

ACBL Litigation Report March 2024

There were two cases that had been brought against ACBL that have now been settled. These are the Marcus case and the Hann case.

EDGAR vs Hammond Software

On February 22, 2024, Hammond Software initiated a countersuit against EDGAR (a computer-based cheating detection—CBCD—system). This suit named ACBL as a defendant in response to the patent suit filed by EDGAR against Hammond Software.
