Even the little ones play. Every day there's a bridge game in the Child Care center run by Donna Compton at every North American Championship. Here the youngsters are playing bridge, but the kids who are even younger play whist instead of bridge.

Chuck Said crashes 25,000 barrier

By Brent Manley

Chuck Said was just beginning to play duplicate when he learned that it would take 300 masterpoints to become a Life Master. He was crestfallen. "I thought

I would never do it in my lifetime," he recalled.

Four North American championships and more than 430 regional titles later, Said has amassed 25,000 masterpoints, making him only the 20th player in ACBL history to achieve that level. A Grand Life Master, he is 15th on the list.

Said, 64, is one of the most successful and well-liked professionals on the bridge circuit.

A native of Baghdad, Iraq, Said was always busy playing games as a youngster, organizing competitions at home for his siblings, watching American films and dreaming of a career on the stage or the silver screen.

In fact, when he arrived in the U.S. in 1957, it was to study theater and English literature at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti MI. "I always wanted to go

Meckstroth, Johnson lead Blue Ribbon

Jeff Meckstroth and Perry Johnson have a slim lead going into today's two final sessions of the Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs, sponsored by Cabot Cheese of Vermont.

The top five qualifiers North-South are: Srikanth Kodayam-Douglas Dang, J. Peter Franks-Mark Ralph, Louise Freed-Derrell Childs, Howard Weinstein-Steve Garner and Paul Soloway-Steve Catlett.

The top five qualifiers East-West are: Meckstroth-Johnson, Larry Cohen-David Berkowitz, Kit Woolsey-Fred Stewart, Chris Willenken-Glenn Pilgrim and Jerry Premo-Kay Beck.

Meckstroth, best known for his successful partnership with Eric Rodwell, has earned considerable success with other partners. He and Johnson won Open Pairs I in 1992 and the Cavendish Teams in 2000.

Cohen-Berkowitz have each won about 20 National American championships, many of them as a partnership. They finished second in the World Open Pairs in 1998 and ninth in the Rosenblum Teams in 1990. They won the Pan American Open Teams in 1992.

Caddies still needed

Caddymaster Jackie Matthews appreciates the help she received yesterday (see story on page 6) but still needs caddies for all sessions today – especially this afternoon. If you can help out, see Jackie on the second floor of the Hyatt.

Several players answered the call for caddies that Caddymaster Jackie Matthews issued so urgently. Here Peg Cundiff picks up the score ticket from the table where Avis Berger is playing. See story on page 6.

Levine, Colchamiro in Senior KO final

Teams captained by Mike Levine and Mel Colchamiro came from behind in their respective matches to meet in today's final of the Senior Knockout Teams.

Levine (Zeke Jabbour, Bobby Wolff, Dan Morse, Per Olof Sundelin, Arnie Fisher) won the first set against Jim Murphy (David Adams, Michael Huston, Bruce Reeve, Dennis Sorensen, George Pisk) 36-22 but trailed 48-55 at the half.

Levine took the third set 48-33 and the final set 37-28 to claim a 133-109 victory.

Colchamiro (John Stiefel, John Malley, Daniel Colatosti, Bernard Miller, Lewis Finkel), in contrast, trailed 29-14 after their first set against Rhoda Walsh (Marv Dauer, Betty Ann Kennedy, Don Krauss). They charged back, taking the second set 73-2 for a 87-31 halftime score. Walsh took the third set 34-31 and cut the margin to 118-66. Walsh rallied in the final set, outscoring their opponents 43-16, but it was not enough. Colchamiro won the match 134-109.

The ACBL set-up crew: (seated) Martin Ware and Jeff Johnston; (standing) Brian Russell and Tom Marsh.

Caring for bridge players

Bridge players are noted for their ability to focus on cluding their surroundings. The contract made or defeated, they move on to the next table - whether it's in their particular section or not.

Preventing such mishaps is the job of the directing staff - but before the directing staff can do its job, the set-up crew must do theirs.

This four-man crew – Jeff Johnston, Memphis; Tom Marsh, San Antonio TX; Brian Russell, Burnaby BC, and Martin Ware, Vernon BC – is responsible for setting up tables, chairs and section markers -- and a lot more.

"It doesn't happen by magic," said Nancy Foy, ACBL Director of Meeting Services. "Disney doesn't have the trademark on that."

The crew has been together for a while now. Marsh was recruited by Bob Woodward, who's now retired; Ware was recruited by Bill "Curley" Holt, who's also retired, and Russell was recruited by Ware. Ware and Johnston worked their first NABC in San Diego in 1994.

In fact, Johnston and Ware have worked together so long that one will say, "We need to -" and the other will interrupt: "That's already done."

"We know what needs to be done," said Johnston, Continued on page 6

Clever bid leads to interesting grand

Grant Baze couldn't show his king in response to Hugh Ross's 5NT inquiry, but he found a clever substitute bid that convinced Ross to leap to a grand slam. The deal occurred in the second qualifying session of the Open Board-a-Match Teams.

Baze leaped to 4♥ over 3♦ to show a heart splinter. In response to 4NT he showed two controls and the \mathbf{Q} . Over 5NT he was supposed to show specific kings, but if he showed the ♠K he would automatically force to the grand slam level. But he wanted to tell Ross that he had extra values, so he came up with the $6\clubsuit$ bid. Of course Ross thought Baze had the \clubsuit K, so it was natural to jump to $7 \spadesuit$.

When Ross saw the dummy after the heart opening lead, he knew he had his work cut out for him unless East covered the ♥Q. East thought about it for a while, but he finally ducked. Ross cashed the ♠A and ruffed a spade with the 10. He led a diamond to the 9 and ruffed another spade as East showed out. There went his best chance for the contract – he could have had two club discards on the spades if they had broken 4-3. Back to the drawing board.

Ross realized his only hope at this point was for some sort of a squeeze to show up. He crossed to the ♦Q and cashed the ♠K, pitching a club. He ruffed another spade and carefully cashed the \(\nabla A\). Then he played diamonds and his wish bore fruit – East had the ∇ K and the Δ K-Q, so he couldn't protect both suits. 7♦ bid and made.

Back to trick one – should East have covered the ♥Q in the best of all worlds? Yes! Covering takes care of any times his partner has either the ♥J or the ♥10. It loses only in the situation that actually existed.

A simple falsecard

This is your hand: ♠ K ♥ A K Q 8 6 3 ♦ A K J 10 5 ♠ A 10 8 5 4 2 ♥ 10 7 5

♣ K 2

You (North) arrive at 6♥ during a match in the North American Senior Knockout Teams. East cashes the ♣A on opening lead and continues with a club to dummy's king as you pitch a diamond. You cash a high heart and West follows with the jack. How do you plan to play?

If you draw a second trump, you can cash the ΔK , ruff a diamond with the 10 and pitch the last losing diamond on the ♠A. But how do you back to your hand? You have to lead a spade, and the possibility is strong that East will be able to overruff. You can't ruff with the queen because that will set up East's 9.

So what can you do? Don't draw the second trump! Cash the $\bigstar K$, $\bigstar A$ and $\bigstar K$ and ruff a diamond with the 10. Pitch the last losing diamond on the ♠A. And now you have a trump to get back to your hand to draw

You feel good about solving the problem and you cash the spade and the top diamonds. Oops! East ruffs the second diamond and beats the contract.

Then follows the ignominy of discovering that all you had to do was cash a second high heart – that ♥J was a falsecard – the hearts actually were 2-2. But it gets worse. When you compare scores you discover that you have lost the match by 2 IMPs. If you had read that the ♥J was a falsecard, you would still be in the event. But now Mel Colchamiro's team is the one that advances. It was Mel who made the convincing

(1) Multi, usually a weak two in a major.

Breed led the ♥A and declarer ruffed. She played a low club to dummy's king which held. Next she played a low club and Quinn won her queen. She shifted to the \blacklozenge 7: 3, jack, ace.

Declarer played a third club, as Quinn pitched the ◆5. Breed won her ♣A and returned a diamond, ruffed by Quinn.

Now Breed waited to score her protected ♠Q for down one and plus 100. This was good for a clear win since 4♠ made at the other table.

No overruff here

Ron Smith was pleased with his partner's defense on this deal from the first semifinal session of the Blue Ribbon Pairs. "Declarer tried to sucker partner into overruffing," said Smith. "Partner (Reese Milner) didn't overruff and declarer couldn't make his contract."

Smith led the A and declarer ruffed. Declarer played a heart and Smith won his ace. With no attractive alternative, he continued clubs. Declarer ruffed, played a heart to dummy's queen and ruffed another club. Now he led a heart and ruffed with dummy's ♠10.

If Milner had overruffed, declarer would win any return, draw trumps and claim 10 tricks – losing a heart, a spade and a diamond.

When Milner pitched, declarer could no longer make his contract. He lost a heart, a diamond and two spades for down one.

"I finally made it!"

James Apostolina of Sun City West began his quest for Life Masterhood in 1954, although he has never been serious about fulfilling this goal. Since he goes back so far, the gold point rule does not apply to him – all he needed was red points – 12 of them.

Well, he got them in the Bracketed Knockout Teams. He played with Lucy Hillestad with whom he started a partnership a year ago. Lucy lives in Woodruff WI in the summer, but she switches to Sun City once it gets cold.

Yes, James Apostolina is now a Life Master. But he's more than that - he's a Bronze Life Master as well. He already had more than 500 points before he came to this tournament.

Go West, young man

By Mark Horton

One of the delights of living in England (and there are not that many left) is listening to Alistair Cooke's weekly radio report, 'Letter from America', where he brings us up to date on what is happening across the Atlantic.

He recently reminded us of the exhortation to 'go West, young man' and, judging by the number of European stars here in Phoenix, a lot of people have taken his advice.

Austria's Sascha Wernle is a regular member of his country's Open Teams and he was involved in the following sensational deal from this year's tournament in Lublin.

Dlr: S	South 🏚 J 🤉	8 (

- (1) Strong, artificial, forcing.
- (2) Seven or more high-card points, fewer than three controls

West led the &J and declarer Wernle (South) paused to consider his chances. Clearly, friendly breaks in both minors would make 12 tricks easy to obtain, but why had West made such a seemingly dangerous lead?

Declarer decided that West was protecting awkward holdings in the majors and rejected any idea of playing East for the ΦQ .

Winning the club lead in hand, he crossed to the Φ K and played a diamond back to his hand, as West discarded a heart. With a deep plan in mind, declarer played all his remaining diamond winners to reach the following position:

♦8 ♥Q5 ♦--♣Q874 ♦K107 ♥A ♦--♣K9

West had discarded two spades and two more hearts on the diamonds, East a spade and two hearts. Just in case, declarer cashed the $\bigstar K$ and East discarded a heart.

Playing West to have been 3-5-1-4, Sasha led the ♠K from his hand and claimed when West's queen appeared.

It would not have helped West to bare the ∇K , as declarer would cash the ∇A , felling the king, and cross to dummy with a club. Amazingly, that would squeeze East as a spade discard allows declarer to play a spade to the king and a spade.

This was the full ending:

Once West has led a club, declarer cannot be defeated – provided he reads the hand correctly – but an initial heart lead would have been fatal as it removes the ∇A entry.

However, I'm sure you will agree that declarer's inspired play makes this a worthy candidate for "Hand of the Year."

Traveling first class

Two New Jersey women wanted to buy some toiletries and they asked the Hyatt doorman for directions to the nearest convenience store. He directed them to a gas station/convenience store about six blocks away.

The women walked to the store but could not find the items they wanted. A Phoenix policeman was in the store and the women asked him for directions to the nearest pharmacy. "It's about one and a half miles," he said.

"But I can't walk one and a half miles," said one of the women.

"I'll take you," said the officer.

"But how will we get back to the Hyatt?" said

"I'll wait for you and take you back to the Hyatt," said the officer.

True to his word, the officer took the women to the pharmacy, waited for them to make their purchases and took them back to the Hyatt.

One of the women insisted on riding in the front seat with the officer – "If any of our friends saw us, I didn't want them to think we were being taken to jail," she explained.

The rabbi still rules

You may recall that the late Ron Andersen frequently referred to the Rabbi's Rule – the king of clubs is always singleton offside. It served another rabbi very well on this deal from the second qualifying session of the Blue Ribbon Pairs.

East cashed a top heart and switched to a diamond. West took the ace and played a club, putting Rabbi Leonard Helman to the test. Since the ♠K had to be with West for declarer to have any chance, Helman thought it unlikely he would also have the ♣K, so he went up with the ace and soon claimed his contract.

It's amazing how often the Rabbi's Rule works.

"I'll sit in a chair"

The prospect of an Eddie Kantar table tennis match got Don Krauss reminiscing.

"Back in 1961, I was batting the ball back and forth with Eddie when he suggested that we play for money. When I demurred, he said for just a quarter. That seemed OK.

"'Tell you what,' said Eddie, 'I'll give you 13 points.' That was generous, I thought.

"Then Eddie said, 'And I'll sit in a chair.'" You guessed it – Eddie still won.

Bridge Festival with Audrey Grant

Audrey Grant, world-renowned teacher and author of outstanding bridge texts, will conduct a Bridge Festival this morning from 10 a.m. to noon in the Phoenix Ballroom at the Hyatt Regency.

Partnership defense will be her subject. It's designed to help you defeat more contracts.

The $20 fee includes a comprehensive handout.

A bidder's game

Mildred Breed says bridge has "really become a bidder's game" and she's in a position to know – she and partner Shawn Quinn won the Life Master Women's Pairs early in the week and followed with a win in the Women's Board-a-Match Teams.

This deal is from the second final session of the LM Women's Pairs:

South led the ♣10, ducked around to Breed's ♣K. She played a low spade toward dummy's jack and South grabbed her ace. South continued with the ♣8: 4, jack, 3. North shifted to her singleton diamond, ducked to South's 10.

South got out with a low heart, and Breed played dummy's king. North won the ace and continued with a heart, ruffed by Breed. She cashed the ♠K, pitching a club, and ruffed a spade. She conceded two more diamond tricks for down one and almost all the matchpoints.

Section top awards

Section top awards may be picked up between noon and 1 p.m. at the awards desks at the Phoenix Civic Plaza and the Hyatt Regency. Both locations are near the registration desks.

District 17 regionals

Those of us who live in District 17 appreciate your attendance at this NABC, and we invite you to attend any of our annual Regionals. We're sure you'll enjoy them. Denver and Tucson are experimenting with a new afternoon starting time. Here is our 2003 slate:

Albuquerque Roadrunner Regional

The Albuquerque Regional will be held January 21-27 at the Crowne Plaza Pyramid, a beautiful hotel in North Albuquerque. The address is 5151 San Francisco Rd. NE (505)821-3333. If you reserve early, there is an $89 bridge rate. Game times for all except Senior events are 9:00 a.m., 1:00 pm and 7:30 p.m. Senior events are at 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

Mesa Senior Regional

The Mesa Senior Regional will be held April 2-6 at the Mesa Community Center, 201 N. Center St.. This popular Senior Regional has been among the best attended anywhere in ACBL-land. Senior events are at 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. There is a concurrent Sectional for players of all ages - check their game program for details.

Denver Rocky Mountain Regional

The Denver Rocky Mountain Regional is sanctioned for May 20-26, and will again be held at the Renaissance Hotel in Denver, 3801 Ouebec St. (303)399-7500 or (800)Hotels1. This hotel is close to the old Stapleton Airport. Game times are 9:00 a.m, 1:30 and 7:30 p.m. There are no Senior events at this Regional, but the tournament will try a Daylight Open Pairs at 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

Las Vegas Regional

The Las Vegas Regional will be held June 23-29 at the Riviera Hotel, 2901 Las Vegas Blvd. (800)634-

6253 or (702)734-5110. Except for Gatlinburg TN, this is the biggest Regional held anywhere in ACBLland. Game times for all except Senior events are 9:00 am, 1:30 and 7:30 p.m. Senior events are at 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

Phoenix Desert Empire Regional

The Phoenix Desert Empire Regional, after taking a year off for the fall 2002 NABC, will again be held in its familiar time slot – August 11-17, and will again take place at the popular Sheraton Crescent Hotel, 2620 W. Dunlap (800)423-4126 or (602)943-8200. Forget it's 110 outside, as you'll be playing in air conditioned comfort! Game times for all except Senior events are 9:00 a.m., 1:30 and 7:30 p.m. Senior events are at 10:00 am and 3:00 pm.

Tucson Great Chiefs Regional

This is our rotating tournament. In 2003, it will be held October 6-12 at the Rodeway Inn in Tucson, 1365 W. Grant (520)622-7791. If you haven't tried the climate of Tucson in October, you're in for a real treat! Game times for all except Senior events are 9:00 a.m., 1:30 and 7:30 p.m. Senior events are at 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

Exercise unlimited

G.C.H. Fox, one of England's greatest bridge writers, moved to the south of England and went to a new doctor for a physical. In the course of the exam, the doctor asked, "Do you exercise?" "Oh yes." "What do you do - go biking? "No." "Tennis or golf" "No." "Jogging?" "No." "Walking maybe?" No."

"Well, how do you get your exercise?"

"Sometimes I sit east-west."

Squeezing and counting

Dennis Sorensen and George Pisk had fun with these two hands from the North American Senior Knockout Teams.

West led the ♠A and switched to a club. East was allowed to hold the trick with the 9, and he led a second club to Sorensen's ace. Sooner or later Sorensen had to set up a spade trick, so he led a spade and West hopped with the king to lead a third club. Sorensen won and took the heart finesse losing to the king. East got out with a heart, and Sorensen stopped to count.

East had shown out on the second spade, so West had six spades. East didn't cash the club thirteener, so West had four clubs. He had followed to two hearts, so he had a singleton diamond. Sorensen cashed the ♦K and led the ♦7, passing it successfully when East played low. It would have done East no good whatsoever to cover - Sorensen would win, cross to dummy with the good spade and take the proven diamond finesse.

Sorensen was the declarer on the next hand as well.

South cashed the ♣A and continued with a club to the king, killing all chances for a heart ruff or two. So Sorensen had to fall back on a different plan. He drew the last trump, finessed the ΦQ and cashed the ΦA . After ruffing a spade, he proceeded to run the rest of his trumps. This was the position as he led his last trump:

When Sorensen led the last trump, South had to hold his diamonds so he sluffed a heart as North discarded a diamond. Next Sorensen took a finesse to the ♦Q and cashed the ♦A. North was in an impossible position – he had to hold his spade so he discarded a heart. So Sorensen was able to take the last three tricks with hearts.

(1) Admitted break in tempo (about 15 seconds).

The Facts: 5♥ went down two, +100 for N/S. The opening lead was the \(A. \) The Director was called after the 5♥ bid, N/S claiming that West broke tempo before doubling 4♠ (West admitted he took about 15 seconds before doubling). The Director ruled that the hesitation had demonstrably suggested removing the double and that passing 44 doubled was a logical alternative for East. The contract was changed to 4♠ doubled made four, +590 for N/S.

The Appeal: E/W appealed the Director's ruling. South did not attend the hearing. East said that West took a longer time to bid 3♣ (approximately 20-25 seconds) than he did to double 4♠, and that players should be afforded additional time to consider their actions in highly competitive auctions, as here. He said he really hadn't noticed any break in temp before the double of 4♠. He believed West had taken about 4-8 seconds.

Additionally, East thought that his own 5♥ bid was clear-cut holding a hand with negative defense and with the potential that 5♥ might make. North said he believed it took West approximately 17 seconds to double 4♠ because he started counting it down after West did not bid in tempo. West, when asked, said he believed he took somewhere around 10-15 seconds before doubling. North additionally said that after the hand was over E/W started discussing the fact that there are lots of hands where 4♠ would go down given that it seemed fairly clear that they possessed a 3-3 spade fit on the auction. E/W did not contradict North on this.

The Committee determined that E/W were playing a fairly standard 2/1 game forcing structure with five-card majors, splinters, and fit-showing jumps in competition, that a 3♥ bid by East over 1♠ would have been a mixed raise with four trumps, and that East's actual 2♥ bid was fairly wide-ranging. None of the players remembered whether East had used the Stop Card for his jump to 4Ψ , but everyone agreed that South took about 10-15 seconds before bidding 4♠.

The Committee Decision: The Committee determined that there had been a break in tempo before the double of 4♠ which made unauthorized information available to East. Although the Committee sympathized with West, they deemed that pass was a logical alternative for East and that the unauthorized information clearly suggested removing the double. Further, the time it had taken West to bid 34 was deemed irrelevant to the issue at hand. The contract was therefore changed to 4♠ doubled made four, +590 for N/S. Finally, the Committee noted that players with an excellent knowledge of the laws are held to a higher standard when a potential unauthorized information situation presents itself, as it had here, and they were surprised that E/W chose to appeal this ruling. Consequently, E/W were each assigned an appeal without merit warning.

All Pass

The Facts: $4 \triangleq$ made five, +650 for N/S. The opening lead was the 49. East called the Director as soon as dummy came down, saying he did not believe South's hand justified a jump to 3♠ (in light of the non-Alert of 2♣). South had informed E/W of the failure to Alert before the opening lead. After the play ended E/W petitioned the Director for redress saying they did not believe N/S would have reached game without South's jump to 3♠. The Director ruled that South had unauthorized information from his partner's failure to Alert $2\clubsuit$, that $2\spadesuit$ was a logical alternative to 3♠ at South's third turn, that the failure to Alert demonstrably suggested the 3♠ bid, and that if South had bid only 2♠ North did not have another bid. Therefore, the contract was changed to $2 \spadesuit$ made five, +200 for N/S.

The Appeal: N/S appealed the Director's ruling and were the only players at the hearing. N/S said they had played together for 10-15 years, then took a break, and had recently resumed playing together (for the last two years). They play five-card majors in third and fourth seats and reverse Drury. North's 2♥ bid was natural in their system and forcing for one round, promising a full opening bid. When asked, South said that North frequently forgot to Alert some bids even though he was good at remembering their system.

The Committee Decision: The Committee discussed the correct bridge auction (behind screens) after the 2♥ bid. Some favored rebidding 2♠ (as South) while others favored rebidding 3♠ -- which clearly made 2♠ a logical alternative. They agreed that if unauthorized information had been passed a score adjustment to 2♠ was appropriate.

The Committee members agreed that the failure to Alert conveyed unauthorized information (that North may have forgotten Drury), 2♠ was a logical alternative to 34, and the unauthorized information suggested bidding 3♠. However, N/S's statements had been remarkably convincing that North was aware of their system but prone to forgetting to Alert. The Committee decided that in this particular case South had not acted upon unauthorized information and made what he deemed to be the right bridge bid which, in the absence of unauthorized information, he was free to do so.

The Committee appreciated that it would be normal to impute unauthorized information, since South's statement (that North is prone to forget to Alert even though he remembers his system) is clearly self-serving, but in this case South's reluctance to admit North's failing convinced most of the Committee members of its truth. The Committee restored the table result of 4♠ made five, +650 for N/S, and warned N/S about the problems inherent in forgetting to Alert. In addition, they determined that this was an appropriate issue to bring to the attention of the recorder in N/S's home District.

Dissenting Opinion (Jeff Goldsmith): While it is certainly legal for the Committee to decide as it did, I feel that there is not even close to enough evidence to do so. I do not buy the non-unauthorized information argument at all. Given unauthorized information, South's logical alternatives seem to include $2\spadesuit$, 2NT, $3\spadesuit$, $3\spadesuit$ and $4\spadesuit$. The two of these not suggested over the others by the unauthorized information are $2 \spadesuit$ and $3 \clubsuit$.

Apparently South never thought about bidding 3♣ (as an aside, if South's assertion that North never forgot their system but often forgot to Alert were true, then 3 would be a clear choice: it's not suggested by the unauthorized information and if North did forget Drury they would end up in a silly spot while if he did not forget they would reach game and be able to keep their result). Thus 2♠ should be the action imposed on him. In a poll taken after the hearing I found several good players who would (and some who did) pass 2♠ with the North hand; so the Directors got this one right. Question: Is a warning or a procedural penalty appropriate for South? I would warn him, firmly making him aware of his responsibilities when playing with someone who often fails to Alert. I'd also award an Appeal Without Merit Warning, although since the Committee decided in N/S's favor perhaps that is too harsh.

An I/N opportunity

Intermediate-Newcomer players have the opportunity to win a complete bridge library – and the more times they play here at the Phoenix NABC, the more chances they'll have to win.

The drawings are open only to ACBL members. Each time a member plays in an I/N event, he receives another chance to win the bridge library. Non-members may join at any time during the tournament and will be eligible to participate immediately.

The drawing will be held after the first session begins on the final day of the tournament. The winner does not need to be present to win.

Sponsors of the program are: ACBL, Baron Barclay Bridge Supplies, Jim Becker, Marty Bergen, Rick Brown, Larry Cohen, Audrey Grant, Great Game Products Inc., Max Hardy, Chris Hasney, Harry Lampert, Mike Lawrence, Master Point Press, Liberty Z. Pyros, Ann Reese, Barbara Seagram, Frank Stewart and Bobby Wolff.

All books and video program are available for purchase, some directly from the author. For specific purchase information, please contact: Betty.Starzec@acbl.org

The ACBL recognizes each of these contributors as a supporter of the ACBL I/N program. We hope that I/N players will support the authors and organizations that contributed to this program. Don't forget that reading is a key to your bridge development.

Caddy Dewy Cundiff hands a sign-up slip for the I/N Bridge Library to Gloria Pollard.

Calling all caddies

Caddymaster Jackie Matthews sent out an allpoints bulletin for caddy help on Tuesday and the response was overwhelming.

Bob "Woody" Woodward and his wife, Vianne, were on vacation in Las Vegas when Matthews called. "It was cheaper to come to Phoenix than to stay in Vegas," said Woodward, who was filling in for another director.

Vianne was caddying in the Blue Ribbon Pairs – and taking a moment to visit with old friends.

Peg and Dewy Cundiff had planned to play yesterday but they decided to help Matthews out and caddy. Peg was working in the Intermediate-Newcomer game while Dewy was moving boards in the knockouts.

"I'm always impressed with the help we get when we need it," said Matthews. "We've had to ask for help at other tournaments and it's always the same story. They volunteer, they get the job done and – for the most part – it's a pleasant experience for everyone.

"Now if the players – and the former caddies – can just remember that every caddy's last name is 'Please', we'll be in really good shape."

New Life Masters

Ty Mowery of Fairbanks AK won the Flight X Swioss Teams. That was worth 11 golds and he only needed 10, so he is now a Life Master. His partner was Shain Oleson of Nome AK, and his teammates were Walt and Ruth Pease of Anchorage AK.

Renee Rogers of Palm Desert CA reached the semifinals of the Paul Cullen Memorial Knockout Teams, Bracket 7. That was enough to make her a Life Master.

Clark Ransom made Bronze Life Master in the Paul Cullen Memorial Knockout Teams.

Linnea Tow and Shirley Krapek became Live Masters in one of the knockout team events.

George Mraz of Glendale AZ earned his gold card in the Paul Cullen Memorial Knockout Teams.

Fay Kallina of Tucson AZ made the grade also in the Paul Cullen Memorial Knockout Teams.

into writing and acting," Said recalled, "but something happened."

That something was bridge.

It's a common story among the top players --- attending college with good intentions, then bridge is discovered, college goes down the drain but a successful alternative career is achieved.

Said finished school --- his final exam in one class was an 80-page semi-autobiographical novella --- but by the Seventies he was playing bridge professionally. He had originally planned to return to Iraq after completing his studies, but there were always problems. Said tries to steer clear of political discussions of Iraq, but he does say his entire family now lives outside their native land.

Said became a U.S. citizen in 1986, four years after he and his wife, Elaine, were married. She is also a successful tournament player.

Although close to the age that most people choose for retirement, Said is not contemplating the rocking chair at home. He's still excited by bridge and the challenges he finds in the game.

"It's really fantastic," Said said, "and bridge is the only game in the world where you can pay an entry fee and play against Bill Gates."

Said is proud of his record as a bridge pro, particularly "my adaptability in playing with different people." Each of his North American titles --- the Silver Ribbon Pairs and the Senior Knockout Teams three times --- was achieved with a different partner.

"I once played with a man who didn't want to play anything but Stayman and Blackwood," Said recalled, "and we had a 70 percenter."

One of his regrets, Said said, is that he never developed a regular partnership.

When he is not playing bridge, Said enjoys movies --- he's an expert on vintage flicks --- and hopes one day to complete a novel about his life.

For now, however, he's focusing on his favorite card game. "I owe a lot to bridge."

Bid box Alerts

When using bid boxes, ACBL suggests that players tap the Alert strip and say AAlert@ at the same time. When making an announcement, use the announcement word -- such as Atransfer@ -- and tap the Alert strip at the same time. A player who Alerts or announces a bid should make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or announcement has been made.

"and we sort of read each other's minds – and expect these two (Marsh and Russell) to keep up."

So far these two are doing just fine.

"One of the nicest things about working with Jeff," said Marsh, "is he'll say we need to do thus-and-so by whatever time. He doesn't come back at 15 minutes before whatever time to check that it's done. He knows it will be."

Johnston, whose official title is NABC Operations Manager, said his work with the set-up crew at NABCs has spilled over into his personal life.

Johnston was working as part of the set-up crew at the Susan G. Koman Race for the Cure last month in Memphis when a message came over his radio: "Jeff, this is Kelley. Where's the check?"

Johnston immediately thought of the last NABC – and the one before that – when on opening night, the ACBL Charity Foundation presents a $5,000 check to a local charity. During the last-minute preparations, ACBL executive assistant Kelley McGuire inevitably gets on the radio: "Jeff, this is Kelley. Where's the check?"

Johnston explained, "As soon as we find the check while unloading the truck (of supplies from ACBL), we place it behind the stage where the presentation will be. The standard response is 'behind the stage'. The entire crew knows the correct response."

But this was Memphis, not an NABC. No matter, said Johnston. "Different event, different city, different Kelley, different radio, different check – same answer: 'behind the stage."

Here's another "same answer."

"No matter when we start loading the truck – Saturday afternoon, Sunday, Monday morning or even noon on Monday – we always close the door at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon after the tournament.

"It's not a matter of how hard or how long we work – it's always five o'clock. The NABC karma seems to be set at five o'clock, regardless."

Here's an instance of set-up crew karma. Johnston checked with his crew about equipment they would need. "I heard from Martin and Tom but nothing from Brian, so I went ahead and ordered.

"Brian called the next day and detailed what he wanted: red shirt, no pocket, short sleeves, 100% cotton, ACBL in block letters – precisely what I'd ordered the day before."

Goodwill message

Have you said "thank you" to a caddy during this NABC? The caddies pick up slips each round during pair games and move boards during team games – despite players' best efforts to hide the slips and the boards.

A word of thanks will brighten their day – and yours too.

Blue Ribbon Pairs: an international event

A pair from Turkey became the first players from their country to win a North American championship at last year's Fall NABC.

Salvador Assael and Nafiz Zorlu topped the field in the six-session Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs. The duo narrowly edged Steve Landen of Rochester Hills MN and Pratap Rajadhyaksha of Powell OH. Landen and Rajadhyaksha won Open Pairs II at the 2000 Spring NABC in Cincinnati.

Third was the father-son partnership of Ken and John Kranyak of Bay Village OH. John was a member of the 2001 World Junior Championship team.

In the following deal from the first final session, the winners socked it to an opponent who couldn't keep

(1) Takeout.

West pushed too hard in this competitive partscore battle. Despite a marginal opener, West continued to the three level, only to be greeted by Zorlu's double.

Assael, North, led the ♠A and accurately switched to the $\clubsuit Q$. Declarer won and a played a heart to the king, but Zorlu won his ace and played another trump.

Unable to ruff any heart losers in dummy, declarer lost two hearts, two diamonds, a club and a spade. That was down two for 500, and Assael and Zorlu picked up 63.5 out of a possible 64 matchpoints.

The event

The Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs, sponsored by Cabot Cheese of Vermont, ranks with the Life Master Pairs as the most prestigious -- and toughest -- pair event on the ACBL calendar.

The Blue Ribbon was renamed the Edgar Kaplan Blue Ribbon Pairs in 1999 to honor one of bridge's all-time great players, writers, administrators and the authority on the laws of the game.

Kaplan (1925-1997) won his first North American championship in 1953 -- the Vanderbilt -- and his last in 1997 -- the Open Swiss Teams at the Spring NABC in Dallas.

Kaplan was recognized as the world's foremost authority on the laws of duplicate and rubber bridge. He became co-chairman of the ACBL Laws Commission in 1978 and was co-chairman of the WBF Laws Commission at the time of his

He was named ACBL Honorary Member in 1993. In 1995 he was inducted into the ACBL Bridge Hall of Fame and the WBF Hall of Fame.

The trophy

The event is contested for the Cavendish Trophy, awarded for the National Open Pair Championship and donated by the Cavendish Club of New York in 1928. Since 1963, the trophy has been awarded to winners of the Blue Ribbon Pairs.

Relax at Piano Bar in Hyatt Lounge

If you need a drink and are looking to relax with some soothing music after a grueling game, join pianist/singer Dick Haddy at the Hyatt lounge bar on Friday night at 11 p.m.

Haddy is well known in Phoenix as a popular entertainer at the Royal Palms resort. He used to delight fans at Harry's Bar in New York's Helmsley Palace where he performed for 12 years.

Haddy, former lead singer in a show group called "We Four" booked in Las Vegas and Beverly Hills, has worked closely over the years with Sarah Vaughn, Lionel Hampton, Steve Lawrence and Edie Gorme.

New Life Master alert

ACBL President George Retek and his wife Mari want to meet anyone who becomes a Life Master at this tournament. They invite all new Life Masters to visit them in Suite 747 at the Hyatt Regency.

BLUE RIBBON PAIRS FIRST SEMIFIN AL SESSION

First European Open Bridge Championships

The first annual European Open Bridge Championships will be held in Menton, France, June 14-18, 2003. This tournament is open to all players throughout the world. ACBL masterpoints will be awarded to North American players. European Bridge League and World Bridge Federation masterpoints also will be awarded.

Here is the tournament schedule:

June 14 – opening ceremony

June 15-18 – Mixed Teams.

June 17-19 – Mixed Pairs.

June 20-25 – Men's, Women's and Senior Teams.

June 24 -28 – Men's, Women's and Senior Pairs.

June 28 – Closing ceremony and prize-giving followed by victory banquet.

Registration must be made through your own federation (ACBL for North Americans) before April 30. Non-Europeans also may register on the Internet.

Parking news

Bridge players who want to play the midnight games can park at the Civic Plaza parking garage – located under the Plaza with the main entrance on Monroe Street – and exit at all hours.

The parking fee is paid upon entrance and exit is available by using an automatic gate.
