Silver Ribbon champs: Siebert and Stout

For many years, Alan Stout enjoyed the unusual distinction of being the ACBL member with the greatest number of masterpoints who had never won a North American Championship. With his victory Monday in the Leventritt Silver Ribbon Pairs with longtime partner Allan Siebert, Stout finally put that distinction to rest. Pairing a 62.65% first final session with a 57.36% effort in the second final, Siebert and Stout won the four-session contest (restricted to members 55 and older who had previously qualified to enter) by more than a board. Their two-day total including carryover was 2140.54.

In second with 2045.56 were Charles Nemes and Martin Morris of the Chicago area. Top on a board was 64. This was the sixth NABC title for Siebert of Little Rock AR. On the all-time list of ACBL masterpoint holders, he is #23 with almost 27,000. Stout, who previously had two second-place finishes in NABC events, is #15 on the list with nearly 29,000 points. With the victory, Stout is now a Grand Life Master.

Stout, of Jacksonville FL, and Siebert were in 10th place after the qualifying round, but were first at the end of the afternoon final session.

Goodwill reception honors four

ACBL's National Goodwill Committee hosted a reception Monday evening with Committee Chair Aileen Osofsky ably leading the event. As with all Goodwill Committee meetings, dozens of players were recognized for their contributions to the game, and the St. Louis reception was no exception. In addition, however, four members were singled out for special recognition.

New Orleans member Jennie Flynn Sauviac was honored as the 2007 ACBL Goodwill Member of the Year. Sauviac has served District 10 and Unit 134 for years as a tournament chair, board officer, Easybridge! presenter and advocate for new players. Osofsky, in her introductory remarks, acknowledged the challenges faced by the bridge community in New Orleans, but added that Hurricane Katrina was no match for Hurricane Jennie.

Sauviac thanked the committee and said, "I'm honored to be part of the elite company in this room, and I know we'll all continue to promote ACBL and the game we love."

Nancy Espy, the 2006 Volunteer of the Year, was selected by last year's ACBL President Harriette Buckman. Current President Sharon Fairchild introduced Espy, of Sun Lakes AZ, by reading comments by Buckman about the honoree.

Buckman said, "Nancy's efforts stand out, and she is Continued on page 5

Stayman

By Mark Ehret

Our priorities at bridge are to play in the majors first, notrump second and the minor suits last. The Stayman convention is designed to discover 4-4 major suit fits when partner opens 1NT.

As South you hold:

- A K J 4 2 \spadesuit**
- Q 8 4 3 \spadesuit**
- A 8 6 3 \spadesuit**
- Q 8 6 \spadesuit**
- A Q 6 4 \spadesuit**

North opens 1NT (15-17). Now what?

You have enough high-card points to invite game, and you have a four-card major. Your doubling in clubs may provide opportunities for partner to take some ruffs in your hand, but only if you have a 4-4 spade fit. The way to find out is to bid 2♠.

That is a conventional bid – it has nothing to do with clubs and everything to do with finding out if partner has a four-card major. His responses:

- 2♥ = no four-card major.
- 2♠ = four-card heart suit (maybe four spades).
- 2♦ = four-card spade suit, but not four hearts. Some partnerships agree that opener's rebid of 2NT denies a four-card major and shows that the top of the 1NT range. This is not recommended. Just bid 2♠ to say no four-card major. Partner may need the bidding space that remains at the two level to further describe his hand.

Let's say that North now bids 2❤. If you hold the example hand, what should you bid next?

Bid 2♠. That tells partner you have a raise to 2NT with a four-card spade suit. If North has a minimum 1NT opener and four spades, you can stop at the two level. 2NT by you would send the same message (you wouldn't have used Stayman without one major and you don't like hearts), but if partner has four spades and a minimum, you will end up at the three level. When game is not in the picture, stay as low as you can.

Here's another hand to consider:

- A K J 10 5 \heartsuit**
- Q J 5 3 2 \heartsuit**
- J 7 4 \heartsuit**
- A 6 3 2 \heartsuit**
- Q 8 6 \heartsuit**
- A K Q 17 \heartsuit**
- 10 7 5 3 2 \heartsuit**
- 9 4 \heartsuit**
- 9 7 5 2 \heartsuit**
- A Q 6 4 \heartsuit**

Partner, North, opens the bidding 1NT, and you bid 2♠ to check on his major-suit holdings. Predictably, partner bids 2♦ (no major). Now what?

If you bid 2♥, you are showing the hand you hold: five hearts, four spades (you would simply have transferred to hearts without four spades) and 8 or 9 HCP. More on transfers can be found in another article in this series.

Partner now has the option of passing 2♥, raising to 4♠ with three-card support and a maximum or bidding 2NT with a doubleton heart and a minimum 1NT.

Finally, let's look at a hand that represents the exception to the rule that you should always have at least 8 HCP to use Stayman. Say you hold

- A Q 7 2 \heartsuit**
- J 9 7 3 \heartsuit**
- 9 7 6 5 \heartsuit**
- A 7 5 2 \heartsuit**

or even

- A 3 2 \heartsuit**
- Q 8 7 2 \heartsuit**
- J 9 7 3 \heartsuit**
- 9 7 6 5 \heartsuit**

Partner opens 1NT. What is your plan?

Bid Stayman, planning to pass whatever partner bids, including 2♠ (you know partner will not bid clubs). Wherever you land is almost certainly going to be better than 1NT with your weak hand as dummy. On a good day, partner will bid a major or have a good holding in diamonds.

West North East South

Pass 2♠ 2♦ 2♥

Opening lead: 2♠.

Bidding commentary: South is too strong to overcall 1♠, so he doubles, intending to bid spades next. With this distribution, a double followed by a suit bid shows 17-18 high-card points. Given the strength that South is showing, North has enough to raise to 4♠. A raise to 3♠ is possible but a touch conservative.

Lead commentary: Holding three low cards in partner's unsupported suit, lead low to deny a doubleton. If you raised partner's opening bid, lead high to deny an honor. Partner knows of your length.

Defensive commentary: The possession of four to the ace in the opponents' trump suit is a powerful weapon, particularly when holding a long, strong side suit. East plays three rounds of hearts, forcing South to ruff. South and East now have four spades each. When South begins to draw trumps, East is careful to win the third round with the ace. Not the first, not the second, but the third round. Why? Because the third spade is the one that exhausts dummy. Now East can play a fourth heart, forcing South to ruff with his last spade. East remains with a high spade and a high heart — down two. If East wins an earlier spade and leads a heart, North, the short trump hand, can ruff, leaving South with enough spades to draw East's trumps.

Play commentary: As South, if East ducks two spades, do not play a third. Play minor-suit winners and let East ruff, limiting your loss to down one.

May 5th to Adam Watson, also of Boston. The wedding will take place in St. Thomas. The St. Louis connection?

A year or so after the successful transplant, we were given (by mutual consent) the name and address of the formerly (anonymous) donor. And Wednesday night, the night before the St. Louis NABC began, Abbie and I had dinner with this wonderful young man, his wife and his parents at a restaurant here in St. Louis. We toasted each other, life, and all the wonderful things that happen when people do good things. This young man will also be present when Samantha gets married in eight weeks. As a matter of fact, he will be the one marrying them. Life is good.

Monitoring
At this and future North American championships, ACBL will be monitoring NABC+ events with visible, real–time cameras. The images will be recorded and will be available for later official inspection and review.

By general monitoring of the session and participants’ behavior, ACBL has another source of information that may be useful in determining facts and settling issues arising from some types of ethical and behavioral complaints or actions. This procedure is intended to assure everyone that the playing field is level and that misbehavior will not be tolerated.
In accordance with Laws 61-64, a one-trick declarer, by saying “heart,” was playing to correct his revoke. Declarer stated that he was West’s jack, dummy pitching a spade. West shifted won by East with the ace. The was won by the king. Declarer advanced the plus 150 after the opening lead of the Louis, featuring two stops.

The director judged that North played in 1NT making three for . The committee found that his stating “heart” constituted an incomplete designation of the heart from dummy. The laws provide for incomplete designation by deeming it be the lowest card in dummy of the suit named, unless that was incontrovertibly not declarer’s intention (Law 46.2.B.). The testimony did not suggest that it was clear that declarer was mattering rather than naming a card to be played. Declarer did not say “heart,” in a slip of the tongue, intending to say something else. He was in a position where cashing dummy’s last heart was the logical next play and he said “heart” in such a way that it reasonably could be construed to be a designation of a card he is proposing to play. Under those circumstances the committee decided the heart in dummy is played and the revoke on the previous trick was established. Therefore, a one trick penalty was appropriate and the decision of the table director was upheld. The committee found that the appeal had merit.

Facts: North played in 1NT making three for plus 150 after the opening lead of the ♥. The director was called after trick seven. The play to that point had been: ♥9 to the 10 and ace. The ♥Q was won by the king. Declarer advanced the ♥Q won by East with the ace. The ♥8 was led to West's jack, dummy pitching a spade. West shifted to the ♥A, won by the ♥A. Declarer led the ♥10 and overtaken in dummy with the king. At trick seven, declarer led the ♥9. After following to the ♥9 with the ♥A, declarer said the word "heart." Declarer stated that he was attempting to correct his revoke.

Director’s Ruling: The director judged that declarer, by saying "heart," was playing to the next trick. The revoke, therefore, was established. In accordance with Laws 61-64, a one-trick penalty was imposed and the result adjusted to 1NT making two for a score of N-S plus 120.

The Appeal: At the end of trick seven, declarer was in dummy in which there remained one good heart. Declarer still had one heart in his hand due to his revoke at trick seven. The declarer then said "heart." A moment later (one or two seconds), he took the heart from his hand and started to exchange it for the club he had played to trick seven. There was conflicting testimony about whether declarer’s trick seven card was face down at that point. Dummy had not played the remaining heart and West had not played. After a brief exchange between the players, E-W called for the director. E-W said they thought a heart had been called from dummy. Declarer said it was not his intention to call a card from dummy; he just said “heart” because he wanted to correct the revoke.

The Decision: The committee heard the testimony of the three of the players and two kibitzers (who had been sitting on either side of dummy). The kibitzers’ testimony was requested and consented to by both sides.

Although Declarer had said that he had fully named each previous heart played from dummy, the committee found that his stating “heart” constituted an incomplete designation of the heart from dummy. The laws provide for incomplete designation by deeming it be the lowest card in dummy of the suit named, unless that was incontrovertibly not declarer’s intention (Law 46.2.B.). The testimony did not suggest that it was clear that declarer was mattering rather than naming a card to be played. Declarer did not say “heart,” in a slip of the tongue, intending to say something else. He was in a position where cashing dummy’s last heart was the logical next play and he said “heart” in such a way that it reasonably could be construed to be a designation of a card he is proposing to play. Under those circumstances the committee decided the heart in dummy is played and the revoke on the previous trick was established. Therefore, a one trick penalty was appropriate and the decision of the table director was upheld. The committee found that the appeal had merit.

TOURING ST. LOUIS

St. Louis City Tour

Enjoy a private, guided 3-1/2-hour tour of St. Louis. You will pass by the Anheuser Busch brewery on your way to Lafayatte Square, St. Louis’s oldest historic district. Victorian mansions, townhouses and row houses display architectural styles from the Civil War through the turn of the century.

The cathedral is the home of the largest mosaic collection in the world. The 2007 ACBL Honorary Member of the Year, Zeke Jabbour, was introduced by Glenn Eisenstein, whose humorous yet affectionate verbal barbs were the highlight of the evening.

The quoting Jabbour’s wife Sharon, who had previously said that Zeke puts a smile on the face of bridge, Eisenstein quipped, “It’s true. I’ve been Zeke’s partner plenty of times, and when people come to our table, they smile. And when they leave our table, they smile.” Eisenstein applauded Jabbour for, “...being on the right side of everything, including ethics and bridge professionalism.”

Jabbour accepted the honor, joking that the decision to name him Honorary Member was obviously made after a very long happy hour. In a moment of seriousness, he thanked the group for the honor, and cited the support of his wife Sharon.

It was déjà vu in the Smokies last spring: Gatlinburg shattered ACBL all-time attendance records for the sixth consecutive year.

Some quick facts and figures from last April: 9,656 tables, with 3,943 participants. Every state but one represented (hello, Wisconsin?). Gold point knockouts: 207 brackets. Fifty-nine players with more than 100 masterpoints for one week. You get the idea. If you haven’t been, join us next month, April 9-15, to see what it’s all about. If you have been, you already know. Ah... Springtime in the Mid-Atlantic

April means Gatlinburg... but May means Richmond, and June means Greensville, Virgina, where we offer one great monthly meeting, and here is where you can spend springtime in the Mid-Atlantic.

Richmond, VA - May 22-28, Holiday Inn Koger Center (804) 379-3800. Regardless of the site, the Mid-Atlantic's Memorial Day regional always is the ACBL's largest. Great playing area, with all games in two big ballrooms and plenty of nearby restaurants. Tournaments co-chair - Lorraine Shagraw (703) 470-4304, richmond@macbridge.org

Greensville, SC - June 11-17, Hyatt Regency Downtown (864) 235-1234. The more and more folks are catching on: This is one of Mid-Atlantic's most impressive venues. Set in a revitalized uptown downtown area but easily accessible by air or ground. Tournaments co-chair - Jaime Villanueva (864) 322-6153, jaime@macbridge.org

Fliers on the information table. As always, check for news and updates at www.macbridge.org

Dying by the Sword, Living by the Sword

By Bob Lefleur

The sword for my long time partnership with Al McGrae is 11-14 1NTs, and we prid ourselves on not getting caught for numbers. We run before the doubling starts with most weak hands and have methods to describe single-suited and two-suited hands if 1NT has been doubled in the direct position. Responder with 5 or more balanced points passes after 1NT-Pass, and opener Alerts, informing the opponents, if asked, that the expectation is a 8 to a bad 11 HCP.

Playing in a KO on Saturday, it was a real disappointment when holding:

\begin{align*}
\text{North} \quad &\text{South} \\
\text{J} &\text{A} \\
\text{Q} &\text{9} \\
\text{8} &\text{7} \\
\text{6} &\text{5} \\
\text{4} &\text{3} \\
\text{2} &\text{1} \\
\end{align*}

The four spades and four hearts were left in the box when we were South and the expectation was a 8 to a bad 11 HCP.

In third seat favorable I opened the West hand 1NT. Not everyone's idea of a quality bid (including partner). North, with6 balanced HCP, doubled, and partner passed, which I Alerted. When asked, I explained that partner had a two-suit hand which did not include spades or wanted to play 1NT redoubled to punish North for getting into our auction. South passed and I redoubled per agreement. North passed, partner passed and South had nowhere to go.

North led the F and, liking my chances, put up dummy's ace, getting even better news when South played the jack. I followed with the 7. A club to my jack was taken by North to play the Q and after some thought South unblocked the 10. North continued a diamond to my 9. I ran the diamonds. This was the position when I cashed my last diamond:

\begin{align*}
\text{North} \quad &\text{South} \\
\text{J} &\text{A} \\
\text{Q} &\text{K} \\
\text{8} &\text{7} \\
\text{6} &\text{5} \\
\text{4} &\text{3} \\
\text{2} &\text{1} \\
\end{align*}

Free isn’t always free
Sometimes you are given something free. But free often isn’t really free if Jan Jansma’s opponents found out on this deal from the Vanderbilt KO Teams on Monday. (Spots cards are approximate.)

Jansma, a world-class player from Netherlands playing with countryman Louk Verhees, won the opening lead in his hand with the 9. He could see he needed to ruff a club in dummy to have any chance to make the contract so he led low toward the ♣K. West rose with the ace and returned another spade. Declarer won in hand and led another club to the king on which East ruffed. Declarer now could visualize West with 5-5 in the black suits, so it looked as if his plan was worth 5 IMPs for Jansma’s team.

This was the complete deal:
