They won the Senior Swiss Teams: Roger Clough, Nels Erickson, Rebecca Clough, Derrell Childs, and Louise and Gene Freed.

Clough tough in Senior Swiss final

The team captained by Roger Clough (pronounced kluff) topped the 32-squad field in the final of the Senior Swiss Teams. Clough — Roger and Rebecca Clough of Culver City CA, Gene and Louise Freed of Los Angeles, Nels Erickson of Las Vegas and Derrell Childs of Garland TX — finished with 118.17 Victory Points to squeeze by the defending champions captained by Mike Levine who posted a final tally of 116.17 VPs.

This is the first NABC victory for the members of the Clough team, with the exception of Gene Freed Continued on page 6

Top seeds dominate Wagar Round of 8

The top four seeds in the Wagar Women's Knockout routed their respective opponents in yesterday's quarterfinal round. The top seeded team of Kathie Wei-Sender, Betty Ann Kennedy, Jill Levin, Sue Picus, Janice Seamon-Molson and Tobi Sokolow defeated the squad of Jane Segal, Judy Kay, Gloria Rabinowitz and Donna Morgen, 178–97.

The #2 seed — Cheri Bjerkan, Stasha Cohen, Pam Wittes, Renee Mancuso, Beth Palmer and Lynn Deas — was leading the team of Beverly Rosenberg, Marcia Masterson, June Deutsch, Florence Rotman, Dorothy Truscott and Edith Freilich 96–22 at the half when the Rosenberg squad ran up the white flag.

Welland, Bramley sidelined in Spingold

In yesterday's Spingold round of 32, several top teams got the boot. The #12 seed (Roy Welland, Bjorn Fallenius, Brad Moss, Fred Gitelman, Steve Garner and Howard Weinstein) narrowly lost to the Scandinavian invasion: Claus Christiansen, Magnus Eriksson, Lars Munlsgaard and Ulf Nilsson, 112–110.

The #16 seed captained by Bart Bramley (Sidney Lazard, Ross Grabel, Jon Wittes, Russ Ekeblad and Robert Lipsitz) was completely shut down by Peggy Kaplan, Roger Lord, Hideki Takano and Tadashi Teramoto, 141–83.

The top seeds had no problems: #1 Jacobs crushed the team captained by Peter Schneider 172–38 in three quarters; #2 Nickell beat the team captained by Kumar Bhatia 165–84; and, #3 Robinson defeated Tom Carmichael's squad 142–68.

will present "Magic and the Mind" as the post-game entertainment tonight. The show will take place in the Cotillion Ballroom soon after the conclusion of play.

Alain's understanding of the human psyche combined with his own power to amaze creates a riveting performance of clairvoyance, psychokinetic movement and thought control. He makes no claim to actually read minds, but he consistently exhibits uncanny accuracy.

His presentations are highly interactive – all who participate become the stars of the show.

One special feature of his performance is that every mysterious effect can be customized to tie in with specific key words, product information and themes of the day.

The fairy godmother of this story is Sue Stokes, a player on ACBL Online from Dallas TX who befriended Igor Mandalinic a year ago, played bridge with him online, and shared a friendship across many miles. With a "gazillion" frequent flyer miles and a heart of gold, Stokes brought Mandalinic to the 74th Summer North American Bridge Championship all expenses paid. Stokes, or "suestokes" to the ACBL Online/e-bridge crowd, managed to get this young bridge player on his first airplane and his first visit to the United States. While Sue, and other ACBL Online members are making sure he has enough partners for any event he chooses to enter, Stokes is also making sure he has the most memorable bridge tournament of his life.

Opening lead:  $\bigstar K$ . West continues with the  $\bigstar A$ . (Trumps are 2–1.) Plan the play and be specific.

Kantar's answer: If you didn't ruff the second spade with a middle trump, forget the whole thing. You must plan on two trump entries to your hand to take two diamond finesses and the  $\clubsuit 6$  is a very valuable card.

After ruffing, play two top trumps and enter your hand with the  $\clubsuit$ 7 to lead a low diamond, not the 9, to dummy's 10. Assuming this loses and a heart comes back, re-enter your hand with the  $\clubsuit$ J and run the  $\blacklozenge$ 9. You have just protected against West holding four diamonds to one honor by your play in diamonds, and have lost nothing if West has both honors. If East has both diamond honors you can also forget about the whole thing, although you probably would have been doubled long ago.

In search of the elusive overtrick

Larry Cohen has a reputation as an excellent matchpoint player — and with good reason. See if you can do as well as he did as declarer on this deal from the final of the Life Master Pairs.

(Deal rotated.) Cohen, South, declared 4♥ on the lead of the  $\blacklozenge$ 7. He won the ace (inserting an intermediate diamond from dummy might be OK, too, but let's assume the play of the ace) and drew trumps, noting that West began with three, East one.

You have 10 sure tricks, but since this is matchpoints it would be nice if we could play the spade suit for just one loser to make an 11th trick.

To discover more about the defensive layout, Cohen played a diamond to the  $\blacklozenge$ 9 at trick four. East won the 10 and West completed an echo by playing the  $\blacklozenge$ 5. It appears that West began with a doubleton diamond and East with the K-Q-10-4.

The auction contains a clue for getting more information about the count. When asked about their methods, East-West stated that they open  $1 \blacklozenge$  when they're 4-4 in the minors, and would frequently open 1 even with four diamonds and five clubs to allow a 2♣ rebid.

Why is this important to declarer? Since East has four good diamonds (K–Q–10–4), yet opened 1♣, it suggests that East has much longer clubs than diamonds — not just 4–5 in the minors, but at least 4–6. Armed with that information, Cohen decided that East's pattern was 2–1–4–6.

After ruffing the return of the  $\clubsuit K$ , this was the position:

♠ Q 10 2

A

Is there any way — assuming that the inferential count we have on the deal is correct — to score three spade tricks? Yes — if East (who we believe has two spades) has the doubleton jack. No other holding will provide us with the extra trick. So Cohen played a low spade to the queen, which held, and a low spade from dummy as East produced the jack. The full layout:

Spingold emotions – despair and elation

When you're the underdog in a Spingold match, it's always disheartening when one of the stars on your opponents' team plays a hand double-dummy and makes a contract that looks as if it had no chance. Richard Oshlag and David Lindop of the Robert Bernstein team were impressed and unhappy after Adam Zmudzinski played this deal perfectly.

Oshlag led the  $\bigstar K$  (which denied the ace) and continued with a low spade to partner's 9. Zmudzinski, playing in a Moysian 4-3 fit, had to make an instant decision - should he reduce his hand to three trumps by ruffing? That's what he decided to do after some thought. Then he led a diamond and finessed the 10. It worked. He took the  $\mathbf{A}$  and came back to his hand with the  $\mathbf{V}A$ . He switched back to diamonds, and when Oshlag played the queen, which he was known to hold, Zmudzinski ruffed with the ace. Then he cashed the trump queen and finessed the 10. That was it – he had his 11 tricks.

There was one saving grace for Oshlag and Lindop – their teammates got to 3NT and made it for a push.

Oshlag decided to lead a spade, but he gave a bit of thought to which he should play. He led the jack, the killer. Zmudzinski put up dummy's ace and led a heart to the queen and ace. Oshlag continued the attack on spades, leading the 9. Declarer covered with the 10 and Lindop with the queen. He switched to a diamond, won with the queen, and Zmudzinski finessed successfully in clubs. He returned to his hand with the ♣J and set up the suit by giving up a club to Oshlag. Once again Oshlag led a spade, and his earlier high leads paid off - Lindop was able to score both his 6 and his king to set the contract. That was worth 5 IMPs because their teammates played in 3th, making five. The match was close all the way, with the Bernstein team finally upending the Coleman team to take over their #9 seed.

Rosenberg's aggressive bidding pays off

Michael Rosenberg was able to pinpoint most of the opponents' cards on this deal from the Life Master Pairs. East made defensive bids in the majors all the way up to the four level.

West led the  $\mathbf{V}^2$  which went to the queen and ace. Rosenberg of course played the clubs right – he cashed the ace and then led a club to the jack. After cashing the  $\clubsuit$ K he led a diamond to his queen, losing to the king. West shifted to a spade to the king and ace. Rosenberg had been careful with the club spots, retaining the 3 in dummy, and he now kept the lead in his hand by cashing the  $\clubsuit$ 5. Next came the  $\bigstar$ Q and a diamond to dummy's ace. He cashed a club, leading to this three-card position:

When he called for the  $\clubsuit 6$ , the defense was through. East had to keep his spade so was forced to discard a heart. Rosenberg sluffed the  $\bigstar$  7 – it had done its job. And West was fixed. He couldn't throw a diamond – dummy's 8 would be good. And if he ditched a heart, Rosenberg would take the last two tricks with his hearts.

East-West did remarkably well to catch Garber in 2 doubled, but Garber found a way to salvage something from the wreckage.

He ducked the  $\mathbf{A}$  lead and the  $\mathbf{A}$  continuation. West shifted to a heart to the jack. Garber ruffed the low heart return and played the  $\bigstar$ A followed by the jack. East won and shifted to a club to the ace. West played the \$J which was allowed to hold. At this point West should have played a club. When he actually played a third heart, Garber ruffed to reach this ending:

The A drew the last trump, and when dummy pitched a spade East was under pressure in three suits. A spade or heart discard would obviously have been fatal, but when he pitched a club Garber crossed to the ♣K and ruffed a major-suit card to score the established &J. Down one, but well played.

West leads the  $\bigstar$ 10. You cover with the jack which holds. What's your plan?

You can count three spades and five diamonds, so you need a ninth trick, but the club situation is dangerous. Should you try to steal a heart trick, or should you try to pick up the  $\blacklozenge Q$ ?

Does the opening lead provide any clues? What could West's spade holding be? The ♠10 looks like the top of a doubleton, and it's possible that West chose that lead over a fourth-best minor since the auction told him you don't have a four-card major.

When this deal was actually played, declarer did indeed play East for the  $\blacklozenge Q$ , but was disappointed to see West win the trick and switch to the  $\clubsuit$ J, eventually leading to a three-trick set. The full layout:

The  $\bigstar A$  and another spade went to West's queen who then cashed the master diamond. East and declarer each pitched hearts. The ♥J exit went to declarer's king, creating this ending:

Your system obliges you to open the South hand 1. West overcalls 1 and your partner makes a negative double. You now get to 64 with a low club lead. Make a plan.

Well, the simple route is to win and draw two rounds of trumps. When they split 4-1 with West surprisingly holding four, you exit with the  $\mathbf{\nabla} K$  – carefully, to avoid club ruffs. West takes his ace and returns a trump. You overtake, ruff a heart, cross to the K – and West ruffs! He had a 4-6-0-3 shape.

The winning line is to play hearts before drawing any trumps - which would fail if East surprisingly had the ♥A or if West had five clubs and fiveplus hearts. But maybe that is a fractionally better line. Not to worry – both tables went down in the slam.

The next exhibit is more fun. Dlr: East ♠ Q Vul: E-W ♥Q43 ♦ J 10 6 5 2 🕭 A K Q 7 ▲ J 10 4 ♥ A K 10 5 2 ♦ 7 3 985 West East North South 1♥ 1♦ 2♦ Dbl (1) 2♥ 1 🏚 4♥ 2♠ All Pass

On the  $\mathbf{A}$  lead and diamond continuation to the 10 and ace, East pauses for some time, letting you form a plan. Eventually he emerges with the  $\blacklozenge$ 9. You ruff with the 10 and it holds – good! Now you believe you need to draw trumps to prevent the promotion three rounds of trumps sees East produce the doubleton. You ruff out the diamond, cross to a top club and cash the 13th diamond. This is the ending:

Vulture puts perfect Wagar record on line

The Vulture has landed in DC, and none too soon! Unlike last year, when the #7 and #22 seeds met in the semis, the top four seeds have advanced to that stage. Boring! Several lower-seeded teams, however, deserve kudos for making it to the quarterfinals: Segal (Jane Segal-Judy Kay, Gloria Rabinowitz-Donna Morgan), who lost to #1 Wei-Sender, and Pede (Judy Pede-Careen Hinds, Cathy Strauch-Carol Pincus, Barbara Wallace-Jo Anne Casen), who fell to #3 Radin. For sheer excitement, no semifinal is likely to rival Wei-Sender's overcoming a 58 imp deficit in the final 32 boards last year, but the quality of today's semifinal matches is likely to be high. The Vulture's perfect record (6 for 6 in the '01 and '02 Wagar KOs) is on the line.

#1 WEI-SENDER v. #4 BAKER: Wei-Sender (Kathie Wei-Sender-Betty Ann Kennedy, Jill Levin-Sue Picus, Janice Seamon-Molson-Tobi Sokolow), the two-time defending champions, are gunning for a "threepeat." Baker (Lynn Baker-Debbie Rosenberg, Kerri Sanborn-Karen McCallum, Veronique Bessis-Catherine D'Ovidio) is out to stop them. Both teams face their first significant test today. Baker's French pair are playing solid bridge in their first NABC event, but it's hard to pick against a team that's won three of the last six NABC women's events. Wei-Sender by 4.

#2 BJERKAN v. #3 RADIN: Bjerkan (Cheri Bjerkan-Stasha Cohen, Renee Mancuso-Pam Wittes, Beth Palmer-Lynn Deas) and Radin (Judi Radin-Valerie Westheimer, Hjordis Eythorsdottir-Rozanne Pollack, Mildred Breed-Shawn Quinn) fended off all challengers in the bottom half of the draw. Now it's time to see which award-winning squad gets bragging rights. Bjerkan got last evening off when their quarterfinal opponents withdrew at the half. The extra rest tips the scales in today's long and grueling match. Bjerkan by 3, at 3 a.m.

IMP Pairs begins today

Longtime partners Steve Robinson and Peter Robinson consoled themselves for an early exit from last year's Spingold Knockout Teams by winning the IMP Pairs by an impressive margin.

Their final score of 14,362.43 put them well ahead of the runners-up, Neil Chambers and Norb Kremer, who finished with 12,777.74.

The winners triumphed in the IMP Pairs on the occasion of a major change in the scoring method. For the first time since the event was inaugurated in 1987, scoring was across the entire field – with potential for massive swings.

Boyd said he likes the change from the datum scoring method, in which each score was IMPed against an average of the other scores after high and low scores were discarded.

"The IMP chart," said Boyd, "is designed to magnify small differences and shrink large ones. Using a datum changes that."

On the other hand, said Robinson, in the new form of scoring "every time you go minus you lose IMPs – unless the opponents have had an accident."

Added Boyd: "The IMP Pairs is fun because you can push the accelerator down a bit."

♦ A Q J 9 6 3 ♣ A 8 4 sessions followed by two final sessions --- gets under way today with the Lebhar Trophy at stake.

The trophy was donated by Bertram Lebhar Jr. in 1948 in memory of his wife, Evelyn. The trophy was previously given to winners of the Mixed Teams but re-designated for the IMP Pairs by the ACBL Board of Directors.

Lebhar (1907-1972), under the name of Bert Lee, earned a national reputation as a sportscaster and later as a bridge player and administrator. In private life, he owned radio and television stations in Florida. Lebhar was one of the founders of the Greater New York Bridge Association and was elected its first president in 1948. Lebhar was also a player: he won the Spingold in 1940 and the Master Mixed Teams in 1946.

New Life Masters

We have another young Life Master. Steve Carman of Durham NC, a 16-year-old who is going into his junior year in high school, made the grade by winning a bracketed kncokout event. He needed 18 points, but the win was worth 22.43. He has been playing bridge for five years, but he competes in only four tournaments a year. He also plays tournament golf. His partner was his father Dave, who already is a Life Master. His teammates were Michael Lane of Charlottesville VA and Steve Rothman of Keswick VA.

Mike Steinfeldt of Savannah GA won his gold card playing in the Bracketed Knockouts. His teammates were Arlene Neufeld, Jodi and Ralph Lorberbaum of Savannah GA and Karen and Nick Keehbler of Chapel Hill NC.

We received the notification about Steinfeldt in the morning. Right after the evening session we learned that Karen Keehbler went over the top. She finished second in the Board-a-Match Teams with a 65% game. She needed 2.5 points but she actually won 6.03. She played with her husband Nick,, and their teammates were Arlene Neufeld and Mike Steinfeldt.

Her performance in the Morning Knockouts put Marianne Handler of Holmdel NJ over the top.

Lulu Frye of Atherton CA played against Bernard and Robert Neuhart of Albany NY in a side game. She was looking for a pair for her team, and they seemed nice, so she asked them. They said yes, and they advanced to the final of their knockout match. That meant that Frye had earned 12 golds and she needed only 9. That made her a Life Master. Her partner was William Sumner of Palo Alto CA.

Shelby Harbold of York PA needed 3.16 gold when she entered yesterday's knockout event. She and her teammates won the first two matches, and that was good roe 3.91 points and a gold card. Her partner was Anita Schulze of East Berlin PA. Her teammates were Jim McLoughlin of New Brunswick NJ and Robert Levinson of Monroe Township NJ.

Notice to IMP Pairs contestants

Players in the upcoming NABC IMP Pairs contest will notice a change in the way their scores appear on the recap sheets compared to last year. Although the contest has not changed, players will see much lower numbers for the scores of each board and of session totals.

The reason: even though each score is still compared against every other score in the same direction, the IMP total will now be divided by the total number of comparisons. (The total score for each pair will be stored by the computer so that round-off errors do not occur in the session totals.)

Same event, smaller numbers.

Boyd preempted vulnerable with his 1-count and "solid" suit. West took a chance with a  $3 \clubsuit$  overcall and Robinson blasted to slam.

This put the pressure on East: were North-South taking an advance save or bidding to make? Double could have netted East-West plus 800 but East eventually bid 6♠. This was doubled and failed by two tricks, earned Boyd and Robinson 1261 IMPs.

who has four previous NABC titles as well as a win in the World Senior Cup.

In third was the team of Steve Catlett, Marc and Sandra Low and Fred Hamilton with 114 Vps.

Going into the final round, Levine — Mike Levine, Zeke Jabbour, Russ Arnold, Arnie Fisher, Randy Pettit and Allan Siebert — narrowly led Catlett and Clough, respectively, 101.17–101.00–100.17. All three teams won their last round matches, but it was the margin of each win that decided the contest. Catlett won the last-round by 5 IMPs, Levine won by 11 IMPs but Clough won by 19 IMPs, giving them enough Victory Points to leapfrog Levine.

The Clough squad picked up 12 IMPs on this deal from the last match:

At one table, Gene Freed opened the South hand  $5 \blacklozenge$  in third seat. West doubled, ending the auction. West led the  $\clubsuit$ A, ruffed by Freed who then played a low club to East's king. East exited with a low trump but Freed guessed correctly to put up the ace dropping West's stiff king. Making five for plus 550.

At the other table, South also declared 5, but undoubled. West also led a top heart, ruffed by declarer who then played the A and a low spade. West won the queen and continued with a high heart. Declarer ruffed and played the A followed by a low club. East, Childs, overtook West's queen with the king to play a third round of clubs promoting partner's trump king. Down one.

teacher. "Most of us want to teach. It's very rewarding when you see one of your students become a star. Some of my clients have gone on to win major events – some have even become pros. It's a good feeling when you see your efforts bear fruit."

What makes a bridge player decide to become a pro? "You suddenly realize that you can be doing something for pay that you'd be happy to do for nothing," said Jabbour.

"It's tough when you first start out. You sleep on floors and you eat in the cheapest places you can find. The trick is to get a reputation. If you have a few successes, the word gets around and people begin to ask you to play, offering cash incentives in the bargain.

"Your reputation grows and you decide to hit the trail, much to the chagrin of your parents. Once you're established, there are lots of rewards. You gets lots of stroking. You get fed. You get recognition. It's good to have people think you're competent. It's good for the business, the ego and the soul."

Being a pro may be fun, but it's also work. You're playing bridge constantly, often three times a day. "It can get very tiring if your work is not accompanied by some success," said Jabbour. "Sometimes you don't get the partner of your choice, and that can be difficult. But then you get the right client, and then it's a joy."

Why do clients play with pros? Jabbour offered four reasons.

"Some are just interested in learning the game, and they feel playing with a pro is the fastest way to success. I play right down the middle with these students -- nothing fancy, nothing they can't understand. Others are tired of playing with poor partners and want to have some fun playing with competent partners. A third group plays with pros because they want to win, and playing with a pro increases their chances. With this group you often adjust your game – you're trying to win, not to teach. And then there are the clients who want recognition for their bridge playing – playing with a pro increases their chances to get the recognition."

What about the complaints we get about how unfair it is to have to compete against pros and their clients? "Would they rather that the pros play with each other? How difficult would it be to win then? It's easier for the rest of the field when a pro is playing with a client rather than another pro."

Jabbour tries to teach his clients to be good partners. He tells them, "Always be kind to your partner. If you can't be kind, have the decency to be right!"

He feels it's important that a pro have a good partnership with another pro - it keeps them sharp. He offered as examples partnerships like Eric Rodwell and Jeff Meckstroth or Peter Weichsel and Alan Sontag.

Jabbour does not have such a partner now but he used to have a fine one with Dennis McGarry. One time they even won every event at a sectional.

What do you have to do to be a successful pro?

"You have to love the game. Above all, you should enjoy yourself. Make sure you have a good relationship with your client. Some people say that being a pro means you're living a wasted life. Not so if you bring joy and have joy."

Junior Team Trials

The United States Junior Team Trials will take place here starting Saturday, July 27 and will continue through Sunday, July 28.

The two top finishers will represent the United States in the World Youth Team Championships next summer. The event probably will take place in Beijing, China, but final arrangements have not yet been made.

All teams must register with Charlotte Blaiss no later than Friday, July 26, at 8 p.m. Register in the Taft Room (the Press-Bulletin office on the mezzanine level.

Canada will conduct its own trials to determine its representative.

At the Barrington Bridge Club in Los Angeles, Zero Tolerance offenders have a choice: take a vacation from the club for a month or perform community service. The idea was co-owner E'Anne Conaway's, according to Alan LeBendig, the other co-owner.

If an offender opts for community service, he must call the club, show up for the game and play with whomever the club selects. There's an additional detail: "They have to make sure their partner enjoys the game," says LeBendig. "We've gotten some of the bad actors turned around, and the other players have noticed."

Calling the Director

Martha McGhee, co-chair of the 1998 Orlando NABC, was IN chairman at the 1992 NABC. This article appeared in the Daily Bulletin at that tournament.

Call the who ...? The Director! It's okay to call the director. If fact, if you don't, you may lose your right to call him later if you are damaged.

The director is the one who sells you an entry, the one who passes out the boards, the one who passes out the hand records and says, "Duplicate, please." The director is the one who organizes the players and the boards so that everything runs smoothly at the right time, the right speed and the right direction.

The director is the one you need help from if and when an irregularity happens at your table. The director gives rulings pertaining to the "Laws of Duplicate Contract Bridge."

In order for the conditions of the game to be fair, everyone has to follow the same rules. The director is familiar with these rules and is responsible for seeing that they are correctly applied.

The director is also the one who calls the rounds when it is time for you to meet your new opponents. The director puts the results of each board into the computer and posts the computer print-out of results after each session.

When you need a director, raise your hand and call out "Director, please" -- loudly enough for him to hear but not so loudly that it disturbs the other players. When the Director arrives at your table, he will listen to what happened and explain to the players the ruling that pertains to the irregularity.

Some rulings have several options so if you don't understand them fully, don't hesitate to ask for them to be repeated.

Since the conditions at each table must be duplicated as much as possible, all the players must adhere to the same set of rules. The Director's main objective is to make the game as fair as possible for all the players involved while ensuring that everyone has an enjoyable time.

Irregularities that may happen at your table for which you must call the director: a lead out of turn, an insufficient bid, a revoke, a card missing from a hand, a bid or pass out of turn, failure to Alert an artificial bid, changes of call, disagreements of tricks won, claims with trumps outstanding or disputed claims, bidding errors, etc.

The Director is your friend. Do not hesitate to call him or her. In fact, if you don't call the Director, you may have lost the right to call him later when you discover you have been damaged.

Smoking restrictions

Players are advised that smoking is prohibited everywhere inside the Marriott Wardman Park except for the lobby level bar area. Players wishing to smoke must do so outside.

In the exhibition halls (downstairs), players may use the doors to the loading dock at the end of Exhibition Hall C. In the ballroom area (lobby level), players may use the doors to the parking area across from the tournament registration desk. (Smoking in the foyer beyond these doors is also prohibited.)

Penalties will be assessed for players smoking indoors.

Ten things a bridge player would never say ...

- 1. This club (playing area) is always the right temperature - never too hot or too cold.
- 2. Free coffee? No thanks.
- 3. Cool! A four-board sitout.
- 4. No, I don't think tournament fees are too high. 5. I can always count on my partner to remember every convention on our card.
- 6. No gossip, please. I'm not interested.
- 7. More new Alerts! More new Alerts!
- 8. One thing I can say about bridge players they sure know how to dress.
- 9. No matter which direction we sit, the cards always go our way.
- 10. I don't feel like bridge today, thanks. I'd rather jog and work out.
  - Marilyn White, Toronto

Junior coupons

Junior coupons are good for entry to any event for just $6 per session. Coupons will be available only to ACBL members who are residents of Zone 2 (North America including Bermuda) who are either (1) 21 years of age or younger or (2) full-time students between 22 and 25 years of age. Full-time students must offer proof of eligibility prior to purchasing their entry.
