Marcia Katz always has a helping hand

"May I help you?" Marcia Katz probably says those words a thousand times a day — she's part of the excellent volunteer staff that works at the registration/information/prize desk here at the DC NABC. Even if you don't know her by name, however, she's easy to spot. With her flower-bedecked straw hat and her friendly, knowledgeable attitude, Katz handles all manner of player questions as if she's been doing this her whole life.

Marcia Katz, however, has a secret — this is her first NABC, and only her second major tournament to attend. The first, this year's record-breaking Gatlinburg regional, so impressed Katz that she decided to try the Summer NABC as well.

So in April of this year, Katz, of Knoxville TN, contacted the DC NABC tournament chairman, Margot Hennings, with an unusual request.

"I wrote Margot and asked if she wanted an amanuensis — a Greek term my mother loved to use, meaning 'a slave with clerical duties'. If Margot wanted me to work for a few weeks, I was happy to come to Washington and help out."

Hennings agreed, so Katz wrote a cousin in the DC area to ask if she could stay for the duration of the tournament. When her cousin said yes, Katz finalized her travel plans.

How is it that Katz knows so much about DC? Where restaurants are? How to find a certain street? What monuments are best to visit? What times they are open? The answer is that Katz used to live in DC, a credential that makes her a valuable part of the staff.

It may surprise some that despite Katz's chatty, personal style — she intersperses directions to sites around the city with DC-related trivia — she is a retired associate professor from the University of Tennessee in the Department of Nuclear and Radiological Engineering.

"Power plants," Katz says, with an almost dismissive shrug. "Bridge tournaments are much more

Two seeded teams lose Wagar matches

Eight teams advanced to today's action in the Wagar Women's Knockout.

There were two upsets in yesterday's action. The #6 seed of Joan Jackson, Petra Hamman, Robin Klar, Bernace DeYoung, Nell Cahn and Candace Fowler Griffey was defeated by the team of Judy Pede, Carreen Hinds, Cathy Strauch, Carol Pincus, Barbara Wallace and Jo Anne Casen 127–97.

The #7 seed Nancy Sachs, Linda Wolber, Diane Travis and Judy Cohn withdrew after three quarters, trailing 124-75 to the team of Beverly Rosenberg, Marcia Masterson, June Deutsch, Florence Rotman, Dorothy Truscott and Edith Freilich.

Coleman stunned in 2nd round Spingold action

Thirty-two squads have made it so far in the Spingold Knockouts, but yesterday's round saw some significant upsets. The #9 seed — the very tough international squad of Jack Coleman, Grant Baze, Adam Zmudzinski, Cezary Balicki, Andrew Gromov and Aleksander Petrunin — was shot down by the team of Robert and Cindy Bernstein, Sally Wheeler, Buddy Hanby, David Lindop and Richard Oshlag, 128–109.

Also, the #14 seed of Joan Stein, Eddie Wold, Marc Jacobus, Geoff Hampson and Eric Greco met an early exit when they were upset by the four-man team of Michael Shuster, Jeff Goldsmith, Varis Carey and Henry Bethe, 102-94.

Another strong international team — Billy Eisenberg, Richard Coren, Drew Casen, Lee Rautenberg, Dano DiFalco and Gabriella Oliveri was knocked off by John Lusky, Randy Pickett, Allen Kahn and David Rosenberg, 115–102.

Military Championship

Register now for the Military Championship Competition! Active duty and retired members of the Air Force, Army, Navy, Marines, Coast Guard and Reserve, DoD civilians and dependents may register at the Registration Desk (not the Prize Desk) for this special event within an event.

Also, Friday is Military Recognition Day. All registrants may pick up their name badge with service insignia to wear on Friday. The badge allows the wearer free entry to the special reception for military players between sessions in Room 9021.

Higher authority

A tournament director gave a ruling on an illegal communications situation, and one of the players strongly objected. "I'll need somebody a lot higher in authority than you to tell me something like that."

The director asked, "Would you accept the ruling if the head director of the Spring Nationals told you it was the right ruling?" "Yes." "Well, you've just been told." The director was Chris Patrias, head director at the Spring NABC.

Three men stand behind a desk as a horde of consider personalities when we make a match. Apbridge players crowds converge on them. "I need a parently we do a pretty good job – lots of players partner for the Swiss Teams." "Find me somebody good for the side game." "Have you got a goodlooking man for the Flight C Pairs?"

The Partnership Desk is no place to be when a batch of new events is getting away. Yesterday more than 150 hopefuls surrounded the desk, counting on the workers to find them just the right partner.

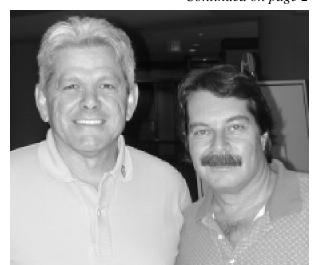

Andre L'Heureux, partnership chairman, loves the job. "I like people. I like to make them happy. You meet a great cross-section of bridge players at the partnership desk, and it doesn't take long to discover what interesting people they are."

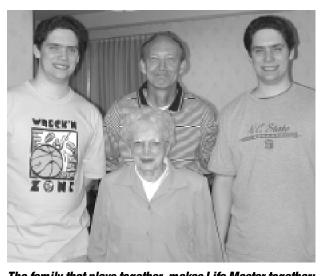

How do the partnership workers put partnerships together? Do they just ask you how many points you have and match you up with somebody that has approximately the same number?

'That's not the way I work," said L'Heureux, "I like to hear their stories, understand their feelings, get to know them. My fellow workers and I try to Partnership chair Andre L'Heureux and Steve Rothman.

The family that plays together, makes Life Master together: The Daily Bulletin staff doesn't normally run photos of new Life Masters, but we made an exception in this case. Three members of the Rice family (twin brothers Jon and Mike and their father Rich, all from Winston-Salem NC) earned their gold card playing in Bracketed KO IV (fifth bracket). The fourth member of the squad was Jon and Mike's grandmother, Eleanor Rice of Paso Robles CA. (Front) Eleanor; (back) Jon, Rich and Mike.

providing them with a good time and a fun partner. Of course we get feedback from a lot of the winners as well."

L'Heureux doesn't just work at the desk. He also wanders around the building, and when he sees somebody he partnered, he stops to ask how things are going.

He's been doing this work for a long time – he was partnership chairman at the 1993 Washington NABC, and he does the same kind of work at Mid-Atlantic regionals.

Working with him yesterday afternoon were Steve Rothman and Doug Douglas. Steve is a local who also worked at the 1993 NABC. Doug is a volunteer from Pennsylvania who came by to offer his services early in the tournament.

Steve is amazed at some of the questions he hears. Here are some examples:

"I have 57 points. How did I get them?"

"Have you seen my wife?" There's a follow-up on this one. The man mentioned that his wife had been on a train that arrived three hours late. One of the players waiting for a partner had been talking to a woman who told him her train had been very late. He told the man where this woman was, and, sure enough, it was his wife.

Other lines include, "I was told if I did something I could get something."

"Hi. I need a partner for life."

Do the partnership people get many complaints? "Of course we do," said L'Heureux. But I like what Doug says about this: 'Some people are going to complain even if you use new rope."

In addition to these three working yesterday afternoon's desk, the following also are in the matchmaking game: Fred Hahne, Steve Fox, Ken Rapley, Ben Laden, Sulaiman Ghaussey, Paul Hattis, Sue Torrey and Dayle Matsumura.

Contract: 6NT. Opening lead: ♦Q.

Kantar's answer: This one could get sticky if clubs break 4–1. True, you have 13 tricks if they break 3–2, but what if they don't?

If you play clubs at once, East wins and plays a heart and now you are in an untenable position if West has the ♥K. The same would be true if West had four clubs and returned a heart. If East had both the king and the jack, or if you misguessed, you would lose an ice-cold contract.

The solution is to duck a club at trick two. If East wins and returns a heart, win the ace, enter dummy with a spade, discard your heart on the ♦A and reenter your hand with a club, claiming the balance.

The idea is to keep an extra hand entry in case clubs are 4–1. (Those of you who crossed to the ΦQ , discarded a heart on the ♦A and then played clubs hoping that the player with four clubs did not have a third diamond, were at least thinking, albeit sideways.)

Montreal World Championship Quiz #6

Solution will appear in tomorrow's Daily Bulletin To heighten awareness of the Montreal World Championships that will take place in August, the organizers are offering a daily problem. There will be a daily drawing among those who turn in the correct answer to the Daily Bulletin office in the Taft Room of the Marriott Wardman Park.

Every day five prizes will be awarded as the result of the drawing. The winners will have their choice of a 1995 or 1996 World Championship book or a 2002 World Championship hat.

Sure there's a squeeze, but which opponent?

Mike Becker, East, noticed early in the play that his chances were good for 12 tricks. The problem was which opponent should he attempt to squeeze. The hand was played in the Life Master Pairs final.

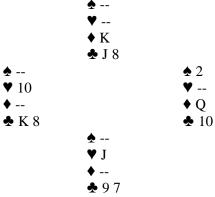

Becker's 2NT response to the Drury 2 was unusual, but he knew the doubleton queens would be helpful if partner had a little something in each suit. With two aces and a king in the other suits, his partner had no trouble raising to 3NT, a contract missed by the vast majority of the field.

Becker let the opening heart lead ride to his queen and then cashed one spade to make sure the suit would run. Next came the $\clubsuit Q$, taken by South's ace. South reverted to hearts and Becker won the ace.

Now he had lost a trick and could take all the rest of the tricks but one – the right setup for a squeeze. He saw that he could squeeze South if he had the $\blacklozenge K$ – he also would have to protect his $\blacktriangledown J$. Becker would cross to the $\clubsuit K$ and run spades, coming to a two-card position. On the next-to-last trick South would have to make a losing discard from $\blacktriangledown J$ and $\blacklozenge K$ -x.

If North had the ♦K, Becker could get his 12th trick via a Vienna Coup.

Which to try? Becker decided to see if he could get some help from his opponents. He led a second spade and sure enough, North played an encouraging diamond. So it was the Vienna Coup. He crossed to the •A and ran the spades. This was the position as he led his last spade:

South had to keep the VJ so was forced to discard a club. Becker pitched the heart, and now North had no discard available. No matter what he did, Becker had the last two tricks for plus 490. That was worth 64.5 matchpoints out of a possible 65.

Roger Bates and Chris Willenken crossed swords here – and Bates came off the better. After a simple auction of 1NT-3NT, Bates (South) received the ♥J lead and immediately passed the ◆8. Willenken (East) ducked it, thereby doing his best to get his name in the papers. Now if declarer repeats the diamond finesse, he goes down.

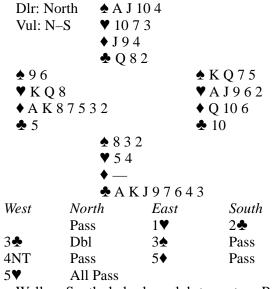

But Bates knew his defenders were capable of the ducking play from any holding that included the jack. The opening lead made it relatively unlikely that West had four diamonds to the jack, plus who would want to fall victim to such a play? You'd never hear the end of it!

So Bates rejected the second finesse, playing diamonds from the top and emerging with 10 tricks.

Nicely defended – but it was Bates who got to have his name in the "highly commended" column.

Underleaders Anonymous

Some people just can't resist underleading their aces to get a ruff. On the following deal from Saturday's Bracketed Knockouts, defender Joe Wallen of Fredericksburg VA took it to the extreme:

Wallen, South, led a low club to partner Randy Beckham's queen. Beckham returned the ◆J (suit preference) and Wallen ruffed. A spade to the ace allowed Wallen to score another diamond ruff. Down two, plus 100 for North–South.

This was an 11-IMP gain for Wallen's team since their teammates bid and made 5♦ at the other table.

False economy

Playing 2 you get a club lead and continuation as East echoes. You ruff the second club, play a diamond to the king and pass a diamond to East's ace. Back comes a heart – you win with the queen as West encourages. Now a third diamond to West's queen as East pitches a club, and a heart back to East's ace lets you win the third heart in hand as West follows with the jack. This is the ending:

When you lead the ♣J, West covers and you ruff as East follows. You can now safely assume that East has the ♠K— otherwise West probably would have doubled 1NT. Furthermore East probably has precisely a 3-4-2-4 shape and is down to three trumps and a heart. So the key is to lead dummy's diamond and ruff it as East discards his heart. Then you can lead your fourth club. West will follow and East will be endplayed when he overruffs dummy. If you pitch your club on the ♠J, you will have to guess whether to lead a spade to the 7 or to the 10 in the three-card ending.

Jacobs, Nickell, Meltzer -- who is your Spingold pick?

The defending champions captained by George Jacobs, the Meltzer squad that won the 2000 Spingold and the 2001 Bermuda Bowl, the perennial powerhouse Nickell team -- who will win the 2002 Spingold Knockout Teams?

Jacobs (Ralph Katz, Giorgio Duboin-Norberto Bocchi, Lorenzo Lauria-Alfredo Versace) knocked out Nickell (Richard Freeman, Bob Hamman-Paul Soloway, Jeff Meckstroth-Eric Rodwell) on their way to victory last year while Meltzer (Kyle Larsen, Peter Weichsel-Alan Sontag, Chip Martel-Lew Stansby) made an early exit.

This was a key deal in Jacobs' win last year over a four-man squad captained by Mike Moss (Fred Chang, Kerry Smith, Jeff Schuett).

Bocchi's offshape 1NT opener did not deter Chang and Moss, who bid briskly to the spade game. Bocchi cashed two high diamonds but that was it for the defense and a mundane plus 450 was recorded.

It was anything but dull at the other table.

Versace	Schuett	Lauria	Smith

Pass	1.♦	Pass	3♦
4♦	5♣	5♠	6♣
Pass	6♦	6♠	Dbl

The opening lead was obviously critical. Smith apparently interpreted Schuett's 5♣ bid as a lead-director, so Smith started off with the ♣K. Lauria ruffed and claimed when the ♠K popped up from the North hand at trick two.

That was plus 1310 for Jacobs. Instead of gaining 11 IMPs for plus 100, Moss lost 13.

Spingold trivia

- Louis H. Watson (Watson's Play of the Hand at Contract Bridge) was a member of the winning Spingold teams in 1932 and 1935.
- B. Jay Becker and son Michael are the only father-son combination to win the Spingold. Their victory came in 1972.
- Edith Freilich and Billy Seamon are the only sister and brother to win the Spingold. Their 1963 team included Russ Arnold, Harold Harkavy, Al Roth and Cliff Russell.
- Bob Hamman is the all-time leader with 12 wins in the Spingold. Bobby Wolff and Howard Schenken have won the Spingold 10 times.
- Oswald Jacoby also won the Spingold 10 times: in 1932, 1933 and 1937 for the Asbury Park Trophy; in 1934 and 1936 for the Masters Teams-of-Four and in 1938, 1939, 1945, 1950 and 1959 for the Spingold.
- Helen Sobel won the Spingold five times, the first time in 1944 and the last time in 1960.
- The last woman in a Spingold final was Luella Slaner in 1983.

Attention new LMs

Mari Retek, wife of ACBL President George Retek, invites all players who become Life Masters at this tournament to be her guest some evening in the President's Suite, Room 7340. The invitation includes all those who already have been recognized in the Daily Bulletin as well as those who become Life Masters later in the tournament.

Ring around the collar – or The Grand Bagel.

By Barry Rigal

When the best players in the world go 0 for 4, you might assume the problem to be a tough one . It comes from the Grand National Teams.

The ♠K holds the first trick. Partner's spade carries no special message (maybe it should have, but it doesn't). What next?

Three out of the four defenders had this problem, and they all got it wrong. At the fourth table, East overtook with the $\triangle A$ and led a club.

The three plays found were a trump, a second spade and the ∇Q . Here is the full deal.

As you can see, only a low heart sets the contract by force. At the table where East overtook, West got caught in a major-suit squeeze.

Aggressive bidding requires good play

Richard Freeman made an aggressive invitation to game on this deal from the Life Master Pairs, and Nick Nickell made an equally aggressive move by bidding game. Now it was up to Freeman to find 10 tricks.

Freeman won the open club lead with the king and cashed the ♠K. Next came a club ruff, and he led a heart toward the king. West took his ace and returned the ♠J, not the best choice. Freeman ruffed this in dummy and cashed the trump king, dropping the queen from West. He cashed the ♣A and ruffed a club. He played the ♠A-Q and East had to follow. At this point he put East in with the last trump, and East had to give Freeman his 10th trick with the ♠K. That was worth all 51 matchpoints.

That first board can be crucial

By Barry Rigal

The very first board out of the box often swings a lot of IMPs. See if you can finish on the right side of the swing here.

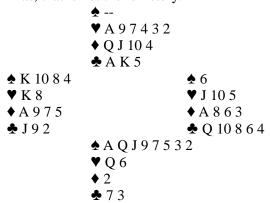

▼A97432 ◆QJ104 ♣AK5 ♣6 ▼J105 ◆A863

♣ Q 10 8 6 4

South opens 4♠ and everybody passes. Partner leads the ♦5 (fourth highest) to dummy's 10 and your ace as declarer produces the deuce. Over to you.

Well, playing back a diamond would be right if partner has a singleton or if he has led from K-x-x – and besides what harm could come to you?

Alas, that is not the full story.

When you return a diamond, declarer ruffs and leads the ♠A followed by the ♠J. Whether partner wins or ducks, declarer strips the clubs and exits in trump to your partner. That forces a red-suit play that gives South his 10th trick.

P.S. – If you played back a diamond, you at least avoided a swing – it was a flat board at 420 in our match.

Modern preempts

By Barry Rigal

Mel Colchamiro showed me a couple of hands from the Swiss Teams event a couple of days ago to demonstrate how preempts have suffered from inflation – just like everything else in life.

Colchamiro opened $3 \heartsuit$ at favorable vulnerability in his first example – and his LHO had a strong balanced hand including \heartsuit A-K-Q-J-8! Colchamiro wound up defending $6 \diamondsuit$, down one on the heart ruff holding \clubsuit K x \heartsuit 10 9 x x x x x \diamondsuit x \clubsuit x x x x.

In the next match Colchamiro opened $2 \spadesuit$. This time his LHO held \spadesuit A Q J 9 x x \heartsuit A K x \spadesuit Q \clubsuit A x x. He sat for $2 \spadesuit$, down three – plus 150 for a flat board. Mel's teammates collected 140 in $3 \spadesuit$.

Additional Hall of Fame quotes

Hugh Ross: "Bridge use to be an obsession. I looked forward to the day I could retire and play more bridge. But now that I've retired, I'm not so obsessed any more. I play less because there are so many other interesting things to do." Also "I called my sister in Toronto to tell her I was going into the Hall of Fame. Her reaction: 'What took you so long?'"

Paul Soloway: "My parents, who didn't play bridge, thought bridge would be good for me from a social point of view. Guess it became more than just social."

Bobby Wolff: "Did you know that Ira Corn was the man that brought bidding screens to America? Jimmy Patino did it in Europe, but Ira was the man in the U.S."

Too tough

The top seed in the Spingold Knockouts had a tough start on the first day of the contest—they had a bye!

George Jacobs, Ralph Katz, Alfredo Versace, Lorenzo Lauria, Norberto Bocchi and Giorgio Duboin received a bye in the first round of the event, so the team decided to practice by sparring against each other. The match, which they played in the ballroom with the other Spingold contestants, drew many spectators.

Ron Smith, of San Francisco, noticed the gathering and went to see what it was about. Upon seeing who was playing, Smith quipped to the players, "Boy, what a tough draw — you have to play yourselves!"

Junior Team Trials

The United States Junior Team Trials will take place here starting Saturday, July 27 and will continue through Sunday, July 28.

The two top finishers will represent the United States in the World Youth Team Championships next summer. The event probably will take place in Beijing, China, but final arrangements have not yet been made.

All teams must register with Charlotte Blaiss no later than Friday, July 26, at 8 p.m. Register in the Taft Room (the Press-Bulletin office on the mezzanine level.

Canada will conduct its own trials to determine its representative.

From bridge table to walk down aisle

Clifford and Nancy Louie, now of Herlong CA, lived 250 miles apart before they were married, but they still got together at the bridge table often enough to realize they were meant for each other. The bridge partnership became a marital partnership on June 28. Nancy was a June bride, but she and her husband saved their honeymoon for the Washington NABC here.

Notice to IMP Pairs contestants

Players in the upcoming NABC IMP Pairs contest will notice a change in the way their scores appear on the recap sheets compared to last year. Although the contest has not changed, players will see much lower numbers for the scores of each board and of session totals.

The reason: even though each score is still compared against every other score in the same direction, the IMP total will now be divided by the total number of comparisons. (The total score for each pair will be stored by the computer so that round-off errors do not occur in the session totals.)

Same event, smaller numbers.

Education Department book program update

The ACBL Education Department launched a book promotion at the 2002 Spring NABC . The goal of the program is to offer Intermediate/Newcomer (0–299) players the opportunity to win a complete bridge library. Many top bridge authors and bridge companies have contributed to the program.

Drawings for the prize will take place at each NABC in 2002, 2003 and 2004. The value of the library for the Washington DC drawing is more than $300.

The drawings are open only to ACBL members. Each time a member plays in an I/N event, the person is entered in the drawing to win a bridge library. Non-members may join at any time during the tournament and will be eligible to participate immediately.

The NABC drawing will be held after the first session begins on the final day of the tournament. It is not necessary to be present to win.

The sponsors are ACBL and the following: Baron Barclay Bridge Supplies Jim Becker Marty Bergen Larry Cohen Nancy Deweese Audrey Grant

Great Game Products, Inc.

Max Hardy

Chris Hansey Harry Lampert

Mike Lawrence

Master Point Press

Liberty Pyros

Ann Reese

Barbara Seagram

Bobby Wolff

The ACBL recognizes each of the contributors as a supporter of the ACBL I/N Program. Players are urged to support the authors and organizations that have contributed to the program.

Goodwill message

Goodwill is contagious. As each of us promotes the game we love, let's also promote the friendship and goodwill that go hand in hand.

Aileen Osofsky, Chairman National Goodwill Committee

Spingold history

The Spingold Master Knockout Teams, first known as the Challenge Knockout Teams, was contested for the Asbury Park Trophy in the early days.

The runner-up team in the regularly-scheduled portion of the event had the right to challenge the winners to a playoff. This right was never utilized.

In 1934, 1936 and 1937, the Masters Teams-of-Four and the Asbury Park Trophy were separate events, providing two sets of winners.

In 1938 the event became the Spingold Master Knockout Teams and a part of the Summer NABC.

At one time, the Spingold was a double elimination event usually lasting nine or 10 sessions. It was scored by International Match Points and was restricted to players with 100 or more masterpoints.

In 1965, the double elimination method was replaced by three qualifying sessions (subsequently reduced to two), followed by single elimination knockout matches. The preliminary qualifying sessions were dropped in 1970.

The Spingold Trophy, donated by Nathan B. Spingold in 1934, and the Vanderbilt Trophy, awarded to the winners of the Vanderbilt Knockout Teams at the Spring NABC, are ACBL's most highly prized trophies.

Spingold (1886-1958), a New York publicist, motion picture executive and patron of the arts, was one of the most influential men in bridge administration from 1937 to 1943.

Born in Chicago, he became a reporter on The Chicago Examiner, The Chicago Record Herald and The Chicago Tribune. Spingold's interest in show business brought him to New York City in the Thirties.

In 1932 he joined Columbia Pictures in a public relations capacity. He was named to the board of directors in 1940 and three years later was appointed vice president in charge of advertising, publicity and development. He became a vice president of the company in 1954.

Active in bridge from its earliest days, Spingold was named ABL Honorary Member in 1936. He was instrumental in effecting a peaceful merger between the American Bridge League and the United States Bridge Association in 1937 and became president of the newly formed American Contract Bridge League the following year.

He served for many years on the League's Board of Governors and Board of Directors. Spingold was also president of the Cavendish Club in New York.

Notice to players

Each player must have an ACBL convention card filled out and on the table. Please note that other types of convention cards, such as the WBF convention card or homemade cards that do not sufficiently resemble the ACBL convention card, are not acceptable substitutes.

Cell phones: turn 'em off

Cell phones, audible pagers or any similar communication equipment may not be operated or operable in the playing area during a session play at NABCs except for health-related equipment or by permission of the director-in-cha of the tournament or the event.

The attitude of the user is important. immediate shut-off followed by an apole will usually earn only a warning. Howeve violation of the intent of the regulation (an swering) will usually result in a penalty.

When both sides play same contract

By Matt Granovetter

Here's a hand where not only did both sides play in the same trump suit — they both bid to the same level.

Miami Beach 1986 Rosenblum Cup Mini-Knockout Final Pakistan vs. Sweden

- (1) The 4-card major style
- (2) Standard raise, usually a safe call
- (3) A balancing takeout double

In the Closed Room, the Swedes, North-South, bid to 2♥ doubled and were very unlucky to run into a 6-0 split. West led three rounds of spades, allowing partner to throw away his three clubs. Then West gave partner a club ruff. East still had the ♠A and two trump tricks (a trump honor and a fifth trump), for down two, 300 points to East-West.

Open Room West North East South 1NT (1) Pass Pass 2♦ (2) Pass (1) 12-14 (2) Multi - a weak overcall in either major (3) A disciplined bid

In the Open Room, South started with a weak notrump and East balanced with a Multi 2♦ bid, showing hearts or spades. West suspected it was hearts.

North led a spade against 2♥. Once again all three clubs went away, this time from dummy! Again a club was led, ruffed in the East hand, and declarer cashed the ♠A. So declarer managed to take the first five tricks. Another diamond lead went to South's king. South cashed the ♠J as partner threw a club, and then led a club, ruffed in dummy (East). That was book (six tricks). At this point, declarer led a fourth diamond, and this ensured he would score a trump trick, for one down. That was 100 points to North-South, a swing of 9 IMPs to Pakistan.

Zero Tolerance update

The Zero Tolerance program, started in Ontario clubs more than four years ago, is going strong and receiving credit for an exodus of players from intermediate games into open games.

Barbara Seagram, owner/manager of Kate Buckman's Bridge Studio in Toronto, says ZT "has made such a huge difference. We have always provided our less-experienced players with a separate room in which to play, along with their own director. This has made for an expensive but flourishing newcomer/intermediate program. The downside was that the players got so comfortable there that they were petrified of moving into the open game in the big ZT has changed that, according to Seagram. "Over the past two years, the atmosphere has improved so dramatically among the open players that there has been a huge exodus from the intermediate games into the open games. We have had to hand out very few scoring penalties for Zero Tolerance but the fact that the policy is in place seems to keep the players in line and the perception that we are monitoring behavior at all times makes everyone happier.

"The players now never hesitate to report unpleasantness whereas before they considered it part of the game that they had to tolerate."

Seagram added, "We have had to ask several players to take a vacation from our club. They must be subjected to an interview with us before they are permitted to return. The bad ones don't."

It takes two

Each player is required to have a convention card filled out legibly and on the table throughout a session. Both cards of a partnership must be identical and include the first and last names of each member of the partnership.

If a director determines that neither player has a substantially completed card, the partnership may play only Class A conventions and may use only standard carding. This restriction may be lifted only at the beginning of a subsequent round after convention cards have been properly prepared and approved by the director. Further, the partnership will receive a 1/6 board matchpoint penalty for each board played, commencing with the next round and continuing until the restriction is lifted.

In IMP team games, penalties shall be at the discretion of the director.

If the director determines the partnership has at least one substantially completed convention card but has not fully complied with ACBL regulations, the director may give warnings or assign such penalties as he deems to be appropriate under the circumstances.

The objective of these warnings and penalties is the encouragement of full compliance with ACBL regulations. Page 8

Trump stack gets stuck

Here's a hand that was well played by Cameron Doner in an OKbridge match.

Dlr: South ♠ A 4 2 Vul: None ♥ A 7 3 ♦ A J 9 ♣ A K J 4 ★83 ★ K Q J 10 9 7 6 ♥ Q 10 8 6 4 ♦ Q 10 4 2 ♦873 ♣ 3 2 ♣ Q 7 6 ♦ 5 ♥ KJ952 ♦ K 6 5 ♣ 10 9 8 5 West North East South Pass 2NT 3♠ 4♥ Pass All Pass

Opening Lead: ♠8

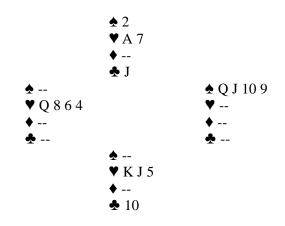

Over North's normal opening 2NT bid, East bid 3♠. This gave Cameron Doner a problem. Double would have produced an easy 500, but the choice of 4♥ certainly was reasonable.

Doner won with the ♠A, cashed the ♣A (West followed with the 3), and played a small heart. When

Appeals disclaimer

In order to keep the bridge public informed of appeals results in a timely fashion the NABC Daily Bulletin staff publishes write-ups. Every effort is made to ensure that these reports are accurate and complete. However, before they are published in the NABC Appeals Casebook revisions may be made."

East failed to follow, Doner played the 9. When West won the 10, he played a second spade, ruffed by declarer. When he played a second club, West followed with the 2. Doner believed him and rose with the king. Next he played a diamond to the king, a diamond to the jack, and the ♦A. He exited with a club to East's queen. On East's forced spade return, Doner was in control in this ending:

Donor ruffed with the king and poor West had to underruff. Then West had to ruff the next club and lead away from his trump queen.

Smoking restrictions

Players are advised that smoking is prohibited everywhere inside the Marriott Wardman Park except for the lobby level bar area. Players wishing to smoke must do so outside.

In the exhibition halls (downstairs), players may use the doors to the loading dock at the end of Exhibition Hall C. In the ballroom area (lobby level), players may use the doors to the parking area across from the tournament registration desk. (Smoking in the foyer beyond these doors is also prohibited.)

Penalties will be assessed for players smoking

Daily Bulletin

Everyday resolutions

Note: This list of 10 resolutions appeared in the Daily Bulletin at the 1992 Fall NABC in Orlando.

- 1. I will not criticize or express disapproval of an opponent's play or bid.
- 2. I will politely call "Director, please" whenever there is an irregularity.
- 3. I will not comment that an opponent's error was anticipated or needed for my action to succeed.
 - 4. I will refrain from offering unsolicited advice.
- 5. I will not discuss previously played boards with my partner in the presence of new opponents.
- 6. I will stop all cross table conversation as soon as one hand is removed from the next board.
- 7. I will not engage in lengthy postmortems between hands and between rounds.
- 8. I will keep cards in my hand until it is my turn to play.
- 9. I will not take the cards of other players from the board after play.
- 10. I will remain at the table until the next round is called and will pass the boards immediately.

Mr. Bridge Pro

Here are some verses from a ditty that was composed by local bridge players "with gentle suggestions" from Elaina Newport of The Capitol Steps. It was designed to be sung to the tune of "Mr. Sandman."

Mr. Bridge Pro, bring me a team So full of experts, a team that's a dream. I'll show at Spingold that I'm no beginner. If I follow suit, I'm sure to be a winner.

On my dream team, a gal or two – Jill, Rita, Beth and also Mildred will do. And throw in Shawnto keep us on our toes. And don't forget to ask for Bloomin' Rose.

While you're at it, let's add some style – A joke by Treadwell, delivered with guile. Larry, Peter, Bobby and Steve Will make rivals beg for reprieve.

Snack Bar hours

Due to lowered volume at the snack bars, the hours of service have been reduced. Here's the schedule for today.

Lobby level near tournament registration desk: 9:30 a.m. until 9 p.m.

Atrium level outside Hall C: 11:30 a.m. until 9 p.m. Hours will be further reduced on Thursday, Friday and Saturday as follows:

Lobby level near tournament registration desk: 9:30 a.m. until 9 p.m.

Atrium level outside Hall C: 11:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m.

Remember that the Woodley Market and Starbucks will both be open until 8 p.m. or later.

Quiz 5 winners

The five winning entries to Quiz 5 were turned in by John Paul McNamee, John McDaniel, Ruth Howard, Ann Hedden and Nancy Pickering. Come by the Press Bulletin Office to pick up your prize.
