated events in a calendar year.

No player can win more than 200 masterpoints --

Cash prizes coming

Winners of the Thanksgiving Jackpot Pairs will be announced today after eligibility and cash awards for winners are determined. Each winning pair of the three strats will receive no less than $992, second no less than $744.

Levine team wins Senior Knockout

The team captained by Mike Levine took a solid lead in the third quarter of the NABC Senior Knock-out Team final, then coasted to victory over James Koley and company, 164-87. Playing with Levine were Zeke Jabbour, Fred Hamilton, Arnie Fisher, Tom Sanders and Chuck Said. On Koley's team were Gene Simpson, Gene Freed, Syd Levey and Simon Kantor.

"The aging of the ACBL has made this a really tough event," said Jabbour, who now has won this event four times in its five-year history. He has played a total of 26 matches and has won 25 times. He lost in last year's final, but won the previous three years. Fisher put the same thought a different way: "The good players are getting older. It's getting tougher and tougher."

Said, who has won three times, was the only defending champion. Sanders is another three-time winner. Fisher was a member of last year's runner-up team

Newcomers having a ball here

Rose and Howard Fink of Miami took up bridge in 1994, but they didn't go to a tournament until four months ago. They played only one day at the Fort Lauderdale regional in July, but they went home with a trophy, some masterpoints -- and a serious case of bridge fever.

The Finks are among the 800 or so players who have populated the Intermediate/Newcomer games at the Fall NABC. Lynn Berg, I/N chairman, said that except for Thanksgiving, the I/N games have averaged 100 tables a day since the NABC began.

The Finks have been among the I/N program's best -- and happiest -- customers.

They won three trophies on Tuesday alone, and they had four for the tournament through Thursday afternoon.

A convention backfires

Back in the Sixties Bill Passell invented a convention. After an opening bid of a minor by either partner or right-hand opponent, a leap to 4♣ showed a long, strong heart suit and a leap to 4♦ showed spades. Over the years Bill and his wife Marlene have found that this convention works very well. The idea is to have the preemptor's hand go down as dummy and keep partner's hand hidden -- almost always a good idea. Not many players in the United States have adopted it, but it is quite popular in Canada and Mexico. It is quite similar to Namyats.

Well, it came up in the second semifinal of the Blue Ribbon Pairs.

This time it didn't work. It put East on lead, and of course he had no problem finding the club lead. So the defense took the first two tricks and the Passells scored up 650. At every other table South was the declarer and no West found a club lead. With the ♦Q dropping doubleton, the South declarers took all 13 tricks for 710.

What does it take to win a North American championship? Certainly skill and judgment, but a little luck at the right time doesn't hurt either. Grant Baze and George Mittelman took advantage of all three on their way to winning the Open Board-A-Match Teams on Monday. In the final session, they steered their way to the right side of two nice 4-3 trump fits, each of them worth a winning board.

With a 5-4 hand, it could scarcely be right to sell out to 1NT, but Mittelman had a decision to make on exactly how to balance. In a new partnership, it wasn't clear to him exactly what a passed-hand double would mean, so it was definitely safer to bid one of his suits. But which? His decision to bid spades was probably influenced by the higher scoring potential of the major, not to mention the fact that he didn't want a diamond lead if the auction were to continue to an East-West contract.

His choice was a happy one on this layout. West led the ♥Q, but nothing mattered. With spades 3-3, no defense could garner more than four tricks, while declarer had the obvious nine for plus 140.

The second decision was more complex and occurred on a board that was played at only two tables in the entire event. A movement error resulted in a new board having to be substituted for Board 23. This was the replacement deal:

Again, the new partnership was in uncharted waters. Baze puzzled for a while over the 4♠ bid, but finally decided it could not be a slam try. Since in his view, 4♦ had not been forcing, it was impossible for Mittelman (who had shown little so far) to be offering more than a choice of games. Certainly Baze tabled the dummy in 4♠ with the air of a man who is afraid the wheels had come off. Mittelman, for his part, having missed a chance at both 2♣ doubled and 3NT, was unwilling to play in 5♦ at board-a-match scoring. So there they were again.

West, understandably confused by the bidding, started the A, a lead not likely to strike fear into declarer's heart. The ♣Q was continued, won by the king after a diamond discard from dummy. Now came a heart to the king and ace, and East made the reasonable switch to a low diamond. After all, if partner had a singleton he might have led it, so perhaps he had none? Winning the diamond, Mittelman drew trumps (having no difficulty finessing against the ♠J after the auction) and claimed plus 450.

Skill, judgment, and a little luck at the right time are fine commodities. But which order should those be in?

Wonjoo thrives in tough times

Wonjoo Goldstein of Elkins Park PA was thrilled when she visited the Daily Bulletin office. She has been playing bridge only a few years, and now she was in the final of the Blue Ribbon Pairs.

"I always like to play with the big boys," she said. It's a lot more exciting and you learn a lot more."

She was playing with her husband Steve -- and that brought up something that puzzles her. "Why do they say that husbands and wives shouldn't play bridge together? I love to play with my husband. I don't see why anybody should have any problem playing with their wife or husband."

Wonjoo loves the game. "There are so many wonderful people who play bridge. I have made so many good friends since I've been playing. It's really great."

Steve says Wonjoo thrives on tough competition. "We always do better in big tournaments than we do in club games. Wonjoo is thoroughly into the game. She reads a lot of books, and she especially enjoys Bill Root's books."

"I met William Root last night," Wonjoo said excitedly. "I introduced myself and told him how much I enjoy his books. He seemed pleased."

Wonjoo already is a national champion, but not in the ACBL. "We played in the Mixed Pairs at the ABA National in Philadelphia." said Steve, "but we didn't hang around for the scores. It seemed like a routine game -- maybe a little better than average. We saw Howard Piltch a couple of days later, and he told us we had won!"

Wonjoo found the killing opening lead on this hand from the first semifinal of the Blue Ribbon Pairs. It sank declarer's slam before he even got started.

That 4NT by West was described as quantitative, so Wonjoo knew West had some diamonds -- and that's the suit that East opened. Looking at six diamonds, she decided the best bet was to find partner void in diamonds, so she led the 7. Steve ruffed, returned a spade to Wonjoo's ace and got a second ruff for down two and 86 out of a possible 90 matchpoints.

Totally frustrated

"I've got good news and bad news," said Sathya Bettadapura as he visited the Daily Bulletin office.

"The good news is that my partner and I qualified for the final of the Blue Ribbon Pairs. The bad news is that we can't play in the final. Right at this moment my partner is flying home."

What happened? Nothing really. His partner had always intended to go home on Thursday. It never occurred to him he would qualify for the final, so he thought he was perfectly safe entering the event.

So Bettadapura had a Blue Ribbon qualification that he had to give to someone else.

Yesterday's issue featured several National Head Caddies working at the Fall NABC. These three, who were off last night, are the National Head Caddies from Canada: Bernice Gee of Regina SK, Ian Boyd of Calgary AB and Elaine Ware of Vernon BC.

Crunch time

There's a saying in the military that when the going gets tough.....etc. An analogous bridge saying might start off, "When the contract is too high....."

Larry Cohen, playing with David Berkowitz, found himself one level too high on this deal from the first final session of the Blue Ribbon Pairs. He got a little help on opening lead, but there was still a lot of work to do.

- (1) DONT: diamonds and a major.
- (2) Pass or correct.

Game is usually not a target after an opponent opens a strong 1NT. Berkowitz raised when Cohen showed that his second suit was spades in case Cohen had extra values or a very shapely hand -- 5-5 in diamonds and spades was not out of the question.

East led a low club, taken in dummy. Cohen cashed the second high club and discarded a heart. He then played the ◆3 to his king and a low diamond to the jack in dummy. West won the ace and cashed a high heart, continuing with a heart to East's queen. Cohen ruffed the third round of hearts and played a low diamond, ruffing low in dummy. He then played a low spade, winning the queen when West played the 10. This was the end position:

Cohen played the ◆Q, East discarded the ♣Q and Cohen pitched a club from dummy. West refused to ruff with the ♠A. When Cohen continued with the ◆9, East ruffed in with the ♠J, Cohen overruffed with the king and West in turn overruffed with the ace. At that point, Cohen claimed. If West led a club, Cohen could ruff as East followed suit and win trick 13 with the good ♠9. If West led a heart, Cohen could ruff, catching East in a coup of sorts. If East overruffed, dummy's 9 could overruff East and Cohen could ruff dummy's losing club at trick 13.

Making 140 was worth 35 out of 38 matchpoints.

Stealth bomb

When you hold a singleton king behind declarer. . . and you know declarer has the ace and mostly likely the queen. . . and you know declarer is going to work out that you must have the king. . . well, you figure it's only a matter of time before you're saying adios to his honor.

Not if you're Hugh Ross, who must have some special karma that attracts the bizarre to his table.

Observe how Ross and Peter Nagy avoided the seemingly inevitable on this deal from the second semi-final session of the Blue Ribbon Pairs.

Ross led the $\bigstar K$ and was disappointed in a way when Nagy played the 4 (encouraging in their upside-down carding methods). Ross figured that North, an expert player, would note the location of the $\bigstar A$ and, adding things up, arrive at the conclusion that there was little point in taking a club finesse which was doomed to failure.

Still, Ross had nothing better to do than continue diamonds, and the 10 went to the jack and ace, ruffed by declarer. Nagy, not expecting declarer to ruff, thought he won the trick, so he returned a low club, a lead out of turn.

The director was summoned and North chose to have the ♣4 remain as a major penalty card. Declarer then played the ♠K to Ross's ace, and required the lead of a club into his A-Q.

All of a sudden, Ross had an advantage. He figured declarer knew he had the $\clubsuit K$, but between them, Nagy and Ross had inadvertently managed to conceal the fact that the honor was singleton.

Declarer cashed the extstream Q and ruffed a spade and played a low club off dummy. Nagy followed with the extstream J and North played the queen.Boom! There went the contract.

Ross ruffed and played a fourth round of spades, ruffed in dummy and overruffed. Nagy then cashed the ♣10 for plus 100 to East-West. The score was worth 85 out of 90 matchpoints.

Active Ethics

Richard Laven and Linda Sundbye bid up to 4$\\delta$ doubled, and Sundbye claimed 10 tricks with five tricks to go. The opponents accepted her claim and moved on to the next table. But a few minutes later Sundbye came back and said she had made a false claim. "I started thinking about the hand, and there's no way I can take 10 tricks," she told her opponents. She went to the director, explained the situation and insisted that the score be changed to one down instead of four making.

99er Pairs premiers

One gold point is the prize for winners of today's two-session event for players with fewer than 100 masterpoints -- the National 99er Pairs. The rest of the points awarded will be red.

The event will be played at 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. in the Orlando Room. This is the third of three national events for newcomers -- the 49er Pairs was played at the Spring NABC in Reno and the 199er Pairs debuted at the Summer NABC in Chicago.

Soloway sights sets sights on triple crown

When the Reisinger Board-a-Match Teams gets under way, Paul Soloway will have a chance to complete a sweep of all three major NABC teams events (Vanderbilt, Spingold and Reisinger) in the same calendar year -- a feat that has never been accomplished.

A few players have won the three events sequentially (Reisinger in the fall, Vanderbilt in the spring and Spingold in the summer, for example) but never in the same year.

Soloway and teammates Bobby Goldman, Mark Lair, Richard Schwartz, Chip Martel and Lew Stansby won the Vanderbilt at the Spring NABC in Reno.

With a new partner -- Bob Hamman -- and new teammates -- Nick Nickell, Dick Freeman, Jeff Meckstroth and Eric Rodwell -- Soloway won the Spingold at the Summer NABC in Chicago. (The Nickell team warmed up for the event by winning the International Team Trials in June. As U.S.I, they will represent the U.S. in the 2000 Bermuda Bowl.)

Soloway topped the 50,000-masterpoint mark in September and is the current leader among the Player of the Year competitors.

The Reisinger

The event is contested for the Reisinger Trophy (the Chicago Trophy until 1965). It is a six-session open team-of-four event scored by board-a-match with two qualifying sessions, two semifinal sessions and two final sessions. It was contested as a four-session championship until 1966.

The event began in 1929 as the North American

Open Team Championship and the prize was the Chicago Trophy, donated by the Auction Bridge Club of Chicago. (In 1928, the open team competition was for the Harold S. Vanderbilt Cup.)

The Chicago Trophy was replaced in 1965 by the Reisinger Memorial Trophy, donated by the Greater Curt Reisinger.

New York Bridge Association in memory of Curt H. Reisinger.

Reisinger (1891-1964), of New York City, was a principal patron of contract bridge and the American Contract Bridge League in the early years of both.

Reisinger was a great-grandson of Anheuser and a grandson of Busch, co-founders of the brewery from which he inherited great wealth. That wealth enabled him to become a stalwart financial supporter of the game, as well as a noted philanthropist on a far larger scale.

In the years when there was often a struggle to meet the League's modest payroll, Reisinger was often called upon and never failed to help with a loan or an outright gift. His support made possible several early contract bridge tournaments, clubs and books.

Among the positions in which he served were director of the United States Bridge Association, president of the Greater New York Bridge Association and chairman of the ACBL. In 1953, Reisinger was named ACBL Honorary Member.

Looking back

• The only all-women's team to win the Reisinger -- or any other major open team event -- was Sally Young, Jane Jaeger, Paula Ribner and Kay Rhodes. They tied in 1947 with John Crawford, Ted Lightner, George Rapee and Sam Stayman; and Robert Appleyard, Simon Rossant, Morris Berliant and M.A. Lightman.

Young, Life Master #17, was the first woman to earn Life Master rank. Among her successes were three additional wins in the Reisinger, seven wins in the Women's Teams, four wins in the Women's Pairs, five wins in the Mixed Teams and one win each in the Fall Open Pairs and Fall Mixed Pairs. She died in 1970.

Ribner and Jaeger, both now living in Florida, are Gold Life Masters who remain active players. Jaeger was a member of the winning squad in the Grand National Teams in 1973, its inaugural year.

Jaeger and husband Lewis were the first married couple to attain Life Master rank -- #74 and #94, respectively -- and Lewis was a member of the winning Reisinger team in 1934. Together, they were second in the Vanderbilt in 1956.

Jaeger recalls that the 1947 Reisinger was "pretty close, as I remember. We were on pins and needles for a while."

Ribner remembers that the four "were all very good friends. We all played with each other."

Rhodes, a Silver Life Master who died in 1996, recalled in a 1995 interview that the three-way tie "had us all checking our scores, trying to find a win."

• Fifty-one years ago, at the Fall NABC in Hollywood FL, Edith Freilich became the 13th woman to win the Reisinger. Her teammates were Mitch Barnes, John Crawford and Al Roth.

Freilich and Roth repeated their victory in 1952. This time their teammates were Harold Harkavy and Tobias Stone.

- The history of the Reisinger is dotted with back-to-back wins, but only the Nickell squad has the three -peat. The team of John Crawford, Charles Goren, Charles Solomon and Sally Young won in 1937 and 1938 -- the same squad, plus B.J. Becker, also won in 1939.
- Oswald Jacoby won his first Reisinger in 1955, playing on a team with his son Jim -- the only fatherson combination to win the event.
- Jacoby's second Reisinger win came in 1983 when he was invited to join the team of Edgar Kaplan, Norman Kay, Richard Pavlicek and Bill Root. Jacoby was battling cancer but he was a vital part of the team effort that won the Reisinger.

On this deal, Jacoby was plus 450 at his table while Pavlicek-Root scored plus 100 at the other table. Pavlicek doubled 4♠ and they beat the contract one trick.

Jacoby played 4♠ undoubled and made five without any warning about the trump suit.

The opening diamond lead went to dummy's ace, and Jacoby played a heart to the king and ace. East thought it was a good idea to underlead his •A. It wasn't Jacoby put up the ♣K, then cashed the ♥Q J to pitch his last club. Then he ruffed a club and ruffed a diamond, ruffed another club and ruffed another diamond.

Next he led the fourth heart from dummy and when his right-hand-opponent followed, he ruffed with the ◆9, overruffed with the jack.

East led a trump (perforce) and Jacoby was down to the ♠K 8 in his hand and the ♠A 10 in dummy. He won the 10 and had a high crossruff with the ace and king, East futilely underruffing at the end.

• John Crawford holds the record for most Reisinger wins with 10. His victories spanned four

Said Zia: "The best thing about this was that we had a black (Smith), a Jew (Cohen), a Hindu (Shivdasani) and a Muslim (Zia) playing together. It is good to show how bridge can bring together people from such different backgrounds. It just shows a special magic about the game of bridge."

- A multi-national team won again in 1989. Zia was on the team which included Sam Lev, Israel; Michael Rosenberg, U.S. but formerly of Scotland; Chris Compton, U.S., and Mark Molson, Canada.
- Molson scored a rare double at the Fall NABC in Lancaster PA that year. He took top honors in the two premier events of the tournament -- the Reisinger and the Blue Ribbon Pairs.
- The record margin of victory in the Reisinger -- 10 full boards -- was set in 1966 by Kaplan, Kay, Robert Jordan and Arthur Robinson.
- Several ACBL presidents and members of the board of directors have won the Reisinger: Charles Solomon, Jeff Glick, Waldemar von Zedtwitz, Bobby Wolff, Lew Mathe, Peter Leventritt, John Gerber, Ira Corn, Don Oakie and Edgar Kaplan.

- (1) 11-14 HCP
- (2) Alerted; clubs or both red suits
- (3) Pass or correct
- (4) Break in tempo

The Facts: 3♠ went down one, plus 50 for N/S. The Director was called to the table after the 3♠ bid. He was told that West had both questioned the meanings of the Alerts for the first time and broken tempo before he doubled 3♠. Also, West had not asked the meaning of the Alerted 3♠ bid before he doubled. The Director ruled that the unauthorized information present made East's 3♠ bid demonstrably suggested over other logical alternatives (Law 16). The contract was changed to 3♠ doubled made four plus 870 for N/S.

The Appeal: E/W appealed the Director's ruling and were the only players to attend the hearing. E/W stated that the auction was in tempo until North took three minutes to bid 2♠ (showing clubs or both red suits). West stated he had taken five or six seconds to double 3♦. E/W said they were familiar with the N/S convention, having played it themselves. They thought the hesitation before doubling after learning the meanings of the complicated conventional bids had been negligible. They believed that the double of 3♦ meant "do something intelligent," and was basically cooperative. West stated he would have been content to hear his partner bid either 34 or 4♣ if her hand was unsuitable for defense. East justified her 3♠ bid on the basis that she had little red-suit defense. If East had doubled 2♠ it would have shown four spades of at least fair quality.

The Committee Decision: When West doubled $3\clubsuit$ with no explanation of the conventional calls, he set up a situation where subsequent questioning might have implications. His timing of questions suggested he had a clear double of $3\clubsuit$, but a not-so-clear double of $3\spadesuit$.

The Committee believed West intended the double of $3\clubsuit$ for penalty since a conversion to $3\clubsuit$ seemed unlikely from East's failure to double $2\spadesuit$, and also because a bid of $4\clubsuit$ by East was too likely to be a losing choice.

West had the right to the information about the Alerted bids, but had to find an unrevealing way to solicit it. Law 16 specifically includes a question among the things that may suggest a call or play. However, the timing of West's question (primarily) and the break in tempo (secondarily) pointed to the double of 3♦ being on uncertain ground and therefore of a more cooperative nature. The Committee decided that without such information, a substantial number of East's peers would pass.

The Committee changed the contract for both pairs to 3♦ doubled made four, plus 870 for N/S.

The Facts: 4♠ went down one, minus 50 for N/S. The Director was called after the hand was over and was told that East had huddled, made faces, and asked questions about the auction before she passed 4♠. West, after the hand was over, stated something to the effect of "good thing your barred me, I would have bid 5♠."

The Director allowed the table result to stand.

The Appeal: N/S appealed the Director's ruling and were the only players present at the hearing. N/S stated that West should be made to bid 5♣, permitting N/S to defend 5♥.

The Committee Decision: The Committee decided that West's comment, after the play of the hand was completed, was not relevant to the result. West's comment suggested that she had made the "ethically correct" decision to not bid over partner's break in tempo. West was under the mistaken understanding that she was barred by her partner's break in tempo.

The Committee allowed the table result of $4 \triangleq$ down one, plus 50 for E/W to stand.

Often a double in such a sequence calls for the first suit bid by dummy, which in this case was hearts. Maybe the double called for an unusual lead. Certainly hearts was not the suit -- the opponents had a 5-3 fit announced in the bidding. East, Al Levy, had the opportunity to double diamonds, but didn't. And spades was the natural opening lead, so that wouldn't be unusual. So that leaves clubs.

On a club lead the contract would go down one --minus 200. The actual lead was a spade, so Arnie Fisher took all 13 tricks for plus 1600. What a swing!

The shoe fits

Has anyone noticed that appeals are being heard in the Challenger Room? Interesting!

Tournament Director Mike Flader presents trophies to the Thursday afternoon winners in the Intermediate/Newcomer game -- Sharon and Lou Navin.

Newcomers

They're planning on staying through Sunday.

They even stayed up late Wednesday to play in the Zip Knockout, lasting for three rounds. Says Howard, a CPA, "I'm amazed."

Says Rose: "We're thrilled to pieces."

Once they were bitten by the tournament bug, the Finks went all out. Right after the Fort Lauderdale regional, they vacationed in Colorado. "We went to three sectionals in Colorado and the Puget Sound Regional in Seattle," Rose reports.

Rose says she has especially enjoyed the I/N games at the Fall NABC. "Everyone is so friendly -- and we've met so many people. We've seen some of the people here we met in Colorado."

Berg says everyone is pleased to have removed the "novice" from the I/N program.

"The players don't want to be called novices," Berg says. "Many of them have been playing bridge for many years. They are not novices, they are newcomers to duplicate or tournaments. We are simply identifying them as what they are."

She said the I/N program has received loads of support, including an 18-page glossary of bridge terms provided by the Fifth Chair Foundation and pamphlets and door prizes furnished by Baron Barclay Bridge Supplies.

As usual, I/N program workers have made special efforts to assure that the newcomers enjoy themselves at the NABC.

It has certainly worked on the Navins, Lou and Sharon, who divide their time between Aspen CO and Naples FL.

Before she attended the NABC, Sharon said she was petrified at the prospect of playing at such a big tournament. "We thought we'd be eaten alive," she says. "I did not expect the nice, relaxed atmosphere."

Says Lou, who retired 10 years ago as vice president and chief financial officer for Honeywell in Minneapolis, "It couldn't be better."

Lou was excited Thursday afternoon because he and his wife had placed first overall with a near-60% game -- "our biggest game ever."

Sharon says Lou is very friendly, always striving to make everyone at the table feel good. "He is the ambassador." Says Lou: "I think you should always try to find something nice to say."

As their names were called for coming in first and they were summoned to receive their trophies, Lou was beaming: "This is so much fun," he said. "It's like playing in Vegas -- we just hit the slots."

Another newcomer who has had an outstanding NABC is Donna Harrison of Holliday MO, north of the state capital of Columbia. She flew in Nov. 19 for a visit to her daughter, "But I told her she'd have to wait until the Saturday after Thanksgiving for the visit."

Harrison has played every day, and as of Thursday afternoon had won the second-highest number of masterpoints in the I/N games.

Widowed seven years ago, Harrison tried other activities, golf and square dancing to name a couple, but they didn't hold her attention as duplicate has. She took up the game at a senior center in Columbia. She played her first duplicate game about a year ago. "I thought I knew how to play," she says, "but I didn't know tiddly. I'm a fast learner, though."

Berg says the newcomers are "excited beyond belief" at the chance for gold points in today's National 99er Pairs.

Howard Fink no doubt sums up the feelings of most, if not all of the newcomers when he says: "Bridge is fantastic!"

Check cashing

Check cashing and Bridge Bucks sales will take place from 12 to 1 p.m. outside the Atlantic Room on the Conference floor.

Player of the Year the payoff for first in the Reisinger -- in the nationally rated events left at this tournament, so any player more than 200 MPs behind Soloway has no chance. Additionally, three of the players within the point range -- Eric Rodwell, Jeff Meckstroth and Nickell -- are Soloway's teammates in the Reisinger.

Two others fewer than 200 MPs behind -- Larry Cohen and Chip Martel -- are teammates of contenders ranked higher and thus are eliminated.

Soloway earned only 1.53 masterpoints in six sessions in the Blue Ribbon, but his closest rival, David Berkowitz, could do no more than narrow the gap to 3.57 MPs. Berkowitz and Larry Cohen finished 12th in the Blue Ribbon.

Right behind Soloway and Berkowitz and very much in contention is Lew Stansby, only 38.86 masterpoints off the lead. All three are playing on different Reisinger teams.

Rodwell jumped from eighth to fourth in the annual contest after finishing second in the Blue Ribbon, but even a win in the event would not have been enough for Rodwell to pass Soloway -- the only way Rodwell had a chance to be the 1998 Player of the Year.

Here are the mostly updated standings -- some section awards may not be included -- to include the Life Master Open Pairs, the Open Board-a-Match Teams and the Blue Ribbon Pairs.

Senior Knockout

along with Jabbour and Levine. This was Levine's second victory. Fisher and Hamilton were winning their first Senior Knockout.

Said and Sanders have not played together for years, but they functioned just fine throughout. Sanders says he wasn't too strong at the start because he hasn't been playing much, but he gained momentum as the event progressed.

For Levine, Jabbour, Hamilton and Fisher, this is the second NABC title this year -- they also won the Senior Swiss Teams at the Summer Championships in Chicago. The other members of that team were P.O. Sundelin and Richie Reisig.

LEVINE won every quarter. They led by 11 after 16 boards and upped it to 23 at the halfway mark. That good third quarter increased the lead to 55, and the final margin was 77.

Hamilton was sure he was going minus on Board 29 of the Senior Knockout Teams final. These were the North-South hands:

Senior Knockout final

Koley	21	49	70	87

Gene Freed led a heart and of course Hamilton put up the king -- but Syd Levey produced the ace. Now it looked like a sure set -- it appeared that the defenders were poised to cash five (or more) heart tricks. Levey cashed the ♥Q and ♥J, then shifted to the ♣10. Suddenly Hamilton realized he had a chance.

What was East's distribution? Well, clearly he had three hearts. When Freed played the 3 on the club trick, it was clear he had another club -- Levey would have led the king if he had the K-Q-J-10. So Levey had only three clubs. If he had five spades, he would have opened 1♠, so he couldn't have more than four spades. Therefore he had to have three diamonds. Cashing out the spades wouldn't work for Hamilton-- he would be able to take only one diamond finesse -- and he needed two.

So he did what he had to do -- he led the ♠K and overtook it with the ace! He tried the diamond finesse, and it worked. So he went back to dummy with a spade, noting the 8 and 9 falling from West. He cashed the third spade -- and down came the 10! So he cashed the now good ♠7 and took another diamond finesse, picking up the suit. Hamilton had four spade tricks, four diamonds and a club -- he made 3NT!
