New CEO Silber visits tournament

David Silber, approved by the Board of Directors as the new CEO for the ACBL, is getting a firsthand look at what a North American Bridge Championship is all about. He traveled from his home in San Francisco to Reno vesterday and is planning to spend a couple of days here.

Silber is an avid bridge player, working in at least one social game a week into his busy schedule.

He dropped by the Daily Bulletin office last night and was fascinated at the idea that a publication could be produced by 8:30 in the morning that included all the activities from the previous day. He also chatted with Tom Quinlan, the chief tournament director, and got a brief overview of how large a staff is necessary to conduct an NABC.

The Daily Bulletin will conduct a full-scale interview with the ACBL's new boss. This will be published here early next week.

JUNIOR DAY Wolff featured speaker

Former world champion Bobby Wolff will be the featured speaker at today's Junior Day dinner and reception, scheduled for 5-7 p.m. in Cascade 1 & 2 on the mezzanine level.

Wolff, a 10-time world champion and former ACBL and WBF president, is chairman of the Junior Team Trials selection committee. He will discuss the next Junior Team Trials, scheduled for the Summer NABC in Chicago.

Al Levy, District 24 representative to the ACBL Board of Directors, will update Juniors on the planned Juniors vs. Computers contest, also SET for Chicago.

Damiani honored by ACBL officials

Jose Damiani, president of the World Bridge Federation, was honored yesterday at a reception hosted by ACBL President Richard Anderson.

In his introcution, ACBL CEO Roy Green told of what a great friend of bridge and the ACBL Damiani has been over the years. He especially mentioned the strides Damiani has made in moving bridge toward Olympic recognition and a possible berth in the Winter Olympics.

Damiani told of his happy association with the ACBL and of his friendship with many ACBL members. He said he believes the World Bridge Federation is making strides towards it goal of peace, harmony and goodwill throughout the world through bridge.

Others who were introduced:

Harry Bell, American Bridge Association coordinator with the ACBL, and Ed West, president of the Northwest Section of the ABA.

Kathie Wei-Sender, ACBL's ambassador of bridge, who in turn introduced Mr. Xiao of China. Mr. Xiao is here to study how ACBL works with the Internet. He works with Chinet at home.

Garner and Caravelli lead Open Pairs I

Steve Garner and Gerald Caravelli held a slender 6.77-matchpoint lead going into today's final two sessions of Open Pairs I.

Garner-Caravelli, whose Chicago-area team won the 1996 International Team Trials and represented the U.S. in the 1996 World Open Olympiad, scored 2109.27 to 2102.50 for Simon Satanovsky and Carol Third were Rose Johnson-Richard Zucker, 2092.25, followed by Lewis Finkel-Peter Weichsel, 2066.43; and Michael Moss-Bjorn Fallenius, 2048.00.

Going to Lille? Get your info here

The World Championships in Lille are going to be very special. If you are considering making the trip for the August 21-September 4 tournament, it will be very much worth your while to pick up your Lille packet while you're here in Reno. Information about hotel reservations, travel arrangements and nomination applications are included. Packets are available in the ACBL Executive Office (McKinley Room, mezzanine) or the ACBL Information Desk (Grand Salon, Casino level).

Vandy pre-registration required

Pre-registration for the Vanderbilt Knockout Teams in required before 8 p.m. this evening. Tournament Directors Steve Bates and/or Henry Cukoff will accept entries from team captains/representatives during afternoon and evening sessions until in the Reno Hilton Grand Ballroom area (Casino level).

Donaldson directing 1000th tournament

This tournament is special for Bob Donaldson of Ogden, Utah -- it marks the 1000th tournament he has worked as a tournament director Thirty years ago he was asked to help out at a sectional in his hometown of Ogden, and he's never stopped since.

"I've met so many pleasant people over the years. My area must be one of the most pleasant areas in the world to direct bridge games. I work mostly in small towns, and our sectionals are like friendly oversized club games.

Now I'm working my thousandth tournament, and I'm eagerly looking forward to my next thou-

During the 30 years, during which he has worked 270 to 310 sessions a vear. Bob has lived through some trying times. He especially remembers Idaho Falls 12 years ago, "I was working at a sectional when the Teton Dam broke and the water poured down toward the city. Idaho Falls was completely surrounded by water -- we were an island -- but we just kept right on playing bridge. The water went away, but we didn't."

Disasters apparently follow him around. "I was running a tournament

(1) Forcing heart raise

(2) Shortness

West led the ♦A. What should East do? Of course, East does not know that my South hand is 5-6 in the reds, but she does know that I have every one of the missing high cards.

Since a club void is a possible holding, East should probably signal suit preference on the $A. After all, attitude is clearly indicated.

At the table, East played a "high" ♦5. Can you blame West for failing to read the position and shifting to a club? If South has a singleton, partner is 3to-1 to have the ace.

The club shift let me ruff, draw trumps and throw dummy's spades on the diamonds for plus 480 and 11 out of 12 matchpoints.

If West plays a spade at trick two, how does East know whether to give partner a ruff or cash the A (necessary if declarer is 2-5-5-1, since the spade would provide a discard for the club in hand)? That is a tough one -- in fact, holding 4♥ to 420 would have been worth 10 out of 12 matchpoints the other

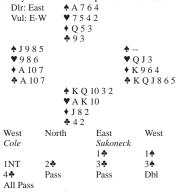

Two pairs bid slam but no one held 4♥ to just 10 tricks.

Ethical Oversight Committee

Members who are scheduled to attend a special hearing are asked to assemble Monday at 10 a.m. in the Shasta II Room (mezzanine level).

Not close on this one

Ron Sukoneck and Bill Cole claimed a narrow victory in the North American Open Pairs Flight A but they won all the matchpoints on this board.

South led the \bigstar K and Sukoneck ruffed. He drew two rounds of trumps, ending in dummy, and led a low heart to his queen and South's king. South exited with a spade and Sukoneck ruffed again.

Now he played a diamond to the ace and led a low diamond. When North followed low, Sukoneck played his 9. South won the ♦J but was endplayed. If he returned a third spade, Sukoneck would ruff and cash his ♦K. When the suit split 3-3, he would cash the 13th diamond and pitch one of dummy's hearts. Now he could concede a heart and ruff his remaining heart -- and claim 10 tricks.

If South returned either red suit, Sukoneck would follow a similar route to 10 tricks.

Junior Month boosts projects, Junior Camp

ACBL's third Junior Month -- February 1998 -- raised more than $22,000 for Junior projects in the U.S. and Canada, according to preliminary figures.

Final figures will not be available until the end of the month, but it appears likely that this year's processes will exceed the $23,000 raised last year.

The U.S. funds are ear-marked for the Junior Bridge Camp, scheduled just after the Summer NABC in Chicago

Canadian funds will go to the Canadian Bridge Federation's Junior Development Fund.

Goodwill message

Today is Junior Day, the day we celebrate -- and salute -- our Junior players.

These players, ages 25 and younger, are the future of ACBL. Encourage them. Today's Junior player is tomorrow's Jeff Meckstroth.

Sign up for Bridge Camp

Limited space is available for ACBL's second annual Junior Bridge Camp, scheduled immediately following the Summer NABC in Chicago.

Junior players, ages 16-23, may apply by:

- Contacting Charlotte Blaiss here at the tournament in the Executive Office, the McKinley Room on the mezzanine level;
- Phoning her at ACBL Headquarters: (901) 332-5586 Ext. 214;
- Sending a written request to: Junior Bridge Camp, 2990 Airways Boulevard, Memphis TN 38116-3847;
- Sending email to: CBlaiss@ACBL.org. Space is limited to 100 Junior players.
 About 30 European Juniors are expected to attend, with the remaining spaces going to ACBL Junior players.

Cost of the camp will be $400 per person, with the ACBL Educational Foundation subsidizing $200 of that amount.

The camp will be Aug. 3-9 at St. John's Northwestern Military Academy in Delafield WI. Transportation will be provided on Monday, Aug. 3, from the Chicago Hilton, site of the Summer NABC, to Delafield and from Delafield to Chicago O'Hare International Airport on Monday, Aug. 10. Buses will arrive at O'Hare by noon.

The Camp's daily program includes lecture, physical sports, picnics, numerous bridge tournaments and an outing to a major league baseball game (the Milwaukee Braves vs. The St. Louis Cardinals).

Conditions revised for Knockout Teams

Effective immediately at this NABC, the General Knockout Team Conditions of Contest have been revised

In knockout play, any player meeting the individual participation requirements will receive the full overall award earned by his team. However, the rules by which an individual player fulfills his participation requirement have changed.

To fulfill the participation requirement, a player must meet each of the following conditions:

1. For any given overall award, a player must play at least 50% of all the boards played by the team at the time he (and the team) earned that award. (As in previous editions of these conditions, no player may play in a match past a time when he is unable to meet this condition.)

2.For any given overall award, a player must have played at least 50% of the boards in the match in which the team earned that award.

3.For a first-place award when the team wins the final, a player must also play at least 50% of the combined boards in the semifinal and final matches.

Combining the logic of conditions 2 and 3 means that a first-place award requires a player to play at least (a) 50% of each of the semifinal and final matches, or (b) all of the final match.

Players are reminded that a player may not enter any concurrent championship event while his team is participating in any match of the knockout.

In practice, this means that a player may miss an entire match without prior permission at any time during the event. However, depending on when a team is eliminated, a player who has sat out an entire match may not be awarded the overall position earned by the rest of his team members.

A chart listing the circumstances which will reduce an individual's position will be posted in the Knockout venues this week..

Americans trail French in Forbo Nations Cup rance, last year's Bermuda Bowl victor, added another laurel in February by winning the third annual Forbo-Krommenie Nations Cup in The Hague, Netherlands. The final standings: France 56, Netherlands 50, United States 38, China 36.

The Nations Cup is an invitational event to which four nations with outstanding recent records are invited. It is staged as a round-robin and scored by IMPs which are translated into Victory Points.

The French were tested only by the Americans, whom they defeated 16-14. Playing for France were Alain Lévy, Christian Mari, Paul Chemla and Philip Cronier. Representing the United States were Malcolm Brachman, Mike Passell, Paul Soloway and Bobby Goldman.

The Americans did better in the Forbo-Krommenie International Teams, an invitational event in which 64 teams from more than a dozen nations competed. The German team captained by Elinescu (Wadlow, Splettstoser, Hosler) took top honors. Meanwhile the Americans, trailing second-place China by 15 Victory Points, trounced the Chinese, 23-7, in their last match to take over second place by a single VP.

This was a key deal against China.

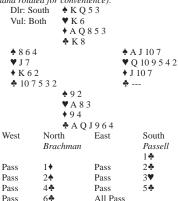

Brachman, hard-pressed for an opening lead, chose the ♥4. Declarer won with the queen and went after spades. Brachman covered the jack, and Passell played low on the ace, a Smith echo showing lack of interest in hearts. When declarer led a diamond off dummy, Passell put up the king, losing to the ace. After cashing the ♦Q, dropping Passell's 10, declarer lost a diamond to Brachman's 7, Passell discarding a heart. Brachman exited with the ♦7 to the 10, then won the next diamond as Passell ditched a spade.

This is the American team that finished second in the International Teams and third in the Nations Cup in the Forbo tournament held in The Hague, the Netherlands. Left to right: Mike Passell, Paul Soloway, Bobby Goldman and Malcolm Brachman.

Brachman recognized the endplay problem in hearts, so he switched to the king of clubs, continuing with the jack when declarer ducked. Declarer won the second club but had no way to get to his good spade trick in dummy. He exited with a club, but Passell was able to win this and shoot a heart through declarer to defeat the contract. Soloway and Goldman made the notrump game at the other table, so the Americans earned 12 badly needed IMPs.

Here's another key hand from the same match (hand rotated for convenience).

The slam certainly looked excellent. If the ♠A was onside, the diamond finesse would be unnecessary. And the only way a trump could be lost was if West had all five. Well, the clubs were stacked with West and the ♠A was not onside, but Passell still made his slam -- a 12-IMP gain since the Chinese North-South stopped in a notrump game.

Passell won the opening heart lead in hand and led a spade, losing the queen to the ace. He won the spade return, ruffed a spade and took the successful diamond finesse. He cashed the ♦A and the ♥K and ruffed a diamond. When Passell led his last heart, West was down to all trumps. Passell overruffed West's trump and claimed with four high trumps.

A most interesting format is used to conduct the International Teams. The 64 entries are carefully seeded into eight fields with approximately equal strength. On the first day, all teams in each field play eight-board matches against all other teams in their own field.

For the second day, the teams that place first and second in each group play a seven-round Swiss for good money prizes (8000 guilders -- about $4000 -- for first and 5000 guilders for second). Then all teams that finished third play a roundrobin for prizes, as do the fourth-place finishers, the fifths, etc. In this way every team has a chance at a money prize no matter how they did on opening day.

The Lord giveth . . . and the foreign minister taketh away

by Rich Colker

If it's February, it must be Japan. So Eric Kokish and I found ourselves at the 1998 NEC Cup Bridge Festival, this year's edition held at the beautiful Pacifico Convention Center in Yokohama. Eric has become a fixture at the tournament -- he and his wife Beverly Kraft having been doing the daily bulletins there for more than a decade. For me, this was only my second trip to Japan. I filled in for Beverly when she couldn't attend last year's tournament in Tokyo, co-editing the daily bulletins with Eric and the two of us joining the Indonesians to win the 1997 NEC Cup.

This year I was thrilled to once more be asked to join Eric when Beverly was again unable to attend. Our hosts, the Japan Contract Bridge League, had graciously added Eric and me as a third pair to the Japanese Youth team to give us a chance to play a little bridge (some might say that was a generous characterization of what we did), in addition to producing the daily bulletins (which can currently be found on the Internet at the tournament website: http://bridge.cplaza.ne.jp/necfest.html).

In this year's NEC Cup, the Festival's premier knockout team event, Eric and I inspirationally led our team to a twelfth-place finish. (Okay, okay, so there were only twelve teams in the event.) A team from Great Britain won, while Poland/USA finished second. The Foreign Minister's Cup, a two-day pair event, occupied the tournament's final weekend. Eric and I decided not to play in this event and do some sightseeing instead. But the weather, which until then had been uniformly beautiful, treated us to a mixture of snow, rain and fog. As I walked into the playing area during Saturday afternoon's second qualifying session play was already under way. I saw my friend Howard Weinstein of Chicago, winner of the 1997 Reisinger, playing with Japan's Kenji Miyakuni, a fierce competitor and frequent attendee at our NABC tournaments. I pulled up a chair and settled in behind Howard to watch a few hands of exciting bridge, I didn't have long to wait.

Board 12 was on the table and Howard had opened a weak 2 hearts on the West cards. While Kokish-san is even now cringing at the very thought of this bid, my style is much akin to Howard's — bid first, then (if the bid doesn't work out well) think of reasons why you shouldn't have done it later. As I reviewed the auction from the bid-box cards on the table I saw that Kenji had jumped to 4 clubs and South was asking, "What is 4 clubs?" Howard shrugged and, in his best Japanese (which sounds, to the uninitiated, amazingly like English), said that it would have been ace-asking without the double — with the double it was anyone's guess. (This was Howard and Kenji's first time playing together.)

When Howard bid 4 hearts and North doubled I wondered briefly if Kenji could have intended 4 clubs as natural. But Howard passed without apparent concern and the opening lead was the spade ace, 2, queen, 10, followed by a spade to the jack. Howard ruffed the third round of spades and then ruffed a club to dummy. When he called for dummy's heart jack South ducked smoothly and so, after a moment's thought, did Howard. North won the ace and returned a diamond. Howard cashed the ace-king of diamonds, ruffed a third diamond, and when the suit split three-three drew the final trump to score up plus 590.

"Did you have a good first session?" I asked.
"Quite good," Howard replied. "We're leading the field."

I dragged my chair to the next table.

All about overtricks

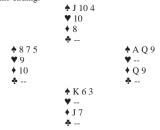

By Barry Rigal

Board 16 of the Charity Pairs gave Bill Wickham a chance to demonstrate his technique against us. It cost us a good board but he still made a nice play.

3NT by East is obviously cold -- this is all about overtricks. A low diamond lead went to the king and ace, followed by a club to the king and a club back to the ace. Now Bill cashed the ♥A K while he still had a club entry to dummy. The position in that suit was now obvious.

Bill cashed his club and heart winners to reach this ending:

When he led a low spade from dummy, Beverly Perry did her best by ducking smoothly. Bill countered, however, by putting in the $9. Even if this had lost to the jack or 10, I would have been endplayed to concede the 11th trick.

Looking back 9 years to Reno's first NABC

The biggest little city in the world hosted the biggest spring NABC ever -- that was the news from Reno's first NABC.

Reno set a record with 13,807.5 tables in play, easily breaking the record of 13,535 tables set in New York in 1968.

Here are highlights:

Kit Woolsey and Ed Manfield won the NABC Open Pairs for the second time.

3NT was a make, so Woolsey and Manfield had to find a way to take six tricks. Manfield led the ♠K and Woolsey played the 5, suggesting a switch. The pairwere playing upside-down signals and a high spotcard would call for a heart shift while a low spotcard would suggest a club switch.

Manfield accordingly led a club. Declarer went up with dummy's ace and led a heart. Manfield took his ace and led a second club, ruffed by Woolsey. Now Manfield could wait for three trump tricks. Plus 500 was a near top.

By the numbers

A pair of newcomers collected two unusual scores in recent 99er games. First they doubled 4.4 and beat it eight non-vulnerable tricks for plus 2000!

Next they played 1♥ redoubled -- making, with three vulnerable overtricks, for plus 1920!

Roaring through

Four New Yorkers roared through the final of the Women's Swiss Teams, recording eight wins and 208 of a possible 240 Victory Points -- an 86.7% score.

Kerri Sanborn, Karen McCallum, Kitty Munson and Margie Gwozdzinsky had a maximum of 30 Victory Points available in each match and they recorded: 25, 25, 30, 23, 30, 29, 18 and 28.

Here's a sample: Dlr: East Vul: Both ♥ A K J 10 4 ♦ K 3 4 J 10 8 6 2 ♦ 10 6 ♦ J 8 7 2 ♥87 ♥Q652 ♦ A 10 9 8 5 4 ♦76 ♣ A K 3 4 9 5 4 ↑ A K Q 9 5 4 ♥93 ♦ OJ2 ♣ Q 7 West North East South Munson Gwozdzinsky Pass 1 🍁 Dbl (1) 2 Pass 2 3NT Pass 3♦ Pass All Pass (1) Negative

North's 3♦ bid asked about a stopper and South became declarer in 3NT. West led the ♦9, showing zero or two higher, and South won the ♦Q to take the heart finesse by leading the ♥9.

Gwozdzinsky ducked smoothly. South eyed her suspiciously and led the ♣Q. Munson won the king and played the ♦A and another diamond, establishing her suit. When neither major suit broke favorably, declarer had only eight tricks.

At the other table, where Sanborn (South) declared 3NT, the opening lead was also a diamond. Sanborn, however, won dummy's •K and immediately led a low heart toward her 9. East won her queen and the contract was now unbeatable.

If East had ducked, Sanborn would next have played on spades and the defenders would have been held to a maximum of four tricks.

P.S. -- The foursome added Lynn Deas and Beth Palmer as teammates and Dorothy Truscott as non-playing captain for the North American Women's Bridge Team Championship.

They won the trials and went on to win the 1989 Venice Cup, the women's world team championships.

.Vanderbilt action

The team captained by Ron Rubin (Mike Becker, Lou Bluhm, Bart Bramley, Robert Levin and Peter Weichsel) won the Vanderbilt Knockout Teams 179-133 in a match that was decided in the first three quarters

They defeated the squad captained by Eddie Kantar (Alan Sontag, Larry Cohen, Cliff Russell, Billy Eisenberg and Dan Rotman).

Weichsel earned his team a swing with fine dummy play on this deal:

(1) Slam interest, spade control

Dlr: West

Weichsel won the spade opening lead in his hand and cashed the ♥K. Seeing the horrible break, he led his club.

East won his ace and led the ♥Q. Weichsel ducked but won the heart continuation. He crossed to dummy with a spade, cashed the ♣K for a diamond discard, ruffed a club to strip that suit and led spades in this position:

If Kantar (East) ruffs, he is endplayed, forced to lead a diamond away from his king or concede a ruffsluff. If East throws his last club, declarer can put him in with a club and force a diamond return.

Kantar took his best chance, pitching the ♦8 and ♦9. Weichsel, however, judged correctly, leading a diamond to the ace to make his contract.

At the other table, Rotman-Eisenberg landed in 6♥ doubled after a misunderstanding. Rotman duplicated Weichsel's line of play to finish minus 500 -- 15 IMPs to RUBIN.

Runaway in the Mixed Pairs

Dorothy and Alan Truscott proved that husbands and wives can play together, as they ran away from the field in the Mixed Pairs.

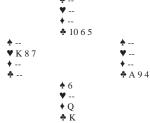

Dorothy scored up a doubled contract in most unusual fashion on this deal:

The opening heart lead went to West's queen and the heart return was ruffed with dummy's ♠J. Truscot now led a spade to her ace and led up to dummy's diamond honors. East should have won the ♦A and led another heart, but the ♦K was allowed to win.

Declarer ruffed a diamond, played a spade to dummy's king and ruffed another diamond. Now she ruffed a heart with the ΦQ and led another diamond from dummy.

West ruffed in with the $7 and declarer overruffed with the $8 as East followed. Now declarer put West in with a spade to the queen. Look at East's predicament when West led a heart and North ruffed low:

The $9 is trapped under the stiff king and East can come to only one trump trick, the $A. In his New York Times bridge column, Alan Truscott noted that East was the victim of an extended smother play.

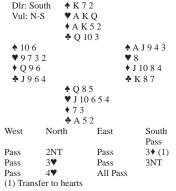

Please refrain from smoking beyond the Reno tournament banner near the playing area.

Avoiding a guess

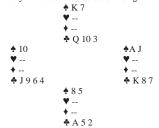

Successful declarers avoid putting themselves to the guess as often as they can. That way they have less chance of going wrong

On board 15 of the qualifying round of Open Pairs I, 4♥ appears to hinge on a club guess. However, as the play developed, no guess was necessary.

When East led what turned out to be a singleton heart, there were strong indications that he had awkward tenaces in the other suits. After three rounds of trumps, East had pitched two spades and now it was easy to lead a spade to dummy's queen. The last trump was drawn, as North and East both threw diamonds.

Three rounds of diamonds stripped out the suit entirely. This was the five-card ending:

Now a spade ducked to East let him cash a third round of the suit but now he was endplayed. His forced club return gave declarer two clubs without having to guess the suit.

in Kalispell, Montana, when Mount St. Helen's exploded. The ash completely covered Kalispell, and nobody could leave town. So we did the obvious -we ran another game. The Ash Pairs was extremely well attended -- the players didn't have anything else

All directors come up with a neat answer from time to time. Bob's favorite occurred when a woman complained to him that an opponent had psyched. Bob looked at the hand in question and announced, "That wasn't a psych -- it was just a bad bid." Bob says this went over so well that he's used it many times since.

When you live in Ogden, it's not easy to be a tournament director. Bob figures he has had to travel an average of 500 miles to each of his 1000 tournaments. Since this amounts to a 1000-mile round trip. that means he has driven about a million miles on the tournament trail. But he still finds time to spend with his wife Deanna. He also has two daughter -- Keli Sue and Louise -- and five grandchildren.

Sign up for Charity Bowling

Get your team together and sign up for Tuesday's "Charity Bowling with a Pro."

The NABC Entertainment/Charity Committee has rented the Hilton bowling alley for an hour beginning at midnight Monday. Teams of four will be joined by a bridge celebrity for bowling, food, drink, prizes and lots of fun.

Bowling skills are absolutely not required, emphasizes committee chairman Elaine Arthur. Entry is $25 per team and are available at the Registration

All proceeds will go to two District 20 organizations: CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates), a Portland OR child advocacy program, and the Assistance League of Reno/Sparks.

The ACBL Charity Foundation presented $2500 checks to the same organizations on Thursday night and Arthur hopes her committee's efforts will match that amount.

"My idea is to see how creatively you can raise money for these charities," she said.

Charity Raffle

Another project is the charity raffle with its grand prize of round trip airfare for two and 10 nights at the Chicago Hilton during the Summer

NABC. Tickets -- $10 each or three for $25 -- are available next to the Registration ______ Desk on the mezzanine level.
