Mini-Spingolds to Covey, Blakely teams

Mini-Spingold I champions: Walt Murphy, Julie Murphy, Steve Devico, Gayle Covey, Elliott Grubman and Ava Grubman.

Mini-Spingold I

The team captained by Gayle Covey, on the verge of withdrawing on the opening day of the 0- 5000 Mini-Spingold Knockout Teams, today is basking in the glow of victory.

The champs are a regular foursome from Hendersonville NC – Gayle Covey, Steve DeVico, Walt and Julie Murphy – plus a couple from Brooklyn NY, Elliott and Ava Grubman.

They jumped out to a 50-IMP lead in the first quarter against the Richard Wegman squad and sailed to a 172-116 win. Wegman, of Bethesda MD, played with Arnold Malasky, Longboat Key FL; Gloria Silverman Bart, Gambrilla MD, and Jim Russell, Bradenton FL.

Mini-Spingold II victors: Nancy Ferguson, David Bryant, Bruce Blakely and Dmitri Shabes.

Mini-Spingold II

The District 21-based squad led by district president Bruce Blakely won the 0–1500 Mini- Spingold II Knockouts 126–94, defeating the Georgia-based squad captained by Nicolas Hammond.

Blakely, of San Rafael CA, played with partner Dmitri Shabes of San Ramon CA and teammates Nancy Ferguson of Greenbrae CA and David Bryant of San Francisco. The Blakely team, who recently added Shabes, has played together in the Mini-Spingolds for the past several years. At the 2003 NABC in Long Beach, the foursome finished second, and at the 2004 NABC in New York, they came in third–fourth.

NABC co-chairs happy people played and stayed

Jack Feagin and Barbara Heller have a lot of bridge organizing under their belts, so they weren't surprised that the 2005 Summer NABC in Atlanta went well. They were, however, anxious to share credit for the success with the volunteers who worked so hard at the tournament – and with the players who came in droves.

As the table count for the NABC climbed upward, Feagin and Heller reflected on three years' worth of work getting ready for the big bridge party

Nearing the goal

Through the 3 p.m. sessions on Saturday, attendance at the 2005 Summer NABC stood at 12,748 tables, putting the tournament on course to meet or exceed the projected 13,300 tables.

Spingold final: Carmichael vs. Ekeblad

Pending an appeal as this issue went to press, the Spingold Knockout final will feature the squads captained by Tom Carmichael and Russ

Carmichael, playing with Michael White, Joel Wooldridge, John Hurd, Dan Gerstman and Bryan Maksymetz dispatched the team captained by John Onstott 188–121.

The team led by Ekeblad defeated George Jacobs's squad 133–128. A late appeal made this result tentative as this issue went to press. Ekeblad's roster included Ron Rubin, Eric Greco, Geoff Hampson, Brad Moss and Fred Gitelman.

The 64-board final begins today at 10 a.m.

Meltzer leads Open Swiss quals

The squad led by Rose Meltzer topped the field of 132 teams in Saturday's Open Swiss Teams. Meltzer, playing with Peter Weichsel, Kyle Larsen, Mark Feldman, Bart Bramley and Alan Sontag scored 124 Victory Points.

In second with 119 is the team led by Robert Levin which included Steve Weinstein, Tor Helness and Geir Helgemo.

In third with 118 is the local squad of Kevin Collins, Patty Tucker, Jack Feagin and Claudia Feagin.

The two-session final begins today at 10 a.m.

Coming to America

Jacek Pszczola, the 38-year-old expert from Lublin, Poland, possesses a competitive streak that belies his affable nature. As a teenager he played volleyball and basketball, where he once enjoyed a record of hitting 57 straight free throws. When he was 19, however, he played in his first bridge tournament in his native Poland, and slam dunks soon became replaced by double squeezes.

He is known to most of the world by his nickname, Pepsi. The inhospitable landscape of Polish spelling and pronunciation forced English speakers early on to search for an appropriate moniker for the world-class player. Pszczola in their home town.

The 2005 Summer NABC was Feagin's third as chair. He also chaired the NABC in 1986 and in 1995. Heller was co-chair in 1995 and again this year. From 1987 to 1992, she ran the ultrasuccessful regional in Gatlinburg TN, which seems to set records every year for seven-day regionals.

Feagin said that during the planning stages for the 2005 NABC, early on "sometimes it would seem that we weren't moving forward." Heller said the organizing committee had to decide how their plans for food and entertainment would mesh with requirements of the host Hyatt Hotel.

In the end, both agreed that all the hard work was worth it.

"I'm really excited about how things went," said Feagin. "We had an absolutely great set of volunteers – and it's amazing how the Atlanta people came through to help run the tournament."

The volunteers all worked for the love of the game, they said. "No one received a free play," said Heller, "not even us," a reference to herself and Feagin.

The primary goal, of course, was to be sure that the players enjoyed themselves, and Feagin said he was very pleased that they met that goal.

"Just about everything we planned for was well received," he said.

Added Heller: "We have been complimented this week for a lot of different things."

Both said the jury is still out on whether the playing times will be duplicated at another big tournament.

"We still believe," said Feagin, "at least for Atlanta, that it (10 a.m. and 3 p.m. starting times) was the right decision. We have seen good participation by players." Said Heller: "Some local players came to the tournament who would not have come with a different schedule."

At the very least, he said, the concept is worth considering, perhaps in some modified form. "It could be very good for some cities," he said.

Both were very complimentary of the hotel staff and its high level of service, especially regarding water. "We were never out of water," said Heller.

The co-chairs praised the ACBL staff, especially Nancy Foy and Jeff Johnston of Meeting Services. "They were wonderful. Any time we asked for something it was immediate."

The only thing they might change, they said, would be not towait so long for an NABC to come back to Atlanta. "We don't want one next year," said Feagin, not doubt looking forward to a small break after the rigors of chairing the tournament. "But," said Heller, "we don't want to wait another nine years, either."

See the list of committee chairs on page 8.

Bid Box Alerts and Announcements

When using bid boxes, ACBL suggests that players tap the Alert strip and say "Alert" at the same time.

When making an announcement, use the announcement word — such as "transfer" — and tap the Alert strip at the same time.

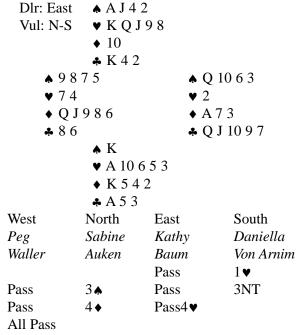

A player who Alerts or announces a bid should make sure his opponents are aware that an Alert or announcement has been made.

Juggernaut

A mighty force sweeping away and destroying everything in its path

By Mark Horton

As the second half of the Wagar Women's Knockout Teams final got under way Lynn Baker led Candace Griffey 52-28. On the second board of the set the trailing team drew closer.

3♠ promised a singleton and support, but when South discovered (via the 3NT bid) that it was in diamonds, she saw no reason to bid on. The losing club went on the ♠A: plus 680.

This time North preferred the Jacoby 2NT, and when South showed better than minimum, North powered to slam via Roman Key Card Blackwood for plus 1430 and 13 IMPs to get within striking distance.

From a theoretical point of view the importance of North's fifth heart should be noted.

Now came a long run of boards where neither side could engineer much of a swing and the score had barely advanced. Then board 14 hit the table:

After the strong $1 \clubsuit$ and positive response (by the way South should be bidding something over $1 \clubsuit - I$ would try $1 \spadesuit$, two suits of the same rank), East used a series of asking bids to discover West had six heart to a top honor and first-round control in both minors. Could North find the lead that would level the match?

She led a black card... but it was the ▲10, and declarer could win, play a heart to the ace and a heart and claim +980 and 11 IMPs.

On the very next deal, Baker struck another huge blow:

South's gambling 3NT made life very awkward for East-West. When the double was passed out (it was hard for East to bid 4♠) West did well to avoid the text-book lead of the ♥A, which would have given up an overtrick. Her choice of the ♦4 saw East win and switch to a spade, but declarer had nine tricks for plus 750.

South's more pedestrian opening made it easy for East-West to reach the spade game. North really ought to have doubled 4. (it is always one down) and when she didn't it was reasonable for South to try 5.

There was no way to avoid the loss of a diamond and two hearts, so that was minus 200 and 14 IMPs for Baker.

Baker now went into overdrive, scoring another 60 IMPs without reply in the space of nine boards. They would be the team to drink champagne from the Wagar trophy.

Light bidding

By Lynn Berg

If there has been one strong trend over the past four decades in bridge, it is that requirements for opening bids have gotten lower and lower. If you learned to play bridge before 1960, your 1NT opening was 16-18, and 13 high-card points were generally expected for opening one of a suit.

All two bids were strong, and jump overcalls promised 17 or more HCP.

If an opponent opened $1 \clubsuit$ and you bid $2 \clubsuit$, you were promising a huge hand—20 or more points for this super take-out bid. It would be safe to say that well more than half of all auctions were uncontested. The side that opened the bidding got to communicate undisturbed by the opponents.

As Cole Porter's song says, "Times have changed," and now almost "anything goes." We preempt not just at the three level but also use weak two openers. Our jump overcalls are also weak. Many of us are using Michaels cuebids and unusual 2NT overcalls, employing two-suited bids over the opponent's 1NT openings, and generally heeding Bernie Chazen's admonition, "with 5-5, come alive." We aren't as dependent on high-card point restrictions and are much more savvy about the value of two-suited hands.

As the requirements for openers are lowered, it's not surprising that there are more competitive auctions—after all, the opponents have more points if we open on weaker hands.

How do you decide whether to get into this aggressive mode? The rule of 20 and in-and-out valuation are two ideas you can use together to make rational bids based on distribution rather than only on

First consider the rule of 20. It is not a rule, of course, but a method of evaluating distributional hands. If you have two suits at least four cards long or longer, count your high-card points and the length of your two longest suits. If the two numbers add up to 20 or more, open the bidding. For example:

> ★KJ954 ♥7 ♦AQ874 ♣72 or Now try this one:

> ♦J9754 ♥K ♦Q8742 ♣A2.

When your high cards are in your long suits, it makes sense to be aggressive. When they are out of the long suits, be careful.

On that basis, you would cheerfully open the first hand 1. You should pass the second one without thinking about it very long.

In the second case, you don't especially want partner to lead either of your long suits. When you are this weak, there's a reasonable chance that you will end up defending, so don't mislead partner about what to do on defense. Partner will never get it right if you open on the second hand.

Another big change over the years has been in the requirements for an overcall at the one level. Gone are the days of "sound" overcalls.

♦K Q J 9 2 ♥7 5 ♦Q 8 3 ♣4 3 2.

Lots if players have an agreement which allows a 1 \(\infty \) overcall with this hand. It has great obstructive value and tells partner what to lead. If you have a weak suit, be sure that you have sufficient points in other suits to justify an overcall, as with this hand:

♦K 9 7 5 4 ♥A 6 3 ♦K Q 8 ♣5 3.

Sure, your spades aren't so great, but your hand is strong enough to warrant action.

Excited winners: Angela K. Young of Cumming GA and Renee Wolken of Kinnelon NJ are beaming because, as Strat C players, they had just won all three strats of the 100/200/300 Intermediate Newcomer game. They are old friends from New Jersey who had a reunion at the NABC.

Points, points!

With apologies to Marty Bergen for the headline, the Intermediate/Newcomer games at the 2005 Summer NABC will award more than 3200 masterpoints by the end of the tournament. In all more than 930 players have participated in the IN games.

Nicolas Amrine of Tulsa OK has been playing only about two months. He was asked to fill in an IN game Saturday morning. He and his partner bid and made a slam, and Nicolas let out a whoop. Some players in his section grumbled, but those in the 10/20/50 games were more understanding, "Hurray," they said, "he must have done something good!"

Lead successes assist BAM win

The team of Hemant Lall, Petra Hamman, Peggy Kaplan, Steve Beatty, Marty Fleisher and Rozanne Pollack won the Mixed Board-a-Match Teams Friday night, and some of their success came from the opening lead department.

Partners Lall and Hamman posed problems for declarers on these deals from the second final session.

In third seat (no one vulnerable), South opened 1♠, West (Lall) overcalled 2♦ and North jumped to $4 \blacktriangle$ ending the auction. Lall led the $\blacktriangle J$.

North–South are clearly too high, but if spades behave declarer should fail by one trick only. Minus 50 might still be good enough to win the board.

Declarer played low from dummy as East produced the \(\bar{\O} \). Declarer won the king and, deciding that West had led a spade from J-10-x, played a low spade toward dummy. Lall followed with the 5 and declarer called for dummy's 7. Hamman produced the 10, however, and the contract failed by two tricks, minus 100, and a win on the board when the declarer at the other table made nine tricks in spades.

South opened the bidding 1♣ in third seat. West doubled and North bid 1 . East passed and South mad a jump rebid of 3♣. North tried 3♦ and South ended the auction with 3NT.

Hamman (West in this case since the deal has been rotated) led a low diamond. What would you play from dummy if you were declarer?

Perhaps this is just a guess, but that's how events are won — by making the opponents guess. Declarer decided to play the 10, but West covered with the jack and returned the suit. The defense held declarer to 10 tricks, which was a win on the board when 11 tricks were scored in the replay.

The bidding battle

By Mark Horton

The first session of the final of the Wagar Women's Knockout Teams was a low-scoring affair with the Lynn Baker team emerging with a slight advantage mainly as result of two boards where the bidding played a significant role.

East's pass is conservative, but the obvious bid of 2NT would probably have seen West raise to a game that might have failed by several tricks (although it can be made on a spade lead.) 2♠ is not a great contract but East cashed a top diamond and switched to a club so declarer could ruff one losing club and eventually scrambled seven tricks for minus 100.

When South, doubtless constrained by system, produced a green card, West, despite her dubious distribution and one passed opponent, was in with her preemept. North's entry into the auction was imaginative and why East though she could make 3NT is anyone's guess. Never mind, South took her partner seriously and rather than pass and lead a heart she pressed on. West's double - let's call it dynamic - concluded an adventurous auction.

East cashed a top diamond and switched to a club and declarer won and tried a spade. West won with the 9 and switched to a trump. East cashed the ace and played a second trump so declarer could take no more than eight tricks, minus 500 and 9 IMPs for Baker.

East's opening bid is the current fashion, but you would really like that ♠A to be in hearts. There was no pre-balancing double from North, so South had nothing to do. The defenders collected their tricks: down two, minus 100.

David Bird, commentating on Bridge Base Online, was somewhat scathing of Sabine Auken's double, (I couldn't agree less) and it earned her side a deserved swing as South had an easy conversion. Had she chosen a top heart as her opening lead there would have been some chance for three down (declarer would need a good view in diamonds), but on her actual choice of a spade declarer could score six tricks for minus 300 and 5 well- earned IMPs for Baker.

Choices

On this deal from the first semifinal session of the Life Master Pairs, Dave Butler of Keswick VA found an unusual end position. Butler, East, was playing with Mark Dahl. Dlr: South 1065 1

South led the *K to dummy's ace, and Butler played the \(\Q \) to North's ace. North returned a low heart to the 8, 9 and king. The \blacklozenge 9 held, so Butler continued with a spade to the queen, ducked by South. To avoid having to make two pitches from dummy, Butler exited with a low diamond, pitching a club from dummy.

South continued with the *Q and another club as Butler discarded diamonds from hand. Butler tried the ♠K, ducked again. The remaining cards were these:

Butler cashed the ♣J, discarding the ♦K from his hand – and South had no way to prevent Butler from taking two more tricks to fulfill his contract. If South pitched the ♦J, he would be thrown in with the ♠A to lead away from the the ♥Q. If he pitched a heart, Butler would drop the queen with the ace and enjoy the ♥J at the end.

On the AQ lead you win the ace and realize the ♥A is bound to be wrong. So you need to set up the fourth club and also keep East off lead for the fatal heart shift.

Thus at trick two you lead a low club and East puts in the 10. You put up the ace and West unblocks the queen. You draw trumps ending in dummy and lead another club toward the 7 in the closed hand . . . but East puts in the 9 this time. This is a nice try, but it's no good. When you win the *K West can't unblock the jack or dummy's 8 is good. Whatever the defense, you'll be able to discard a heart on the fourth club — back to average again.

New Life Masters

Carol Staneslow of Clagary AB became a new Life Master playing with husband Roger Staneslow in the 299er Swiss Teams on Saturday. Their teammates were Linda Miller and Patricia Richeson of Willaimsburg VA.

Jaya Gala of Germantown TN earned the last few gold points she needed to become a Life Master in the regional knockout teams on Saturday. Gala was playing with Marvin Skaggs of Memphis TN. Their teammates were Gala's husband V.T. Gala and Skaggs's wife Cecile Skaggs.

Ruling the Game

by Mike Flader Associate National Tournament Director

Claims — part 3

Law 70D deals with a situation where declarer attempts to propose a line of play that was not embraced in his original claim statement if there is an alternative normal line of play that would be less successful. The word "normal" in the laws refers to careless or inferior plays. It does not include irrational lines of plays.

For example, declarer is playing 6NT. His diamond suit is A–10–x–x–x opposite K–J–x–x–x, and he needs to take five tricks from this combination in order to make 12 tricks. If he claims the contract, stating that he will take five diamond tricks, he must fail in his contract if the diamonds are dividing 3–0 and he makes no mention of how he intends to play the diamonds. The director must assume that he will always "guess wrong."

Another example: Declarer is playing in 3NT. His diamonds are A–K–Q–10–x–x–x in his hand opposite two low diamonds in dummy. If he claims that he is going to run diamonds from the top and get all seven tricks, do we have to give the opponents a trick in diamonds if right-hand opponent holds J–x–x–x in diamonds? We might well rule under those circumstances that if declarer has an entry to dummy with which he can take the diamond finesse, we would allow him to do so, since to force him to play diamonds from the top when one of his opponents had shown out may well be irrational.

Yet another example: Declarer is playing in 3NT. His diamonds are K–Q–9–x–x in the dummy opposite A–10–x in his hand. If he claims five tricks in this suit and the suit splits 3–2, he is going to be okay, but if his LHO has J–x–x–x and he fails to mention in his claim that he is discarding the 10 from his hand when he cashes the dummy's ace or king, he should be ruled against. This is an example of carelessness, not of irrationality.

Law 70E deals with an unstated line of play involving a finesse or drop. In some of the earlier versions of the laws, the declarer was not allowed to take a finesse subsequent to a claim unless he had mentioned it in his claim statement. The latest version of the laws allows him to do so if an opponent has failed to follow suit in the suit in which the finesse is being taken, or would fail to follow suit on any normal line of play or if the failure to adopt the line of play would simply be irrational. Thus, if declarer has made a claim his hand, and he leads a round of clubs from his hand successfully finessing on which his RHO shows out, and he now claims, he is entitled to repeat this finesse even if he did not mention his intention to do so as long as he has an entry back to his hand. Even if his RHO had followed to the first finesse, the claimer should be allowed to repeat this finesse again assuming that he has the entries to do so.

Here is an example of a poorly stated claim involving an unstated line of play:

-	∧ K Q 3
	v 10 9 8
	◆ A 7
	♣ A Q 9 7 5

South is declarer plays in $6 \clubsuit$. The $\heartsuit Q$ is the opening lead. Declarer wins the ace, and draws trumps in three rounds ending in her hand. After running the diamonds, she leads the \$2 and successfully finesses the queen. She then faces her hand and states she will ruff a club to get back to her hand. The opponents claim that she has to lose a heart since she did not state that she was going to pitch it on the A before ruffing a club. In this case, the director should rule that declarer's line of play always involved discarding the heart of the A before returning to hand. In this case, she just forgot to state it in her line of play. Everything about her line of play indicates that this was her intent and to make her play otherwise would be irrational.

Stepping stones to success

3NT by North-South looks like the logical contract, perhaps best by North to protect the tenaces. 3NT by South, however (after the auction 1 - 2; 2 - 2NT; 3NT), was not uncommon.

On the *Q lead to the king and ace, followed by the *2 to the 8, West tried the *J followed by the *9 to set up the suit.

This was transparent defense, but East committed a critical error by keeping spades and pitching two diamonds on the third and fourth round of clubs. Declarer made no mistakes now.

A diamond to the 10 was followed by the $\mathbf{\Psi}Q$. The $\mathbf{\Psi}J$ dropped, but even if it hadn't, declarer would have known to finesse. The $\mathbf{\Psi}2$ was covered by the 8 and 10, and declarer cashed the

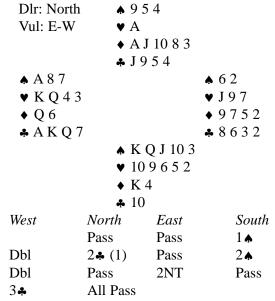

The $\bigvee K$ forces the $\bigstar Q$ out of West. Then, a diamond to the jack, $\bigvee K$ and the $\bigstar K$ forces West to win and concede the last trick to South.

Insight

By Marshall Miles

Robin Kay (daughter of Judy and Norman Kay) showed remarkable insight on this deal fom the Mixed Board-a-Match Teams. Robin was East.

(1) Drury (limit raise in spades).

Before North could lead, Robin said, "My 2NT was intended to ask for a choice of the minors."

South then called the director and said he would have bid 3 \(\text{if he had known that, and he was allowed to bid 3 \(\text{A} \). West doubled again, and the result was minus 530. The result at the other table was plus 140 for North-South.

Robin objected to giving South another opportunity to bid and said the contract should be 3. because there was no "agreement." It was a new partnership, and her partner had to interpret her bid based on logic (which he did). Eventually, the director awarded us the win, saying there was no need to Alert.

Then they changed their minds, saying that the probable result would be minus 200 in 3♣. Robin then said North's most likely lead would be the ♥A. South would give suit preference for spades, and North would lead a spade. West should duck without thinking about it – North, with a singleton heart, almost surely has four clubs. Declarer wouldn't mind one ruff but he wouldn't like two, and he couldn't afford to win and play three rounds of trumps.

South would give his partner a heart ruff but might lead a high heart, thinking his partner had the A instead of the A, and if North returned a spade after taking the first heart ruff the result would be down one.

This was a quick and logical analysis. The contract had not been 34, so no one could tell what would have happened. The directors finally ruled that both sides, while innocent, had no opportunity to win or lose the board. Both sides were given a win. It is worth nothing that Robin's analysis was as good as a season expert could have made.

Say 'Thanks!'

As we prepare to leave this wonderful Atlanta NABC, let's all take an extra moment to say "thank you" to our hosts. The hospitality and entertainment have been spectacular.

I look forward to see you at the Fall NABC in Denver.

TOURNAMENT APPEALS

In order to keep the bridge public informed of appeals results in a timely fashion, the NABC Daily Bulletin staff publishes write-ups. Every effort is made to ensure that these reports are accurate and complete. Before they are published in the NABC Appeals Casebook, however, revisions may be made.

Please note: These cases are presented in the order requested by the chairman of the National Appeals Committee. The following cases are the sixth, seventh and eighth published at this tournament.

Event: LM Pairs Session: 1st Semi-Final Walter Lee ♠ Q 2 Dlr: East Vul: N-S ♥ Q 5 ♦ A 10 7 3 ♣ K Q J 7 5 Steven Ashe Sean Ganness ♠ 9 3 ▲ 10 4 ♥ A K 10 9 8 7 6 3 ♥ J 4 ♦ J ♦ KQ985 4 10 4 3 2 ♣ A 6 Jonathan Weinstein ▲ AKJ8765 v 2 ♦ 642 4 98 West North East South Pass 3♠ 4 Pass 4♥ Pass Dbl Pass 5♥ Pass Pass Dbl All Pass

Facts: 5♥ failed by two tricks on the lead of the ♣K, for a result of North-South plus 300. North-South was vulnerable. The Stop card was not used before the 3♠ bid because of physical disability, but the South player did say "Stop" before making his 3♠ call. The speed of the 4♥ bid was disputed, with North-South believing that it was fast. Both sides agreed that the bid was made in less than 10 seconds. The tempo of West's double was also subject to some difference of opinion, with West conceding that it was slightly out of tempo and East denying that it was. The director was called after the 5♥ call.

Director's Ruling: The director changed the contract to 4 doubled, making five for North-South plus 990 and East-West minus 990, per Law 16. After a player makes available to his partner extraneous information that may suggest a call or play, that partner may not choose from among logical alternative actions one that could demonstrably have been suggested over another by the extraneous information.

The Appeal: East-West appealed. West disputed that he had bid 4Ψ in only about five seconds after South bid $3\spadesuit$, but agreed that he bid quickly. He also agreed that he took about 7-8 seconds before doubling.

The Decision: East did not have a particularly good fit for hearts, so there was no great reason to bid $5 \, \Psi$. The auction itself did not suggest that West had doubts about defeating 4Ss, but the relatively fast $4 \, \Psi$ bid followed by the relatively slow double demonstrably suggested a hand with strong offensive values but only marginal defensive values. It is this extraneous information that makes bidding $5 \, \Psi$ more attractive than the auction itself suggests.

Once the Committee decided to back up the auction to 4 doubled, it then considered the possible lines of play in that contract. West could give South a problem by shifting to the $\int J$ after cashing a high heart. South must duck if West holds a doubleton diamond and win if it is singleton. However, the committee did not think that this was an obvious shift at trick two and decided that South was likely to get it right if put to this guess. Most lines of play led to 11 tricks (seven spades, one diamond and three clubs), so the committee awarded both sides that result: plus 990 for North-South and minus 990 for East-West.

The Committee then considered whether to assign an appeal without merit penalty. East-West were playing in the second day of the Life Master Pairs. They are both relatively experienced players who should be aware of what Law 16 and 73 require. East's hand contains nothing that would suggest that bidding would be more successful than passing. The Committee decided that East should have known that this appeal had no merit and so awarded an AWMP.

Event: LM Pairs Session: Final Russ Ekeblad ∧ K Q 7 Dlr: North Vul: N-S ♥ A Q J 5 ♦ KQJ107 Valerie Westheimer Disa Eythorsdottir ♦ 109863 ▲ AJ5 ♥ 10 6 ♥ K 8 7 2 ♦ A 9 5 3 2 ♦ 84 4 7 2 ♣ A 8 6 Eric Greco ♦ 42 ♥ 943 ♦ 6 ♣K Q 10 9 5 4 3 West North East South 1 🚓 Pass 1♦ Dbl Redbl 2 3♣ Pass 3NT All Pass

Facts: 3NT by North failed by one trick, East-West plus 100. The 1♣ bid was a forcing club; the 1♦ bid was negative; and the double of 1♦ was Alerted as majors. The director was called after the play was over.

Director's Ruling: The director ruled, without written comment, that the table result stands.

The Appeal: North-South felt that West's passing 3♣ was unlikely without the UI from the explanation of the double. They also believed that the 2♠ bid was unduly conservative, partially "catching" the error.

East-West felt that with any hand which could have bid 2♠ on the second round, East could have bid something on the first round (East saying, "I'm not shy."). East-West said that they play Mathe over the 1♠ response to a forcing club and that West simply forgot. They also said that in their unsophisticated partnership, they have no agreements about direct versus delayed action over the big club. They do not use fit jumps.

The Decision: The committee first considered the 2♠ choice. It could not find a source of UI available to East. With nothing to suggest an infraction that might suggest a 2♠ bid, there was no further reason to question East's choice of bids.

West, however, was in possession of UI. She also had AI (authorized information) from the $2 \spadesuit$ bid. Would that wake her up to the error even without East's explanation? The committee judged that with no express agreements in the auction, West was guessing about why East bid $2 \spadesuit$. That is not sufficient to duplicate the available UI. So there was UI providing useful information.

Most West players would either pass or bid 3♠ in response to East's 2Ss call where there no UI. The UI obviously suggested passing over the 3♠ call. So, passing is an infraction. 3♠ was imposed on West. Over the imposed 3♠ call, there were still several possible final contracts and scores: 3S* down one, 4♠ doubled down two, 4♣ down one and 3NT down one. After some consideration, the committee deemed 4.4 not to be at all probable. Both 3.6 doubled and 4.6 doubled were judged to be likely, and 3NT was judged to be at all probable. Therefore, by Law 12C2, the committee assigned plus 300 to North-South (the most favorable result likely) and minus 300 to East-West (the most unfavorable result at all probable).

The appeal had obvious merit. Due to the nonobvious issue of AI versus UI, the Committee did not issue a procedural penalty for abuse of UI.

Event: Spingold Session: Round 2 Ron Smith Dlr: South ↑ 7 6 Vul: E-W ♥ K 9 5 4 ♦ Q 10 7 2 ♣ Q 7 6 Jason Feldman Leslie Amoils ∧ K 8 ♠ QJ 10 5 4 ♥ AJ 10 8 7 3 ♥ Q 2 ♦ 8 5 4 ♦ K J ♣ K 10 8 ♣ J 3 2 Billy Cohen ▲ A 9 3 2 v 6 ♦A963 ♣ A 9 5 4 West North East South 1 ♦ 1 🛦 Dbl 2♥ All Pass

Facts: 2♥ by East made two, plus 110 East-West. The opening lead was the ♣A. The director was called after comparison of scores. West agreed that his final pass was slow. North-South had played many boards against this pair and knew West's tempo to be "glacial."

Director's Ruling: The director ruled that as there was no intent to deceive in West's slow pass, the table result would stand.

The Appeal: The issue before the director and committee was whether West's slow pass might have improperly influenced North's decision to pass. North claimed he would have bid 3♦ over an intempo pass.

This was a first-time East-West partnership. West considered 2♥ to be forcing by extension from their partnership agreement that it would be forcing without intervention. He explained that he simply took his time before deciding that breaking partnership discipline would provide the best result for his side.

The Decision: The only Laws under which an adjustment might be considered are 73D1 (Variations in Tempo to Mislead) and 73F2 (Illegal Deception). The committee determined that the slow tempo of West's pass was innocent and entirely logical in the circumstances (intentionally violating what he believed to be the partnership agreement). North had not asked about 2♥ and had passed immediately. He knew West's natural tempo was slow.

East-West committed no infraction. Although the committee would have liked the director and screener to have quoted the relevant Laws to the appellants, it was still comfortable awarding an AWM to the North-South pair.

Who's who on the NABC committee

See tournament co-chairs interview on page 1.

Jack Feagin, Chairman. This is the third Atlanta NABC under Jack's guidance. He has been a bridge volunteer for more than 30 years and has chaired various tournaments for the past 25. He has served on the boards of Georgia State Unit 114, District 7, the Mid-Atlantic Bridge Conference and the ACBL Board of Governors. He is past president of the unit, district and Mid-Atlantic and currently is serving his second two-year term as president of the Duplicate Bridge Association of Atlanta (DBAA). Jack, an Emerald Life Master, is one of only six individuals in the Georgia State Bridge Hall of Fame. He is an attorney. Jack's wife, Claudia, is a retired schoolteacher and also an Emerald Life Master.

Barbara Heller, Co-chair. Barbara is a "double host" of this NABC. She is co-chair of the local committee and president of District 7. Barbara also is a past president of Tennessee Valley Unit 165 and of the Mid-Atlantic. She co-chaired the Gatlinburg regional for six years before moving to Atlanta in 1992. She has two other jobs: secretary of Unit 114 and second alternate to the district director. Barbara is one of just a few district members named to both the ACBL Goodwill and Charity committees. She is a middle school media specialist, and before classes, she teaches bridge to sixth-, seventh- and eighthgraders. Several of them are new ACBL members.

Susan Wolfe, Secretary. Susan is a newcomer in the world of bridge volunteers, and serves on the DBAA and Unit 114 boards. She has done a tremendous amount of work for this tournament, serving as secretary and often meeting organizer. Susan's most visible contribution will be a source of enjoyment: She is the entertainment chair. The unusual starting times created an extra challenge, but we think everyone will agree: Susan did a great job of arranging a variety of activities. See Page 8 for the details.

Melba Downs, Registration chair. Melba reprises the role she played at the 1995 NABC here. She is known to make everyone feel welcome at the registration desk, so be sure that you stop by to secure your NABC T-shirt and other goodies. Melba oversees numerous helpers.

Nancy Hetsko, Intermediate/Newcomer chair. Nancy is a popular Atlanta area teacher and director. She is vice-president of Unit 114, secretary of District 7 and a member of the ACBL Charity committee. Nancy has signed up more than 100 new ACBL members over the past several years and is working hard to ensure that all of our less experienced players have loads of fun and lots to do at this NABC. See Page 9 for the details.

Susan Hopkins, VIP entertainment chair. Susan is responsible for hosting and entertaining ACBL executives, board members and their spouses, most of whom will be on-site for meetings four days before the NABC begins. Susan had a similar job at the 1995 Atlanta tournament, and this year she is assisted by Michelle Alterman and Carol Mathews.

Beatrice Kemp, Charity chair. Beatrice researched many charities before she recommended the hospice that we chose. She is an ACBL Patron Member and serves on the DBAA and Unit 114 boards.

Sam Marks, Restaurants and Discounts. Sam has been pounding the pavement to come up with various discounts and specials at nearby restaurants. He also was responsible for the NABC restaurant guide, which should be of great

Josie Mitchell, Hospitality chair. Josie has been one of Atlanta's most loyal, dependable and gracious volunteers for more than two decades. Any time one of our groups plans a party or celebration, Josie is the first recruit. A Silver Life Master, Josie serves on the DBAA and Unit 114 boards and is a member of the ACBL Charity committee

Dick Myers, Transportation and Tours. Dick has been instrumental in planning some of the most important elements of this NABC Ñ local transportation alternatives, MARTA issues, tours for those who might want to take off a session or two and enjoy some of Atlanta's attractions. Both Dick and his wife, Betty, have been frequent and reliable helpers on several other fronts. They both serve on the Unit 114 and District 7 boards.

Larry Rich, Caddies. Larry has organized caddies for Atlanta regionals, so he was a natural for this position. Larry is manager of a three-star club and serves as the very responsive Web master for District 7, the Mid-Atlantic and District 9. He is past president of the unit and serves on the Mid-Atlantic board.

Joe Sherwood, Prizes. Joe has supervised the prize room for quite a string of Atlanta regionals, and he'll serve in a similar role at the NABC. A past president of both the unit and district, Joe is a Goodwill member.

Kate Smith, Treasurer. This is Kate's third Atlanta NABC as the financial officer, pretty much a "behind the scenes" job. Kate also will be a regular at the registration desk.

Martha Spalding, Partnership chair. Martha won't be able to do it all this time, as she has at countless sectionals and the past several regionals. For the NABC she is captain of the partnership desk ship, and she's lined up a great crew. Peggy Trosper, Harry and Susan Hopkins, and Carolyn and Lee Eckert will be heading a staff of many throughout the 11 days.

Kathy Whidden, Information chair. Recently retired as a full-time ACBL tournament director, Kathy is a natural for this position. She is, after all, a winner of the ACBL's Fred Friendly award. One of her primary helpers, Carey Snider, is also a recently retired director and Fred Friendly recipient.

Other key committee members, all of whom have volunteered their ideas, time and energy to make this NABC a success, are Perry Alterman, Jane Bachman, Gabriel Fadel, Claudia Feagin, Bob Heller, Michael Jinks, Bill Kulbersh, John Lowell, Donna Marks, Janet Sherwood, Vickie Stewart, Jim Stogner, Tarokh Taefi, Patty Tucker, and Jan Word. Countless other volunteers have contributed to the team effort that makes this NABC a success.

Virgil Smith and Harry Downs, husbands of Kate and Melba, two of our chairs, have provided invaluable help.

French led a low heart, and declarer made his first mistake, putting in the 8. North's 9 forced out a high club. Now a low spade was played from the East hand. French ducked and his partner took the $\black 10$ with the king.

Back came a club, and declarer erred again by winning a second high club. Declarer then ran five rounds of diamonds, pitching the two low clubs from his hand. French, with two discards to make, threw a spade, then a heart, leaving this position:

Unless declarer guesses to play a spade to his ace, he will take no more tricks. If he finesses the AJ, French will win and the defenders will have the rest in top tricks. If declarer plays a heart, French would win the ace and cash his two clubs. North could comfortably discard his spades, while declarer would be squeezed in the majors. Declarer could pitch his AJ, but on the second club he would be faced with the choice of tossing his AA or unguarding his Q.

Pszczola

(sounds like 'peesht-chola' — sort of) became "Pepsi cola" and later just "Pepsi." The name stuck, so much so that even his fellow Poles use it.

Whatever he's called, his talent speaks for itself. His collection of world bridge titles is outstanding for a player so young. In 1998, Pszczola and longtime partner Michal Kwiecien grabbed the gold medal in the World Open Pairs championship in Lille, France. He is a two-time winner of the prestigious Cavendish Invitational Pairs — he won in 2001 with Kwiecien and in 2004 with Sam Lev, also of Poland but who now lives in the U.S. In 2000, he was a member of the Polish national team that narrowly lost to Italy in the final of the World Bridge Olympiad in Maastricht, Netherlands.

Add to these his national wins in Poland and North America (including the 2002 Vanderbilt Knockouts), and you get the credentials of one of the best players in the world.

Yet there is something that Pszczola wants to accomplish that is not yet within his grasp. He wants move to the U.S. with his wife and three young children, beginning a new life as a full-time player based in America.

"I own a business in Poland and I also do a lot of traveling for bridge," he said referring to his schedule in Europe, North America and Australia. "But I want to spend more time with my family, so I'm going to give up the business and focus on bridge."

Since the opportunities for making a living at the game are greater in the U.S., Pszczola has begun the process to get his green card which would give him resident alien status and allow him to move his family from Poland.

"I'm staying with friends in Chapel Hill NC this summer. I love the weather and the nearby universities an the great basketball. I've also discovered that there are good local schools, so I'm thinking about trying to move somewhere in North Carolina."

Pszczola has been married to wife Olga for nine years. The couple has three children: Jakub, 7, Zuzia, 3, and Szymon, 2.

The challenges for foreigners attempting to relocate in the U.S. are considerable, especially post-Sept. 11, but Pszczola is hopeful and has begun the immigration process which normally takes two to three years.

Pszczola explained his commitment to the move: "America has the best bridge. I love the game and I'm doing very well in it. But this is really for both me and my family. My children will have better schools and better job opportunities. In America, you're potential is still big if you're clever enough."

Itabashi collects 30,000th MP

Mark Itabashi, a full-time player from Southern California, has surpassed the 30,000 masterpoint barrier. He is a Grand Life Master by virtue of several North American championships. Only 10 other players have more masterpoints.

Itabashi lives in Murrieta CA, north of San Diego. He has been a full-time player for more than 20 years.

In his other life, Itabashi enjoys spending time with his two daughters, 14-year-old Christina and 11-year-old Michelle. He also enjoys tennis, snow skiing and walking.

The Covey team nearly dropped out of the event at the beginning. Unaware that they were playing in a four-way match, they trailed by more than 70 IMPs in the first round, and Devico called the teammates sitting out and asked if they wanted to bother playing in such a one-sided affair.

It was only later that a tournament director advised him that one loss wasn't going to put them out of the event – so they pressed on, won their next match on their way to the first North American championship for each.

Devico is a computer consultant, as is his wife, Covey. They stopped playing for about 10 years, she said, "so we could stay married. Steve is older and mellower now, so we started playing again about two years ago." Covey credits Steve Goldstein, formerly of New York but now in Chicago, with teaching her the Kaplan-Sheinwold bidding system. Goldstein was on hand to congratulate the winners.

Ava Grubman credits Devico with teaching her bridge in college. She and Elliott are both involved in teaching bridge in New York City, and Elliott directs and plays at the Honors Bridge Club. The two have played bridge together for 27 years.

The Murphys also have a long partnership – and a long marriage. In three weeks they will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. They met playing bridge while students at the University of Maryland. The Murphys say they guru is manytime national champion Russ Arnold, who now lives in Florida.

Francisco, is an attorney. Shabes is a software engineer for an insurance company. Ferguson is a hospital pharmacist and Bryant is a real estate investor.

Playing with Hammond were Martin Nathan and Maureen McGuire of Atlanta, Edward Foran of Marietta GA, John Hassett of Kennesaw GA and Robert Ternosky of Clay NY.

After the victory, the winners teased teammate Bryant who had sworn he would never play on a four-person team again.

Bryant, however, was a gracious winner.

"We met lots of new people, and the level of sociability was very high. We liked everyone we met," he said.

Captain Blakely noted, "We had a great time, and we wanted to play every board."

ACBL President and District 21 Board member Roger Smith was on hand to congratulate the members of his district that had performed so

Names of the game

Some people are born for bridge, literally: 47 of our members are named Bridge. Others claim pips as their surnames.

There are two Clubbs, 61 Diamonds, 101 Harts but no Heart and only one Spade.

Two members are named Trump (no Donald). We wonder if Phil Hook of Atlanta wins more than his share of finesses. He joins 10 other ACBL Hooks.

Our 13 Ruffs must derive personal pleasure when their deuce of trump wins a trick, especially if the contract has been played by one of our four Edward Bottom of Covington LA is at the Atlanta NABC. His namesake can't be too much of a burden: He's a Silver Life Master. He should pair up with Gretchen Topp of Covina CA.

Then there are members whose names must bring a smile at the table, such as Atlanta NABC players Alice Fillingame of Midway GA and Stuart Goodgold of San Jose CA.
